THE CHRONICLE.

SAINT JOHN, OCT. 6, 1846.

From Papers received by the English Packet of 19th ult.

THE SLAVE TRADE.—The average rate of mortality on the passage from the coast of Africa to the Brazils, with the slaves crowded, and packed as they usually are, is 25 per cent. Of 3,000 slaves, 750 die, and 2250 arrive. The number of vessels employed in the slave trade, is estimated at 200. The number of slaves annually imported into the Brazils, is 60,000. Of these, 15,000 die, and 45,000 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £2,250,000 sterling. Of this sum, £1,500,000 is the profit of the Brazilians, and £750,000 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into Cuba, is 14,000. Of these, 3,500 die, and 10,500 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £787,500 sterling. Of this sum, £525,000 is the profit of the Cubans, and £262,500 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the United States, is 15,000. Of these, 3,750 die, and 11,250 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £843,750 sterling. Of this sum, £562,500 is the profit of the Americans, and £281,250 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Spanish Main, is 15,000. Of these, 3,750 die, and 11,250 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £843,750 sterling. Of this sum, £562,500 is the profit of the Spaniards, and £281,250 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Dutch West Indies, is 5,000. Of these, 1,250 die, and 3,750 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £281,250 sterling. Of this sum, £187,500 is the profit of the Dutch, and £93,750 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the French West Indies, is 15,000. Of these, 3,750 die, and 11,250 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £843,750 sterling. Of this sum, £562,500 is the profit of the French, and £281,250 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Danish West Indies, is 2,000. Of these, 500 die, and 1,500 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £112,500 sterling. Of this sum, £75,000 is the profit of the Danes, and £37,500 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Swedish West Indies, is 1,000. Of these, 250 die, and 750 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £56,250 sterling. Of this sum, £37,500 is the profit of the Swedes, and £18,750 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Portuguese Colonies, is 40,000. Of these, 10,000 die, and 30,000 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £2,250,000 sterling. Of this sum, £1,500,000 is the profit of the Portuguese, and £750,000 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Danish Colonies, is 2,000. Of these, 500 die, and 1,500 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £112,500 sterling. Of this sum, £75,000 is the profit of the Danes, and £37,500 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Swedish Colonies, is 1,000. Of these, 250 die, and 750 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £56,250 sterling. Of this sum, £37,500 is the profit of the Swedes, and £18,750 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Spanish Colonies, is 15,000. Of these, 3,750 die, and 11,250 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £843,750 sterling. Of this sum, £562,500 is the profit of the Spaniards, and £281,250 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Dutch Colonies, is 5,000. Of these, 1,250 die, and 3,750 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £281,250 sterling. Of this sum, £187,500 is the profit of the Dutch, and £93,750 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the French Colonies, is 15,000. Of these, 3,750 die, and 11,250 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £843,750 sterling. Of this sum, £562,500 is the profit of the French, and £281,250 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Danish Colonies, is 2,000. Of these, 500 die, and 1,500 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £112,500 sterling. Of this sum, £75,000 is the profit of the Danes, and £37,500 that of the Africans. The number of slaves annually imported into the Swedish Colonies, is 1,000. Of these, 250 die, and 750 arrive. The gross amount of the profits of the slave trade, is £56,250 sterling. Of this sum, £37,500 is the profit of the Swedes, and £18,750 that of the Africans.

The impressions of foreign cattle into London continue to be extensive.

The number of cases of the Asiatic cholera throughout the metropolis, amounted to 2,117 on the 19th ult. The deaths from that disease, during the week ending on the 17th ult. amounted to 1,241. The total deaths in the metropolis, during the same week, were 1,379; large mortality indeed.

The dispute about cattle is reported to have terminated in favour of the Russians, and that the Austrians have consented to withdraw from the field of battle.

In the population of Rome, the most prominent of the French Algerian settlements, there is now a population of 10,000.

There are, it is said, in London, 41 Charles street, 39 Thomas street, 31 George street, 33 High st., 27 Queen st., 25 King street, 23 New street, and 21 Church st.

