FREDERICTON, July 24.—The game of base ball between the Tartars of this city and the Franklins of St. John at Seely's Grove this afternoon resulted in a victory for the Tartars by a score of 11 to 3. The Tartar battery was Malloy and Finnmore, while the opposing team put George and Mills between the points. The game was one of the most interesting seen in this city in recent years and almost equal to professional ball. Tibbitts and McFarlane of the disbanded Ross and old Tartar players, played on the victorious team.

Want the Championship.

The base ball aggregation of Haley Bros. & Co. have repeatedly offered to meet McMillan's paper-weighters in base ball battle. They could not, however, get a satisfactory answer; in consequence this bold duty is now being undertaken by Haley Bros. & Co.'s base ball team, hereby challenge McMillan's players to a game of base ball this (Saturday) afternoon on the Barrack square.

Russell. Of all R. K. Y. C. trophies this massive piece of plate is the most coveted, though few yachtsmen have had a chance to do more than gaze upon its glimmering surface and slightly note the word "Canada," such-and-such date, engraved on not less than five of the smaller shields set apart for the names of yearly winners. If the Canada succeeds in defeat-

IN PARLIAMENT.
OTTAWA, July 24.—In the commons today Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised Mr. Borden that the Government would not bring down a bill to amend the Electoral Act until after the election.

It was announced that B. T. A. Bell, editor of the Canadian Mining Review, has been appointed to fill the vacancy on the Treasurers' commission.

Hon. Mr. Fielding moved his resolution in favor of a Canadian shanty of three-eighths of a cent per pound on all binder twine manufactured from manila fibre. This will, he says, compensate Canadians for the disadvantages under which they labor in the export duty imposed on all manila shipped from the Philippines to any other country than the United States. Bounties will be paid on all twine made in Canada since September 1st, 1902.

The date that the United States legislation went into force. Mr. Fielding expressed gratification at the success of the industry.

Mr. Tarte attacked Fielding in lively style over his bounties, which had been changed three times to encourage iron and steel manufacture, and every time failure had attended his efforts. He urged the government to impose sufficient duties.

Mr. Fraser denounced the increased duties as unnecessary, and contended if iron and steel could not flourish under present circumstances, something was wrong with the management.

Mr. Tarte had another inning after dinner and pointed out that no industry in the country had asked for bounties. They all wanted duties. He believed the government were making a mistake, and he wanted to know where they stood. Within a short time responsible ministers of the crown had promised increased duties, and today parliament was treated to an exhibition of some of the leading members of the liberal party talking free trade in the face of these pledges. If binder twine was protected thousands of dollars going abroad would now go to pay Canadian labor and buy Canadian goods. Tarte declared that in the house there were many liberals who shared his views, and on the treasury benches were men who believed what he believed. He had letters from liberals from Nova Scotia to British Columbia expressing confidence in his course. He knew that in the country the vast majority of the people were in favor of protection and only the party which prevented members from voting as they thought.

OTTAWA, July 24.—The binder twine resolution was passed and a bill founded on it was introduced, read a first time and taken up in committee. The bill was allowed to stand for a third reading. Adjourned at 12 p. m.

NOTES.
Emmerson is back from his pipe laying, during which operation he says he learned that the feeling in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia was strongly in favor of the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme, and consequently against Blair. A cable received here announces that a meeting of the Grand Trunk Trunk Trunk at London will consider resolutions having reference to amalgamation with the Grand Trunk Pacific.

WALL STREET EXCITED.
NEW YORK, July 24.—The announcement on the stock exchange last today of the suspension of the firms of Talbot J. Taylor & Co., and of W. L. Stow & Co. was the sequel to a period of excited selling of stocks, wide-spread prices which has not been equalled before since the present movement to liquidate set in. There is nothing in either failure that can be traced to industrial or commercial conditions outside the exchange, the case lying close to a diagnosis of speculative collapse. Both firms have been largely concerned in the speculative stock market pool, formed for the purpose of taking on a line of stocks, sustaining their price by supporting orders real or manipulative and seeking to realize profits by selling to outsiders at high prices. Such operations have suffered from increasing difficulties with the growth of the stringency of money, the solicitude of bankers over loans employed in such projects and the jaded appetite of the public for securities.

