

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

(Continued from Fifth Page.)

past week with Mr. and Mrs. Livingston, and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston on Saturday. Miss Nellie Rivers has arranged for a picnic to go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston on Monday. About thirty invitations have been issued and the young people expect a very jolly day. Miss Clark, of Fredericton, is with friends in town. Miss Mary K. Tibbitts came from Gagetown on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Tibbitts spent the last two weeks in town. Mr. Albert Roberts returned home last week from the Boston College of Pharmacy, of which he is a graduate. Miss Jane Brown left on Friday for Halifax, where she will take passage on the "City of Halifax" for England. Miss Brown will spend the summer with friends in Liverpool. Mr. Verner McNeil is seriously ill at Woodmans. Miss Lillian Moore, of Woodstock, is the guest of Mrs. Eastbrook. Miss May Ward is home from St. John. Mr. Ernest Rourke has been spending his holidays at St. John, and returned to St. John this week.

Umbrella and Personal repairing and re-covering. Duval, 19 Waterloo St.

FREDERICTON.

(Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. H. F. and J. H. Hawthorne.)

June 27.—The residence of Mr. J. W. Taber was on Wednesday evening last, the scene of a very happy event, when his step-daughter Miss Annie Adams was united in marriage to Mr. George Adams, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Rev. F. Hartley officiating. The bride wore a very handsome gown of cream cashmere, trimmed with lace and cream ribbons, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Annie Adams, who wore a pretty gown of heliotrope, trimmed with cream lace, and carried pink roses. After a sumptuous wedding feast had been partaken of, and a pleasant evening spent, the bride and groom drove to their new home. Mrs. Adams was the recipient of a large number of very handsome presents.

The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Fraser arrived home today from their tour of the coast. They have been enjoying the cool breezes of the sea air. His lordship, Bishop Kingston, Mrs. Kingston and family left on Friday last for their summer resort on the Little Metis.

Mrs. George F. Gregory and brother, Mr. Whitaker, leave on Friday for a visit of several weeks at Upper Gagetown.

Mrs. Gilmore Brown and son, who have been visiting Mrs. F. S. Hilday, have gone to visit friends at Bathurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLean, of St. John, Dr. Rankine, of Woodstock, and Prof. Murray, of Dalhousie college, were in the city last week attending the funeral of Prof. Duff.

Mr. W. E. Stavers arrived here today and will immediately enter upon his duties in the bank of Nova Scotia. Mr. Stavers has formerly held a position at Kingston, Jamaica.

Miss Mary Johnson is visiting friends in St. John, and will return here before joining her family at Fredericton.

Mrs. John Burpee of St. John is at Salamance, the guest of Mr. Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Creed left yesterday for Hampton, where they are to attend the wedding of Miss S. Creed's sister Miss Ada, daughter of Mr. Geo. Brown, to Mr. W. F. Barnes.

Mr. Geo. Miles and daughter, of St. John, are visiting Mrs. Miles' brother, Mr. Parker Glasgow, at Lunenburg. They will also visit friends in the city and Douglas.

Miss Maud Goulding of St. John is here visiting her aunt, Mrs. Albert Edgcombe.

Miss Kilian is here, the guest of Mrs. Walter Fisher.

Mr. E. A. Shaw is visiting Miss Ida McDougal. Mr. Temple, of St. John, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. Jeremy Taylor, manager of the Bank of B.N.A. is receiving congratulations, on a happy domestic event—a son's arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry have a little daughter. The lawn party given at Lansdowne, the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheever on Thursday afternoon, to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and a few friends, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The lawn was in perfect condition, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The lawn which has a commanding view of the river, was beautifully arranged with seats and tents for the comfort of the guests. Tea was served in the tents and passed to the seated ladies in groups. The lawn party was a great success, and the guests were all well and happy.

South McKee leaves next week for a visit to friends in Woodstock.

The Misses Maud and Fannie McNally are at home for the summer vacation.

CHICKEN.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

(Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Robert and Mrs. George J. Clark, to the White-wood Trunk Club at their court in the hall surrounding the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd. On Saturday Mrs. W. F. Todd and Miss Cora Algar have invited the club to 5 o'clock tea on the lawn, and afterwards all members of the club will attend the circus in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lord one evening last week entertained a number of their friends at tea at their residence. The guests found their places at the table by means of floral cards at each place, with a quotation upon each from various well known authors, the guessing of which afforded much merriment.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stevens gave a very pleasant tea party to a number of friends at their residence on Saturday evening.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DeWolfe (see Boardman) was on Saturday evening bright with lights and festivity reigned. It was the anniversary of their twenty-fifth wedding day, and they were pleasantly celebrating the occasion. There were about sixty guests present.

The death of Mr. George M. Porter on Friday last although expected for several days was most sudden.

Miss Jessie C. Whitlock, on Friday evening last with the assistance of her music pupil gave a "recital" at her residence, and most kindly invited the parents of her pupils, and a number of intimate friends to attend.

A very charming dinner was given at De Monts, on Saturday, in honor of Mrs. J. Stratton of St. John, who is in the city on a visit.

