"The drift of public opinion rendered some action on the part of the liberal party in this constituency necessary and the executive of that party met and decided to contest the elections in these two constituencies on federal lines. As a party the liberals had a perfect right to take this stand. The action of the executive of the liberal party did not necessarily change the conditions in other constituencies throughout the province."

There is no suggestion that Mr. There is no suggestion that Mr. Tweedie, who is supposed to be premier, was consulted at all in reference to this double-barrelled programme which would make a division on federal lines in St. John, and leave the gov ernment supporters in other con der this plan, conservatives might be denounced in St. John and cajoled in Kings county, in the interests of the ame government. Apparently, the government is afraid to face the issue either on straight federal lines or coalition, taking the province as a whole. But by turning the campaign into a seperate vote-hunt in each county, adapting themselves to any conditions which they think will be for

It now remains to be seen what re sponse will be given by those liberal papers, like the Globe and Moncto Transcript, which have favored a division on federal lines all over the province. It will of course occur to them that if Mr. Pugsley and Mr. Tweedie are not good enough liberals to make the fight all along the line they are no great addition to the ranks of that

But whatever those journals think the majority of the electors will probably decide that a government which confesses itself beaten on its record. and shifts its ground to snatch if possible an unfair verdict, is a very good sort of government to defeat. And liberals and conservatives will join in this very necessary work.

GOVERNMENTS AND PROSPERITY.

The people of the United States owe great debt to the members of the Canadian government, and it should casion no surprise if the thanks of congress were ananimously voted to Sir Wilfrid. Hon. Mr. Fielding and their colleagues. For times have been good in the United States, and we all know that it was merely the overflow of the prosperity in Canada, which is entirely owing to the fact that a liberal government is in power.

ness activity in the United States, we DAVID CONNELL, courty was greater in 1992 than ever before, it was nevertheless necessary to import more in the first eleven months of that year than in any full year for a decade. The total value of the imports of iron and steel for the inforce and characters of the imports of iron and steel for the inforce and characters, which is the content of the imports of iron and steel in that courty was greater in 1992 than ever before, it was nevertheless necessary to import more in the first eleven months of that year than in any full year for a decade. The total value of the imports of iron and steel for the eleven months was about $40,000,000, In 1899 the total for what for the local Legislature, proposed by Hop. may cite the fact that although the only $12,000,000. The items include pig ron, ingots, blooms, bars, etc., mahimry, tin plates, terne plates, etc. on ore, cutlery, bar iron, railway bars, scrap iron and steel firearms wire rods, wire and articles made from, sheet, plate and taggers iron, needles shotgun barrels, hoop, band or scroll, files, file blanks, etc., chains, anvils,

> Referring to the increase last year Washington letter says:-

This increase is the more remarkable in view of the fact that the pig iron production and the iron and steel production generally in the United States was far greater in the year 1902 than in any preceding year, the total production of pig iron being estimated at fully 17,800,000 tons, against 15,878,000 in 1901, which was the highest figure ever recorded prior to 1902. The increase in imports occurs in practically all classes of iron and steel manufactures. Pig iron increased from $1,500,000 to nearly $9,000,000 in value; ingots, blooms and bars from a little over $1,900,000 to over $7,000,000. In a single item, tip plates, there is a reduction, the value of tin plate importation the eleven months being $3,603,426, against $1,594,736, and the quantity, 120,000,000 pounds in 1902, against 180,000,000 in the same months of 1901.

The explanation of the falling off in This increase is the more remarkable

The explanation of the falling off in he importation of tin plates is of ourse due to the fact that under liberal rule in Canada nothing so comnon as tin would be considered of any value, after the collapse of the demand and the United States followed our lead. But it is cheering to be able to reflect that our noble rulers have been so good to our neighbors, and brought to their shores so wonderful a wave of prosperity. And yet there are some people who will argue that even Canada's prosperity did not come as a result of liberal rule—but in spite of it. Even Mr. Tarte thinks our rulers might have done more than they did. might have done more than they did.

It has been decided by members of Plymouth church and Society of Brooklyn to remove the remains of Henry Ward Beecher from their resting place in Greenwood to a burial place on the lots adjoining Plymouth church, and to erect there a memorial building in which will be placed various relics of the Beecher family. The latter are now preserved elsewhere. It is proposed to raise a fund of $100,000 Nearly $8,000 was subscribed at the first meeting held to discuss the ques tion.

The Dutch, German and American caricaturists, who have delighted to picture Mr. Chamberlain as a fiend gloating over South African graveyards, will please observe that the people of South Africa regard him in quite a different light. Time brings its revenges. Even Major McBride's photo has disappeared from the pages of the magazines, while Paul Kruger is ver seldom mentioned.

The Telegraph and the Gazette both denounce the Rothesay forgery. They also denounce the Sun for repeating the history of the crime. They have not yet denounced those whose duty it pertinent to enquire what plot the forgers are now hatching for the coming campaign.

VISITED THE ABATTOIR SITES.

The Slaughter House Commissioners

The Slaughter House Commissioners drove out from the city yesterday afternoon and inspected the three sites on which it is proposed to erect a modern abattoir such as growing St. John needs.

The New Brunswick abattoir company's site at the corner of the Red Head road and the Gilbert property was visited by the gentlemen in whom has been vested the power to make the decision in favor of the most acceptable place. Property number two was next sought out. It is that of Messrs, Kane & McGrath, situate on the top of the hill between Damery's and McCarthy's.

The Carritte abattoir location, two miles out, between Cogglin's and McLean's, was also inspected.

No definite action was taken in the matter, None of the gentlemen composing the Slaughter House Commission will express themselves as to the selection of one property as over the other. The matter is in their hands and may be fully threshed out at their meeting, which will be held on the first Friday in February.

AT THE ROYAL.

Complimentary Dinner to Visiting Scottish Curlers.

The dinner given at the Royal Hotel last night in honor of the visiting Scotch curlers was a brilliant affair. At 9 o'clock the guests filed into the large dining hall of the hotel, tastefully decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting, and sat down to a bountiful repast. There was feasting, drinking, speechmaking, singing and reciting. The speeches were eloquent and interesting, and the recitations and songs were rendered in a manner that was creditable to those who gave them. J. D. Chipman of St. Stephen occupied the chair. On his right was Rev. John Kerr, M. A., captain of the visiting team from Scotland, and on his left Mayor White of St. John. R. Keltle Jones was vice chairman. He had been working with Herbert Clarke, and together they were moving a piece of the hatch cover when Walsh slipped and fell down the hatch the entire depth of the steamer. Help was quickly summoned and he was holsted up to the deck in a coal bucket. He was not entirely unconscious at any time. Walsh was then carried into an office in warehouse No. 3 and carefully attended to by the ship's doctor of the Lake Erle. Upon examination it was found that an bones were broken and that with the exception of a bad gash over the right eye and a number of severe bruises he was not apparently much the worse for his severe shaking up.
