

Social Notes of the Week

The chief event of the week was the opening of the St. John County Hospital—the new home for advanced cases of tuberculosis. On Thursday afternoon between the hours of two and six, hundreds of people thronged the corridors of the new institution, going in and out of the different wards and private rooms and examining the up-to-date appliances of that splendidly equipped institution.

Mrs. James F. Robertson entertained at a very delightful small tea on Friday last week for Mrs. Burrows-Ham, who sailed for England on Saturday. Amongst those present were Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Franklin Stetson, Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, Mrs. Alfred Morrissey, Miss Eleanor Robinson, Miss Edith Skinner and others.

A very delightful dinner was given at the Cliff Club on Monday evening by Mr. James Harrison in honor of Miss Jarvis, Miss Donville and Miss Digby. After dinner bridge was played. The guests were Mrs. Mortimer, Miss McLean, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Mary Harrison, Major Peters, Lieutenant F. W. Fraser, Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Kenneth Inches and Mr. Allan Thomas.

Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. John C. Belyea on the arrival of a little son at their home Duke street, December 10th.

Mrs. William Vassie and children are spending the winter with Mrs. Vassie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rankin, Germantown street.

Mrs. Alexander Fowler entertained informally at the tea hour the first of the week in honor of Mrs. L. W. Barker.

Miss Mary MacLaren was hostess on Tuesday at her home "Laurel Lodge," at a very delightful tea in honor of Miss Donville, Miss Jarvis and Miss Digby. Presiding at the very prettily arranged tea table was Mrs. John E. Sayre. Mrs. Eber Turnbull, Miss Isabel Jack, Miss Catherine McAvity and Miss Dorothy Jack assisted with the refreshments. Amongst the guests were Mrs. William Vassie, Mrs. Horace Porter, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. Heber Vroom, Miss Mignon Kerr, Miss Frances Kerr, Miss Marjorie Lee, Miss Dorothy Blizard, Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Miss Marion MacLean, Mrs. George Wetmore, Mrs. E. E. Church, Miss Edith Schofield, Miss Emily Sturdee, Miss Rosamund McAvity, Miss Kathleen Coster, Miss Lillie Raymond, Miss Lily Kimball and others.

Mrs. Maurice F. White who was expected back from England next week had to cancel her passage until later as she was ill in London with grippe. Mrs. White's many friends will be glad to hear she hopes to be at home a few days before Christmas.

Mrs. Sharpe entertained at a bridge of five tables at the Manor House on Tuesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Hebert Wetmore and Mrs. George Wetmore were the fortunate winners of the very pretty prizes.

Miss Margaret Turnbull, Hampton, is spending a few days in the city a guest of Mrs. John H. Parks, Parks street.

Hosts of friends were glad to hear that the Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity church was able to attend morning service last Sunday. This is the first time Mr. Armstrong has been able to attend church since his burning accident in Upper Canada more than a year ago.

Miss Amelia Green left on Saturday last on a visit to Boston.

Miss Nettie Bridges who has been visiting in Montreal and Toronto has returned home.

Mrs. James Dever was hostess on Thursday at the tea hour at a most enjoyable function. Thursday was the anniversary of Mrs. Dever's birthday and many congratulations were showered upon this popular matron. The drawing room was radiant with magnificent flowers, roses, chrysanthemums and carnations, remembrances of the day from hosts of friends. Mrs. Dever received her guests in a very handsome black silk and lace costume.

An engagement of much interest to many St. John friends has been announced in Montreal, that of Miss Emma J. Lyster, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Lyster of Montreal, to Mr. R. H. Daniel, son of the Rev. Canon and Mrs. Daniel, Rothesay, N. B. The marriage will take place this month.

Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, who spent a few days in Halifax last week, visiting her husband, who is with the 85th Regt. Band, returned home on Monday.

Mr. Gerald McInerney of the Marine and Fisheries Department, Ottawa, is spending a few days in the city a guest of his mother, Mrs. James P. McInerney, Orange street.

Lieut. Hart, 69th Batt., and Mrs. Hart are guests at the Prince William. Lieut. Hart and Mrs. Hart were recently married at Montreal. Captain Scott, 69th Batt., and Mrs. Scott, are also guests at the Prince William.

