DUEL WITH WINCHESTERS.

Bloody Affray Ends a Family Feud in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 28.—Edwin Blalock, dead with a Winchester rifle ball through his brain; N. P. Blalock, leg broken by a bullet; Bert Wright, Jr., broken by a bullet; Bert Wright, Jr., a fugitive from justice. Such is the result of a desperate duel with Winchester rifles which occurred last night, south of the city and near Forest Hill cemetery. The tragedy grew out of a dispute between Robert Wright, Jr., and Edwin Blalock.

The fathers backed the boys up and the two families lined up with rifles on neutral ground. When within a few yards of each other the first shot was fired. Then sharp and quick the resounding reports of firearms were heard by the neighbors.

At almost the first shot from the side of Wright's young Blalock fell with a ball through his brain. His brother Fred picked up the rifle and took the brunt of the battle on his shoulders. Finally the elder Wright had to be carried away with a bullet in his leg and Blalock, injured in almost the same way, was carried into his house. The two young men took a few shots at each other as they retreated, each towards his own home.
Robert Wright, Jr., and Edwin Blalock, the dead boys, had a slight quarrel.
Wright, it is said, told it around that he had given Blalock a black eye.
The two families on account of this little difference became estranged and last night's tragedy resulted.

THE STEEL STRIKE.

It Is Believed a Settlement Will Be Reached at Once.

PITTSBURGH, July 28.—Pittsburghers generally express the greatest delight in anticipation of the settlement of the steel strike, and no one seems to have the slightest doubt that the negotiations for peace will have any other result. So far neither of the contending forces has suffered greatly. The workmen have been exceedingly hot, and the men look upon the last month as a vacation during the heated term.

President Shaffer and Secretary Williams were both early at the amalgamated headquarters this morning, and in rare good humor. They still maintain their position of secrecy however, and beyond admitting that a call had been sent out last night to all members of the executive board for a meeting to be held in this city tomorrow morning, refused to give any information as to the probable settlement of the strike. To all questions President Shaffer replied that he had nothing to say, but in a friendly talk to the press he said that he believed that newspaper men would little longer be following him and watching his movements. From this it is believed that Mr. Shaffer is satisfied that the executive board will agree to the proposition which he presented. With the approval of his recommendations, a joint meeting could be held and a settlement effected. The moment a common ground for negotiations on such a question as this is found, it is believed there will be little difficulty in getting down to a general agreement, which will bring peace with it.

The terms of the prospective settlement are being carefully guarded by all parties concerned, but a source believed to be reliable, it is stated that Mr. Monaghan proposed to permit the Amalgamated association to continue its union prior to the strike, but which went on to President Shaffer's satisfaction. In addition it is said the Leechburg, Duncansville and Mon-essen plants are permitted to be unionized. The United States Steel company is to be permitted to operate all of the plants in the country, as they are now operated, provided the wages shall be on the same basis as in the mills where the union scale is in effect.

THE FRUITS OF WAR.

Insane Men, Sick Men and Dead Men
From the Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., July 28.—
The transport Meade, which just arrived from Manila in the record breaking time of 23 days, brought 135 men of the Eighth Infantry Battery, twenty-one hospital corps men, thirty-five insane, 230 convalescent soldiers, sometime expired prisoners, 203 discharged soldiers from Manila, and 103 bodies, including that of Helen D. Cochrane, a contract nurse, who died in Manila of acute nephritis.

There were about 100 passengers, including Brig. Genl. R. H. Hall, Col. O.
R. Greenleaf, Col. Meade and a number of other officers. Doctors Humphreys and Gilmore of the U. S.
Army were also on board. Four deaths occurred during the voyage, those of Lieut. E. J. Minchen, Forty-fourth Volunteer Infantry; John Blue, Third Cavalry, and John Murphy, Fifteenth Infantry.

KING EDWARD'S COURTESY.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions in this city has received the announcement from the state department at Washington that King Edward had conferred the Royal Red Cross decoration upon Miss Abbie E.
Chapin, one of the board's missionaries in China. The medal was given because of Miss Chapin's services during the siege of Peking.

POLICE COURT.

Several Drunks—A Deserter to Be Sent Back.