Miss Josephine Sullivan has returned from a delightful visit of several months spent in New York city.

Miss Jean and William Sprague of St. John, are the guests of their aunt, Mr. J. E. Vroom.

Miss Minnie Willet, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Vroom.

Mrs. T. J. Smith has gone to Halifax, to visit for a month her friend, Mrs. Chertoff.

Miss Sara Keating has returned from a pleasant visit in Boston and New York city.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Shoggett sailed on Saturday from East Boston for England, in the steamship "Gallia."

Miss Charlotte Wilder, of Augusta, Maine, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. G. McCully. Mrs. Wilder was called here by the death of her father, Mr. G. M. Porter.

Miss Millie Kimball's friends regret to learn she is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. Miss Ida Boardman has gone to Boston where she will visit her friend Mrs. E. C. Nichol.

Mrs. C. M. Gore spent several days with her daughter Mrs. Hagen Grimmer during this week. Mr. Henry Graham, and Miss Alice Graham have returned from Grand Lake stream.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gates have returned from New York city and will spend the summer in Calais. They were accompanied by their daughter Miss Clara Barnard who has returned from an extended visit in Boston.

Mrs. Judge McCully, of Honolulu, is the guest of Mrs. C. G. McCully.

Invitations were given yesterday by Mrs. A. T. Clarke and Miss Anne Harvey to an "at home" tomorrow from four to six o'clock at Mrs. Clarke's residence.

Miss Ellen Nelson and Miss Kate Nelson arrived home yesterday and are most kindly welcomed among their numerous friends.

Miss Alice Todd, of Wellesley college, has returned home.

Miss Kate Neumann left this morning for Cape Canoe, N. E., to visit her brother, Mr. Fred S. Neumann.

The graduating exercises of the High School were quite a society event and were held on Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Hall, which was tastefully adorned with flowers for the occasion. The exercises were bright and clever, and the essays were above the usual average. The school was most ably assisted by the large number of most talented and careful thought and preparation.

After the exercises the graduating class invited several of their friends to partake of a light refreshment, which was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Grimmer. Among the guests invited were Mayor Clarke and Mrs. Mitchell, Provincial Secretary Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, the school board of trustees, and several other friends. This was a charming event, and the school board of trustees was greatly enjoyed by the graduating class of '94.

Mrs. S. King, of St. John, is visiting in Calais her friend, Mrs. A. Robinson of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Robinson of New York city are visiting friends in Calais.

Mrs. Charles Short and his daughter Laura who have been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brown left last week for their home in West-Phillip, Wisconsin.

Miss May Carter and Miss Daisy Hearn left this morning for St. John. These young ladies have many friends here who will miss their absence greatly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowell have returned from their wedding tour and are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell's parents.

WOODSTOCK.

(Progress is for sale in Woodstock by M. Louisa & Co.)

June 26.—Notwithstanding the extreme heat last Thursday evening, a large number accepted the invitation of Messrs. Grenville James, W. C. Everett, and C. E. Merritt, to a dance in Cole's hall. The hall was prettily decorated, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Ice cream and other refreshments were provided. Those present were Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Dibble, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grey Smith, Mrs. W. M. Connel, Mrs. Huel S. Wright, Mr. Marshall Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith, Miss Beardsley, Miss Watson, Miss Hazen, Miss Alice Bull, Miss Smith, Miss Jessie Peabody, Miss Kathleen Bourne, Miss Nellie Beardsley, Miss Nan Bull, Miss Gertrude Dibble, Miss Ethel Bourne, Miss Morhouse, New York, Miss Lena Griffith, Miss Edith Griffith, Miss George, Miss Pauline Winslow, Miss Phillips, Miss Florence Phillips, Miss Hilda Bourne, Miss Blanche Dibble, Messrs. Grenville James, W. C. Everett, C. E. Merritt, Mr. MacLaren, Calais, Calais, Montreal, Tracey, Ketchum, Bedford, Julia Bourne, William Smith, Graham, L. H. Dibble, J. Dibble, Neale, Julius Garden, Creighton, Donald Peabody, Good and Mauder.

Mrs. Merritt wore black satin and heliotrope silk. Mrs. Taylor, cream cashmere and gold velvet. Mrs. Dibble, black cashmere and lace. Mrs. R. E. Grey Smith, sea green crepon, trimmed with ribbons and gold lace.

Mrs. Brayley, black silk and lace. Mrs. Henry Smith, brown cashmere, ribbon trimmings. Miss Beardsley, black silk, natural flowers. Miss Watson, black silk, pale blue trimmings. Miss Hazen, buttercup yellow muslin. Miss Pauline Winslow, white silk and lace. Miss Morhouse, New York, Nile green silk with pale pink tulle. Miss Auguston, yellow china silk. Miss Nan Bull, sea green crepon. Miss Edith Griffith, green cashmere. Miss Bourne, black lace, white roses. Miss Gertrude Dibble, white muslin and ribbons. Miss Blanche Dibble, white muslin and ribbons. Miss Hilda Bourne, black lace. Miss Nellie Beardsley, cream chaille and lace. Miss Griffith, pale green cashmere. Miss Phillips, Nile green cashmere, silk trimmings. Miss Kathleen Bourne, black silk, cream roses, ribbon trimmings. Miss Florence Phillips, pale green cashmere, ribbon trimmings.