Colonel McLean was host at a delightful dinner at the Cliff Club on Thursday evening in honor of Lieut. Colonel Daneser and officers of the 98th Battalion.

Mr. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mr. P. W. Thomson left this week on a trip to New York.

Miss Wark, formerly of Fredericton, and Miss Coburn, who have been residing for several years in Ireland, will spend the winter in Boston.

The ladies of the Soldiers' Wives League, who are working so hard to make the Christmas treat, December 21st, for the soldiers' children, a success hope those who are going to send donations will do so as soon as possible. Those sending dolls or gifts kindly send to Miss Mary Harrison, Sydney street, or Miss Ethel Jarvis, Duke street, and gifts for the boys to Mrs. David Pidgeon, 12 Prince William street, or Miss Edith Skinner, Coburg street. Mrs. W. W. White, Sydney street, will also receive any donation at her residence.

Mrs. Murray MacLaren sailed for home on Wednesday. She spent last week end at Folskstone with Mrs. Malcolm McAvity and at another time visited Mrs. Ronald McAvity at Plymouth.

Mrs. John E. Sayre entertained on Monday at the Sign O' the Lantern for Miss Donville, Miss Jarvis and Miss Digby. Other guests were Miss Dorothy Purdy, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Catherine McAvity, Miss Lillie Raymond and Miss Edith Schofield.

Major John H. Parks sailed the last of November for Serbia. Major Parks many friends in St. John were glad to hear of his promotion and of his good health.

Many friends gathered at the station on Thursday evening to bid adieu to Miss Jarvis (Woodstock), Miss Donville (Hamilton), and Miss Digby (Bramford, Ont.), who have become very popular in our city while visiting their grandfather, Mr. William M. Jarvis, and will be greatly missed in social circles.

Mrs. Gilmer Brown spent a few days this week a guest of Mrs. William Pugsley, Prince William street.

Lieut. Colonel Daneser and officers of the 69th entertained at dinner at the army on Wednesday evening. The guests were Colonel McLean, Lieut. Colonel B. Armstrong, Lieut. Colonel Sturdee, Hon. Mr. Justice Grimmer, His Worship Mayor Frink, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Major L. W. Barker and Captain Wetmore of the 58th Battery. The 69th band played a number of selections.

It was of interest to many St. John friends to read that Mrs. Charles Grey (nee Anglin) received for the first time since her marriage at her apartment in the "Carlton," Ottawa, on Thursday of last week. Mrs. F. A. Anglin, the bride's mother, and her grandmother, Mrs. T. W. Anglin, received with her. Those assisting were Mrs. Darcy Scott, Mrs. John Bassett, Miss Frances Arnold and Mrs. Grey's sister, Miss Isabel Anglin.

A very interesting monthly meeting was held by the Royal Standard Chapter Daughters of the Empire I. O. E., on Monday evening at the residence of the regent, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith. Fifty dollars was voted to be sent to Miss Warner's hospital, ten dollars to the Soldiers' Wives' League to buy gifts for the boys' Christmas treat and one thousand dollars for the Patriotic Fund. Over nine hundred dollars was realized from the Mother Goose Christmas fair. A vote of thanks was sent Miss Nelson, Elcott Row, for the Princess Mary doll which she so kindly donated to the Royal Standard Chapter and which realized such a goodly sum. It was also decided to help the gentlemen's committee collect the monthly payments promised for the Patriotic Fund and the members immediately after Christmas intend sewing for the Red Cross, the trustees of St. Andrew's church kindly allowing the chapter the use of their parlor in the school room.

Rev. George Wood of Chatham who went overseas as chaplain with the 40th Battalion has been promoted to the rank of Brigade Major. Major Wood has many friends in this city. His wife was formerly Miss Mary Treuman, daughter of Mrs. A. I. Treuman.

The many friends of Louis Lela-cheur who left here with the first contingent and was wounded in the leg while in action, will be glad to hear from a letter recently received that he is gradually recovering and expects to be moved from Cliveden hospital in England to the Uxbridge hospital before Christmas.

