Large Attendance at the Elgin Agricultural Fair.

A Fine Showing of Stock and Farm Products at St. Martins-List of Prize Winners.

mildin, Oct. 14.—The annual exhibi-tion of the Elgin Agricultural society was held on their grounds yesterday, the weather being all that could be the weather being all that could be wished for. The attendance was mary large, much larger than in former years. The exhibit of horses, which was very large, received considerable attention. Some very fine colts were shown. The showing of cattle and sheep was not up to an average. shown, the different sections were only poorly represented, and in fact many sections that would be filled other years were not represented at all this year. The show in the hall was an year. The show in the haff was an average, except fruis, which was by far the finest ever shown here. W. A. Celpitts and C. L. Bleakney deserve credit for the pains they take in displaying the products of their erchards. The quality of the grain was good, as well as that of butter, which vas very fine. The fellowing were the judges:

Notes. Among the visitors were Hon. H. R. Emmerson, W. J. Lewis, M. D. and M. P., Alexander Rogers, ex-M. P., John L. Peck, R. D. Robinson of the Sussex Record and M. B. Keith of Petitcodiac and other prominent gen-

The fair grounds received the addition of a merry-go-round this year.
It was well patronized and added greatly to the enjoyment of visitors. The races took place on the new track at one o'clock, and long before that hour large numbers assembled. There were three races, in which the following horses were entered:

Three minute class—Lady Sim, owned by M. E. Mollins of Elgin; Mand C., owned by J. Chapman of Manhurst; Harry D., owned by E. Duffy of Hillsboro; Alababba, owned by Geo. E. Kelth of Havelock; Dartsworth, owned by J. L. Bleakney of Salisbury. Four year old colts-Nancy C. wned by S. C. Goggin of Elgin; Maud B., owned by F. Robinson of Elgin Matty, owned by D. S. Mann of Petit ac; Lucy Pilot, owned by H.

Hughes of Petitodiac.
Free-for-all-Harry A., owned by N. Pearson of Albert: Nutright, owned by F. Alward of Havelock. The judges were O. P. King of Sussex, C. A. Coates of Havelock and Howard McCully of Anagance; timer, G. G. Jones of Petitoodiac, and O. P. King was starter. The three minute race was first called and all the horses responded. Lady Sim got the pole and kept it till near the end of the heat, when she was passed by Maud C., which won this heat. Lady Sim was a good second and Dartsmouth third. Maud C. got the next two heats easily, which made her the winner of this wace. Lady Sim got second money and Dartsmouth third,
In the next race Nancy G. won three straight heats, Lucy Pilot got second money and Matty third, In the free for all the people saw a well contested race. Nutright seemed to be the favorite till the finish of first heat. Although only two orses entered, yet there were three heats, which were won by Harry A Time, 2.50, 2.50 and 2.49.

LOCH LOMOND FAIR. Loch Lomond Agricultural society was held in their hall at Loch Lomond Thursday, and a very creditable exhibition it was. The weather perfect and the attendance of visitors from various places was, of course, large. Ladies were present in great numbers and their presence added much to the enjoyment of the day The farmers of the district say their crops generally are up to if not superior to the average. Potatoes are not up to the usual yield, but some good specimens were shown. The turnips and carrots exhibited in the hall were greatly admired. There was a good display of manufactured articles, the quilts being particularly fine.

The show outside was one of which any district might be proud. were 60 or 70 head of cattle, chiefly Ayrshires and Jerseys. Creighton, W. A. McFate and James Desmond were the principal exhibit ors in the first named class. Creighton showed nine head, two of them being the cow Bonny Nell and the yearling heifer White Heather of St. Ann, which he recently purchased from the local government. Nell had a handsome calf by her side. Mr. Desmond's show was a big one. A lot of Jerseys of excellent breeding and fine appearance were shown by D. Connolly, S. Creighton, W. A. Mc-Fate, Robt.