The first tennis tea of the season was given on Saturday afternoon from five till seven, by Miss Cora Smith, Mrs. Clara Carr, and Miss Alice Bull. A large number were present and although tennis playing was not very enthusiastically pursued, a very pleasant time was enjoyed.

A number of the young people of St. Gertrude's congregation have formed a tennis club, and have their courts on the lovely secluded grounds at the back of St. Gertrude's church. Tennis playing is enjoyed during the long pleasant evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Taylor, of Halifax, accompanied by his daughter Miss Sadie Taylor arrived here Saturday. They are the guests of Mr. G. A. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fierling, of Fredericton, drove up to Woodstock last week, and spent a few days with the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Jones. Rev. J. W. Lacroix spent part of last week in town, the guest of William Fisher.

Rev. D. P. Fiske, of Fredericton, spent part of last week in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Jones.

Miss Porter, of Fredericton, is the guest of her friend, Miss Grace Foster, at A. A. Allen's.

Dr. Griffith left last Monday for Philadelphia where he will spend some weeks.

ELAIN.

SUBS.

(Progress is for sale in Sussex by G. D. Martin R. D. Boal and S. H. White & Co.)

June 27.—Mrs. G. R. Jones of Moncton and little daughter are visiting Mr. J. E. Trice, Church Ave. Mrs. R. D. Hanson entertained a few friends Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Webster of Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore Merritt of St. John spent Sunday at the "Knoll" which they will make their home on the 1st of July.

Mr. Harry Arnold of the Bank of Montreal, Belleville, Ont., is spending his vacation with his parents here.

Miss Lettie Hallett has taken the position of organist in the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Alex. Robertson and family moved to St. John last week and will be very much missed by their host of friends in this place.

Miss Alice Robertson will be the guest of Mrs. Hallett until the closing of the Madras school where she has been teaching. When she will be succeeded by Miss Carrie Roach.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

The many friends of the Rev. J. E. DeWolfe Moore rejoice to hear of his coming to New Brunswick again. Mr. Moore is at present visiting her old home here.

Mrs. Perham and daughter who have been visiting Mr. J. Allan Hallett, Mrs. Perham's mother, have just left last night for their home in Chelmsford, Mass.

Mr. Frank Landow and wife arrived in Sussex this morning. Mr. Landow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. King, of Kent Matter, Cal. is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Walter McMonagle.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. Clara Cheney, of Cheney Island, Grand Manan spent a few days last week with her friend, Mrs. J. E. Trice.

Mrs. Fanny Fairweather has moved to the house on Church avenue, owned by Mr. J. Allan Hallett.

Mr. P. E. King, of Kent Matter, Cal. is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Walter McMonagle.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

Mrs. J. E. Trice has returned from a week's visit in Moncton.

WESTFIELD.

Mrs. B. J. Ashworth and her son, of Fredericton, are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Carter, Carter's Point.

Mrs. Bates Belyea is having very low with payments, at her former home, Waters' Landing.

Mrs. E. J. Ashworth, who has been ill the last two months, is improving.

Rev. A. B. Murray, of Stanley, York county, preached in the Episcopal church, on Sunday.

Mrs. A. Wright and the Misses Wright, of St. John, are spending a few weeks at James Beltr's, also Miss Jennie Parry and A. J. Macdonald, of the North End, and Mr. Alfred Porter, of the South End, spent Sunday at the same place.

Miss Lettie Hallett, of St. John, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Cameron, returned to her home on Friday.

Miss Michael Holder, of St. John, is visiting Mrs. E. J. Ashworth for a few days.

I hear a rumor of two weddings to take place soon.

Rev. H. T. Paries is visiting friends in Stanley, York county.

Mrs. and Mrs. Scott, of Hallowboro, are the guests of Mrs. A. Sherwood.

Rev. E. Chapman, St. John, was in Salisbury on Monday.

Miss Lettie Hallett, of St. John, is in Salisbury on Monday.

Mrs. Magie Taylor's friends are pleased to have her home again. Miss Magie spent a few days in Sussex on her way home from normal school.

Mrs. Charles Colpitt, of Pettaquamscutt, was in the village Monday.

"Progress" is on sale in Boston at the King's Chapel news stand, corner of School and Tremont streets.

SAKVILLE.

(Progress is for sale in Sackville by W. L. Goodwin's Bookstore. In Middle Sackville by W. L. Merritt.)

June 26.—The Sackville band gave one of its excellent open air concerts on Saturday. Under the leadership of Professor Ames marked improvement can be heard in their playing. This is the first occasion this summer that the citizens of Lower Sackville have had the pleasure of listening to the band and it is needless to say the music was fully appreciated by the large number present.

Miss Fannie Palmer of St. John is the guest of Mrs. Josiah Wood.

Mrs. Pauline Bell has returned from a trip to Moncton.

Mrs. Fred Ryan is visiting friends at Hampton.

Mr. Will Harrison of St