Miss Edith Simpson, daughter of Chief Simpson, arrived in the city from Edmonton, Alberta, to make her home here with her father.

Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Hasen street, entertained very informally on Thursday at dinner afterwards going in a party to see "Neptune's Daughter," in the Opera House. The guests were Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. J. M. Robinson and Mrs. J. M. Robinson.

The beautiful calendar gotten up by the 115th Battalion is being greatly admired and many copies have already been sold. The many favorite choice quotations so many well known citizens makes it a very welcome gift for friends away as well as in our own city.

Four more officers for the 115th Battalion have been announced: Major L. W. Peters, Captain F. Caverhill Jones, Lieutenant R. G. Schofield, of this city, and Lieutenant C. W. Pickard of Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Church are receiving congratulations on the arrival at their home, 105 Carmarthen street, on December 5th, of a little stranger—a son.

A private exhibition was given by the manager, Mr. Marvett, of the Canadian Universal Film Company of "Neptune's Daughter," on Friday evening of last week at the Lyric Theatre at which a large number of ladies and gentlemen were present. Annette Kellerman in her wonderful aquatic feats was most realistic. The scenery most beautiful being Mrs. of Bermuda. The photo play "Neptune's Daughter" was thoroughly enjoyed by large audiences this week at the Opera House.

The Women's Canadian Club held a meeting on Saturday afternoon last. Addresses on the needs of the convalescent home for soldiers by Lieut. Colonel Thomas Walker, M. D., and on their experiences at the front by two returned nurses, Miss McCallum and Miss Tupper and who have left again for the motherland. The Canadian Club have undertaken considerable work in equipping the Parks' home so generously given by Mrs. John H. Parks for a home for returning soldiers. Committees have been formed and already are hard at work making plans and preparations.

The Nurses' Red Cross Club realized $2,500 from the proceeds of the drawing for an automobile donated by Dr. G. A. B. Aday which was under their auspices for the British Red Cross Society.

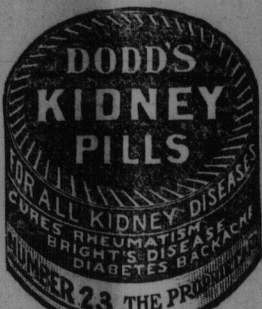

Miss Mary Bilsard left on Tuesday night for Montreal where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Millar.

Mrs. Thomas Powers, Crescent Avenue, entertained at a children's party of Saturday last for her little son, Master Milledore Powers, the guest of honor being Master James Redpath, of Alberta, (Black). A delightful afternoon was spent playing games and at the tea hour a delicious supper was served.

One of the most delightful lectures given was read on Thursday night by Mrs. W. E. Raymond before the St. John Art Club. The subject "Rossetti and Botticelli," by Wilfred D. Shaw, a famous art critic, was cleverly handled by Mrs. Raymond. A lantern was employed and many of the famous paintings of the artists were shown. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Raymond by the club. The committee in charge of Thursday evening's program was Mrs. R. G. Murray, Mrs. Richard Arscott, Mrs. George Kimball, Mrs. George T. McCafferty and Mr. G. Ernest Firweather.

Miss Allison Robb, was hostess on Thursday at a most enjoyable luncheon. Covers were laid for six. The guests were Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Mrs. W. S. Allison and Mrs. Royden Thomson.

Many friends were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Miss Christina, daughter of Mrs. Brodie and the late W. B. G. Brodie, of this city, which occurred at her home on Sunday evening. Miss Brodie by her kind disposition won many friends. To her invalid mother and family sincere sympathy is extended.

Are You Still Paying Rent?

Be Fair to Yourself

We have now under construction, 12 new houses and 20 others planned. All are within 15 minutes of King St., have water, sewerage, electric light and street cars. Ours is the only building company that has gone ahead as if there had been no war at all.

You've gone on, all these years, paying out your money every month, (true, you've had a roof over your head) for what—in the end? Chances are you've laid out enough cash in rentals to buy you a nice little home now, if you had it all back; since you haven't, though, STOP PAYING RENT and adopt the better plan of OWNING AS YOU PAY—that's what it really amounts to under our system.