The failure of Talbot J. Taylor & Co. will inevitably be connected with the great market operations of James R. Keene by reason of his family connection with and frequent employment of the firm.

WANT MORE MONEY.
Teamsters Driving for Portland Rolling Mills Dissatisfied.

There is considerable discontent among the teamsters at the Portland Rolling Mills over the wage question. The men claim that they are not getting money, single teams receiving only two dollars a day, while the highest wages paid for double teams is two dollars and a half a day.

This, they say, is ridiculous for it will hardly meet the expenses of feeding and caring for the teams. According to the teamsters' ideas, 35 cents a ton is far too little for hauling iron.

There are almost one dozen teamsters in the employ of the rolling mills, and all are dissatisfied with the wages which they maintain, the company is willing to pay, but while there are some who are willing to strike for the higher wage, there are others who are not willing to do so. Of course no one is willing to take the responsibility upon himself, unless the teamsters go in for it as a body, for it would only result in the discharge of the men who are not willing to do so, while the others would not suffer. Some of the most anxious to strike for higher pay are very vigilant at the other end, when they are getting two dollars a day, when they might as well get three and four.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL.
The regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council was held last evening in Berryman's Hall. Considerable business of a routine nature was transacted, after which the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved, "That the Trades and Labor Council condemn in strongest terms the passing by the Senate of the bill for the amendment of the Labor Code, which would affect laborers on strike, and would ask the representatives in parliament to oppose it when it comes before that body for ratification."

It was announced that the action of Senator Ellis on the stand he took in condemning the act.

The report of trade was then received and the following resolutions were passed: Ship laborers, teamsters, carpenters, freight handlers, printers, hod carriers, and mortarmen, trackmen, electrical workers, sheet metal workers, stationary firemen, bakers and boiler makers. The unions reported as fair wage cigar makers, shingle bunchers and moulders.

Chronic Constipation cured or money back. LAXA-CARA TABLETS never fail. Small, chocolate coated, easy to take. Price, 35 cents. At druggists.

A COLLECTION THAT FAILED.
Not very many years ago in a country church in the west of England, the rector preached the sermon on the text, "Feed me with food convenient for me." As he came down from the pulpit, well contented with the effect of his congregation, the disturbing thought struck him that he had made no arrangement for the collection (sure to be a liberal one on this occasion).

As he passed through the church he whispered hurriedly to a choir boy: "Go into the vestry take the plate you will find on the table, hand it round to the congregation, and then bring it to me."

The boy departed on his errand, and the rector took his place within the communion rails and gave out the offertory hymn.

The last words of this had scarcely died away when the boy stood before him a plate of biscuit in his hand, and an apologetic expression on his chubby face.

"Please, sir," he explained in an audible tone, "I've handed 'em round to everybody, and nobody won't take none."

ALL ONE.
A wind is a wind from whatever quarter it may blow. So thought the hotel-keeper of the highlands, of whom a tourist asked:

"Is this a good place, do you think, for a person with weak lungs?"

"None better, sir, none better," was the encouraging reply.

"I have been advised to settle in a place where there is a south wind. Does it blow much here?"

"Oh, aye," was the answer. "It's aye the south wind that blows here."

But it's blowing from the north now."

"Oh, aye, sir; it's a' one. It's the south wind all the time, sir, on its road back again."

Sunshine Furnace
OPEN DAMPERS—BACK TO BED.
The "Sunshine" consumes so little fuel during the night that plenty remains to make an instant and strong fire when the dampers are opened in the morning. The operator may then return to his warm, cosy bed while the house is heating—beats in 15 or 20 minutes.
Self-acting gas damper works automatically so that disagreeable odors always escape through the gas-pipe—never pass through registers into the house.
The "Sunshine" is simple in construction, easy to operate, requires very little attention and will produce more heat from the same amount of fuel than any other heater.
Costs no more than common furnaces.
Burns Coal, Coke or Wood.
