them a friendly visit, a surprise party, and though taken by surprise Mr. and Mrs. Hebert showed much cleverness in the able way they organized matters, and no trouble or expense was spared to make all feel happy and at home.

Their fine dining room was transformed thappy and an excellent dancing hall to accommodate about 80 couples. The dancing programme was as follows: Grand march, lancers, quadrills, waltz, polka, Mrs. Tucker, etc., etc. Good music was furmished by the Messrs. Moore and Landry, violinists, with plane accompaniment by Mr. and Mrs. Laporte. J. Lynott acted as floor manager and dance caller and proved to be the right man in the right place.

The parlor was made a pleasant place for those who did not dance, and many good songs and music were rendered by Cleveryoung women, while the men in the office enjoyed a good smoke and a friendly chat.

About 12 colock supper was served and, like all other meals given at the New Viotoria, was up to date fand well refished. Among those present were, H. V.