On Saturday and Sunday the police made six arrests, five of them being for drunkenness. Two of the men, Orwell Irvine and John Barry, had a bit of a scuffle on Dock street in view of the police, and by the evidence given last night this morning Barry was sent to prison. Barry had been released on bail, and as Barry failed to appear in answer to his name the sixteen dollars he had left was declared forfeited. The case against Irvine was postponed until tomorrow.

John W. Davis, an English sailor, on the Loyalist, on Saturday took possession of the ship and made things interesting for the crew. He ended his fun by striking the second engineer of the steamer with a piece of iron.
Sergeant Campbell and Officer Rankine enticed Davis to the wharf and there arrested him. This morning he pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and was fined eight dollars or twenty days.

James Gardner, sixty years of age, was gathered in on Union street, west end, and was fined eight dollars or thirty days for drunkenness.

William Lenihan, caused Officer Rankine a considerable amount of trouble, and on being arrested was charged with drunkenness and resisting the police. For the first offence he was fined eight dollars or twenty days and for resisting, sixteen dollars or two months.

George F. Brown, of Indian town, deserted from the Royal Canadianians at Halifax on the 12th of January last.
He shortly afterwards turned up in this city, where he has since led a civilized life. The authorities at Halifax offered a reward of $10 for his apprehension and a short time ago a warrant was issued for his arrest. He was last evening taken in charge by Sergeants Hastings and Baxter, and in the police court this morning after pleading guilty to the charge against him was remanded. An escort to take him back to Halifax will arrive here today.

THE LATE ROBERT H. GREEN.

As a last token of respect to the memory of Robert H. Green, a large number of citizens attended his funeral, which was held this afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs.
Walter H. Fleming, 78 Dorchester street. At half past two o'clock services were conducted at the house by the Rev. R. W. Weddall, assisted by the Rev. Job Shenton. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery.

By the expressed wish of Mr. Green flowers were not sent, but the members of his family offered a beautiful pillow of roses, carnations, sweet peas and smilax, with the word "Father" in purple.

Mr. Green was born in Weatherbe-England, in 1844, and came to St. John in 1872. He was of a quiet, retiring disposition, being more devoted to his home than to public life, and was highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. Besides his widow, Mr. Green leaves five children, Mrs.
J. W. Myers, Mrs. Walter H. Fleming, William H., George H. and Frederick Green. He was a member of the American Legion of Honor.

THE LATE JAMES F. HAMILTON.

The funeral of the late James F.
Hamilton took place this afternoon from his late residence, 23 Wellington Row, and was largely attended. A number of the members of the Masonic fraternity attended as mourners. At half-past two o'clock service was conducted at his late residence by the Rev. R. P. McKim, after which all the friends present took coaches to Fernhill cemetery, where the body was interred. There were no pall-bearers.
The casket was literally covered with beautiful floral tributes, as follows:—Mr. and Mrs. D. McCormick, carnations; Mrs. Horn, crescent of white roses; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bartholomew, basket of roses; Mrs. Mori, roses; Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, carnations and stocks; Mrs. H. W. Miller, sheaf of wheat and roses; Mr. and Mrs.
James W. Walker, carnations; Beach Club, scroll of ivy and ferns; Balgowie Club, wreath of roses; George Blake, anchor of crimson roses and carnations; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, carnations and stocks; Mr. Edward Sears, sweet peas, asters and stocks; Robert Armstrong, roses and carnations; Mr. and Mrs. George Murray, star of pink roses and carnations; Mr. and Mrs.
Bagles and Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Sullivan, crescent of carnations; D. C.
Clinch, horse-shoe of roses and carnations; Mrs. Frank Rankine, basket heliotrope; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller, cross; Russell Hamilton and Mrs.
Hamilton, pillow of roses and carnations bearing inscription "Father."

THE WATER IS LOW.

Part of the crew of D. D. Glasier's tugboat Lilly Glasier, were today party off and the boat has stopped work for a time. On account of the lowness of the water in the upper reaches of the river it has been found impossible to do any more towing at present, although there are still millions of feet of lumber to come down. It is expected that the water will rise shortly and the boat will again begin work.

THE WEATHER.

KING HUMBERT.

Imposing Memorial Services in Rome—Anarchists in New Jersey Rajoles.