A number of men, dressed as Arnoutes, are now about the streets of Athens, with the view of collecting money, amounting to £1,000, for the widow and family of the late Mr. Finlay, the historian. The Arnoutes are a body of Albanian soldiers, who assist in the police of the city.

Mr. Brown, farmer, Belgravia, Felixstow, has grown a crop of potatoes, on the above portion of land, this year, for the ground occupied by them.

The Pope has issued a special Appointing a commission for examining into the affairs of the Roman Catholic University, which have been submitted to the government.

The annual gross income of the Queen of Portugal, Maria Segunda Victoria Isabella Francisca de Assiz, Raphael Gabriel Francisca de Assiz, Gaetano Agostinho Agostinha de Braganza e Bourbon Saxe Coburg, is £60,000.

Ibrahim Pasha has given their freedom to all the white slaves, with permission to leave Egypt if they thought it better for their interests to do so, or to remain in the country.

On Saturday last, at the end of a white-spray upwards of thirty five feet in length, was taken by some fishermen, off the west bay cliff, Sidmouth.

It is said that the King of Prussia intends first and foremost that the trial of the persons implicated in the late insurrection in Poland is to take place in the public courts of justice, and the debates are to be published in the journals.

During the first six months of the year, the suicides, according to the returns for the western district of the metropolis, were committed at the rate of one inhabitant in every thirteen thousand three hundred and forty-four of the population.

The Queen of Portugal has passed a resolution, that the Jesuits shall not be allowed to enter the kingdom, and that the decree of the Cortes, which authorized their admission, be annulled.

The Pope has issued a special Appointing a commission for examining into the affairs of the Roman Catholic University, which have been submitted to the government.

The annual gross income of the Queen of Portugal, Maria Segunda Victoria Isabella Francisca de Assiz, Raphael Gabriel Francisca de Assiz, Gaetano Agostinho Agostinha de Braganza e Bourbon Saxe Coburg, is £60,000.

Ibrahim Pasha has given their freedom to all the white slaves, with permission to leave Egypt if they thought it better for their interests to do so, or to remain in the country.

On Saturday last, at the end of a white-spray upwards of thirty five feet in length, was taken by some fishermen, off the west bay cliff, Sidmouth.

It is said that the King of Prussia intends first and foremost that the trial of the persons implicated in the late insurrection in Poland is to take place in the public courts of justice, and the debates are to be published in the journals.

During the first six months of the year, the suicides, according to the returns for the western district of the metropolis, were committed at the rate of one inhabitant in every thirteen thousand three hundred and forty-four of the population.

The Queen of Portugal has passed a resolution, that the Jesuits shall not be allowed to enter the kingdom, and that the decree of the Cortes, which authorized their admission, be annulled.

IRISH INTELLIGENCE

From the Dublin Gazette, of Friday night, contains only one additional proclamation for binding over to keep the peace, and to be of good behaviour, Mr. Wright, on the 25th of September, 1846.

From the Limerick Mail, Sept. 18.

Limerick Steamers.—The usual weekly meeting of the Royal Exchange Association, at Corporation buildings, took place on Tuesday last, when a letter was read from Mr. Hodgson, agent of the Limerick Steamer Company, stating that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised. Mr. Hodgson also stated that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised.

Limerick Steamers.—The usual weekly meeting of the Royal Exchange Association, at Corporation buildings, took place on Tuesday last, when a letter was read from Mr. Hodgson, agent of the Limerick Steamer Company, stating that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised. Mr. Hodgson also stated that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised.

From the Limerick Mail, Sept. 18.

Limerick Steamers.—The usual weekly meeting of the Royal Exchange Association, at Corporation buildings, took place on Tuesday last, when a letter was read from Mr. Hodgson, agent of the Limerick Steamer Company, stating that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised. Mr. Hodgson also stated that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised.

From the Limerick Mail, Sept. 18.

Limerick Steamers.—The usual weekly meeting of the Royal Exchange Association, at Corporation buildings, took place on Tuesday last, when a letter was read from Mr. Hodgson, agent of the Limerick Steamer Company, stating that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised. Mr. Hodgson also stated that the Limerick steamer would be withdrawn from the station on Saturday next, unless the Association would guarantee £10 per week, in addition to the £5 per week already promised.