WE WILL BUILD you a Self-contained House on any of the Company's Lands, from your own plans, and, while building we will place you in one of our ready finished houses, your monthly payments while there to apply on the purchase price of the new home.

HERE ARE OUR TERMS OF PURCHASE: Part Cash, with a straight mortgage of 6 per cent., interest payable half-yearly or quarterly, or, small cash payment, with balance payable in equal monthly instalments or in full any time. No Fees, Fines or Forfeitures, the purchaser gets a clear deed at time of buying.

FOR PRICES and full particulars, apply at the Company's Offices, Robinson Building, Market Square. Phone Main 694.

DANIEL

Head of King St. St. John, N. B.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Dec. 9.—On Friday last Mrs. R. S. Carter of Fair Vale left to spend the winter in England and see her son, Lieut. Arthur N. Carter, who is in the machine gun section of the York and Lancaster Regiment. Mrs. Carter's youngest son George is also in England training with the Princess Patricia's at their regimental base.

For a few days Judge and Mrs. Gilbert of Bathurst were guests of the Misses Gilbert. They left for home on Tuesday.

Guests of Mrs. J. R. Miller at a small informal bridge on Friday evening were: Mrs. Jean W. Davidson, Miss Allison, Miss Edith Gilbert, Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Donville, Mrs. Henry Gilbert and Mrs. Forbes.

On Saturday Mrs. C. H. Fairweather and Miss Allison, of New Brunswick, were in the city. Mrs. Fairweather is the daughter of Mr. Fairweather of St. John. They were in the city for a few days.

A well attended and very interesting meeting of the Red Cross was held on Tuesday. Miss Muriel Robertson, the secretary-treasurer, gave the monthly report which was most creditable and encouraging. $300 was voted to be sent before Christmas to the Red Cross headquarters at Toronto to end $25 each to our Rothsay nursing sisters, Misses Mary Donville and Frances MacKinnon in France for Christmas cheer for their patients. Mrs. Rupert Turnbull and Mrs. John M. Robinson were tea hostesses and a special feature on the "shop" table was a collection of very attractive and serviceable toys made and donated by Miss Madge Robertson whose clever work along this line is well known.

The Misses George and Bertha Balmantyne have closed their cottage and gone to St. John to spend the winter months.

Mrs. Leonard Tilley was guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson part of Friday and Saturday.

On next Thursday evening, beginning at 7.30, the pupils of the public school are to give an entertainment proceeds of which will be given to the local Red Cross fund.

The usual school Christmas tree will be provided and any donation to ward this popular feature will be gratefully received by the teachers, Mr. Walter Murray and Miss Hattie McMurray any time before Thursday.

Mrs. Blanchard's little sewing party on Monday was enjoyed by Miss F. C. Cooch, Miss Gannon, Mademoiselle Le Cocq, Miss Walker, Miss Les, Miss Puddington and Miss Allison.

After a visit to her husband Mr. Royden Thomson, who is with the forces at Halifax going overseas in the service of King and Empire, Mrs. Thomson returned to Rothsay on Saturday and with her children Betty and Archie are guests of Mrs. John H. Thomson.

On last Sunday a Bible class was started at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hastings at Kinghurst with Mr. A. H. Hannington as the efficient leader. The class will meet again next Sunday at the same place at three o'clock and all interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. Doyle of Fair Vale, whose husband is in England with the University Company, who will reinforce the Princess Pats, left on Friday with Mrs. Carter for England, accompanied with best wishes for a pleasant visit and safe and happy return.

A pleasant day or two was spent this week by Mr. Joseph Kennedy with old friends at St. Martins.

Rev. Dr. Wardlaw Taylor of Toronto and Mrs. A. H. Hannington left for home on Tuesday.

An enjoyable little bridge was given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson for Mrs. Nichols of Halifax. Among those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Frink, Rev. W. R. and Mrs. Hibbard, Miss Puddington, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Muriel Robertson, Mrs. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. P. Puddington, Mr. Blanchet. The prizes were won by Miss Muriel Robertson and Mr. Blanchet.

Mrs. J. B. Cudlip of St. John was with Rothsay friends on Tuesday and