ROME, July 28.—The first anniversary of the tragic death of King Humbert (who was assassinated at Monza, near Milan, July 29 last, by Count Bresci, an anarchist, who was sentenced to life imprisonment, and who committed suicide by hanging himself in his cell May 23), is being celebrated today by commemorative services throughout Italy. Rome is the centre of the observances and there are 100,000 visitors here on a pilgrimage to the tomb of King Humbert in the Pantheon. In addition, members of the royal family, senators and deputies assembled at the capital to take part in the ceremonies. The weather was fine and the streets were crowded.

The ceremonies commenced at 9 o'clock in the morning, when the King, Queen Helena, Queen Margherita and Queen Maria Pia (Dowager Queen of Portugal and Princess of the House of Savoy) and the princes and princesses prayed at the tomb of the late king.
The royal party afterwards attended mass. At 10 o'clock high mass was celebrated in the Pantheon, which was imposingly decorated inside and outside. Very conspicuous in the centre of the edifice stood a catafalque surmounted by the royal insignia and surrounded by innumerable wax tapers.
Detachments of royal cuirassiers were posted about the building, and other troops cordoned the pantheon square.

Representatives of the King, the Knights of the order of the Annun-ciata, the cabinet ministers, the diplomatic corps, the state and provincial authorities, the senators and deputies and many naval and military officers were present at the high mass.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The anarchists of Paterson, N. J., will today celebrate the anniversary of the murder of King Humbert, of Italy. It is expected that the members of the fraternity will be present in numbers from New York, Brooklyn and Hoboken. Mrs. Bresci, widow of the mur-derer of the king, may be present. The anarchist newspapers published in Paterson on Saturday contained a picture of Bresci surrounded with a laurel wreath. At one side of this picture justice was represented in the act of plunging a sword into the King.

ELIZABETH MCCORMICK

A Canadian Girl, Died By Suicide in
New York.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Elizabeth McCormick, 25 years old, is dead at the German hospital in this city. She is known to be a member of a Canadian family, her father, it is said, being in the Canadian customs service. Her sister is believed to be in a convent in Boston, and she left letters addressed to a man in St. Dunstan's college, Charlottetown, P. E. I. At the hospital she said that she had taken a drug.
Miss McCormick came to this city about three months ago, but recently was out of employment and in low spirits. She was taken to the hospital from a boarding house where she had a room.

ORGANIZED LABOR.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Resolutions advocating the raising of a half million dollars, a defence fund and other things bearing on the steel and other strikes, were discussed at a meeting of the Central Federated Union of New York yesterday. The resolutions will be voted on next Saturday, also the retention of a lawyer who shall be paid a sufficient fee to be above the reach of temptation, and who shall be called upon to attend to all cases in the courts in behalf of organized labor throughout the country.

GAS KILLED THEM.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The bodies of three men, two dead and one dying, have been found in the rear room of a saloon in Brooklyn. The men slept in the room. When the door was opened it was found the room was full of gas. It is supposed it was accidentally turned on. One of the dead men was Dutchman and the other was known only as William.

Both were employed at the saloon.
The identity of the third man is not yet known.

CHINESE AFFAIRS.

LONDON, July 28.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Globe says:—
"The assurances given in the house of commons July 23 by Lord Cranborne, the under foreign secretary, that the French and German troops are only temporarily here, are refuted by the fact that both nationalities are erecting massive permanent barracks, which will take two years to complete, indicating that many years of occupation are contemplated."

IT WAS A BOER YARN.

LONDON, July 28.—Enquiry made by the Associated Press shows there is no foundation of the rumor published here by the Daily Express that the United States ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, had left London for Holland, not on a holiday, but at the invitation of Mr. Kruger, who desires him to act as a mediator in bringing about a peace settlement. Mr. Choate has not left London. He returned here from Sussex today.

CRISPI IS SINKING.

Crispi, at this hour, is sinking. His condition is most grave.

Mrs. Ned Murchie and daughter of St. John, and Mrs. Skiff Murchie, of Calais, arrived yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. George A. Murchie.—Fredericton Herald.

RAIDEN-POWELL ON CANADIANS.

In a letter to Sir Wilfrid Laurier Raiden-Powell, speaking of the South African constabulary, says:—

"I have learned in the recent campaign to admire and to appreciate the worth of the Canadians in the field and am, therefore, truly glad to welcome your contingent to our corps." "I trust the connection thus commenced between Canada and South Africa is but an augury of a close and profitable connection in the future."
