MONCTON

Moncton, Oct. 25.—(Special)—After having travelled from 5,000 to 6,000 miles to wed the man of her choice, Miss Winnifred Steeves, until recently a resident of Moncton, was married a few days ago in Dawson city. The groom was J. F. Steeves, a former New Brunswick, who has lived in the Klondyke for some years, and is now one of Dawson's best known contractors and builders.

The bride made the journey direct from Moncton to Dawson City, and was accompanied by Mr. Steeves' five-year-old son, Vaughan, who has been living in New Brunswick with relatives. The wedding took place immediately after the bride arrived in Dawson.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Steeves are natives of Albert county. Although the bride had the same surname as the groom, the two are from entirely different families in Albert county.

Mr. George Whitaker, who came to America from England about the middle of the last century, is still living, he will be interested in hearing of the fact that he is the inheritor of property left him in New Zealand by his brother, who died recently. When last heard of, George Whitaker was living in Moncton.

Rev. T. Francis Jones, a Methodist clergyman at Levin, Wellington, N. Z., has written to Chief of Police Rideout of this city, urgently requesting the local police to make enquiries regarding George Whitaker. The last address that relatives in New Zealand have is: "Moncton corner, Harris Weigh-off, New Brunswick, B. N. A." Relatives think that possibly sudden death or accident carried him off.

In his letter to the Moncton police, Rev. Mr. Jones says: "George Whitaker left England in 1833, and the last news received was in 1864. A John Whitaker, a brother, has just died here. For some reason he kept silent about George until a few days before his death, when he urgently requested his son, who is living at Levin, to make enquiries, and placing some important documents in his hand concerning property in England and money in chancery. It is important, however, to have some definite information concerning the George Whitaker."

Enquiry is being made by the police, but so far they have been unable to secure any information regarding the man about whom New Zealand relatives are enquiring.

OF SCIENCE

To the Value of Fruit—What is "Fruit-a-tives?"

Medical men are just beginning to realize the possibilities of fruit in curing disease. Its action on the liver, kidneys and skin is wonderful. Yet fruit in its raw state is impracticable in treating disease because of the minute quantity of the active or curative principle contained in fruit juice.

A physician in Ottawa, after years of patient work, discovered a process, whereby the medicinal or bitter principle of fruit juice is increased in quantity and thus a more active and more valuable substance is obtained.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit.

Hundreds of prominent people in every section of the Dominion owe their good health to "Fruit-a-tives." Hundreds more are daily becoming stronger and better by taking them. "Fruit-a-tives" is daily proving its inestimable value as a natural cure in all cases of Constipation, Biliousness, Torpid Liver, Backache and Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Kidney and Skin Troubles.

Sold by all dealers, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

COLPITTS' ASSAULT CASE STILL ON IN DORCHESTER COURT

Dorchester, N. B., Oct. 26.—The case of the King vs. John W. Colpitts, charged with assault upon Mrs. Attis, Moncton, calculated to be a hotly fought one, attracted the attention of the Supreme Court all today, and was not finished when court adjourned tonight. The jury in the case is as follows: J. E. Foster, Frank Mitchell, J. H. Robichaud, Frank Wilson, W. C. Thorne, C. A. D. Siddall, W. A. McDougall, Jude O'Brien, Robert Prescott, L. Gould, M. B. Poirier, Bradley Duncan.

The solicitor general opened the case for the crown, outlining the evidence at the preliminary examination. Witnesses called by the prosecution were Harry Attis, the complainant, who was examined at great length; Mrs. Lena Attis, wife of Harry Attis; Mrs. Mona Savage, Mrs. Barovitch and Dr. Ferguson. This closed the prosecution's case.

The defence called the accused, John W. Colpitts, Police Officer Collier, John Elsieh, Mr. and Mrs. Simousky and George Dryden. The accused contradicted the evidence given by Attis and his wife. The case will probably be concluded tomorrow morning.

Considerable interest is being taken in the case, as the accused is a provincial constable. The evidence for the prosecution went show that Colpitts, while arresting Attis in his home, kicked Mrs. Attis in the side while she was in the act of taking a child out of her husband's arms. Colpitts denies this version of the difficulty.

G. D. REID ON TRIAL FOR ASSAULT

Hopewell Cape, N. B., Oct. 26.—The case of G. D. Reid, charged with aggravated assault, was before the County Court all today and made slow progress, the accused being brought through when court adjourned tonight.

L. V. McNulty, the informant in the case, and the chief witness for the prosecution, gave his story of the alleged assault, saying he was in the shoe shop of John Daley at the time, and had felt Reid, who was sitting in front of the window, when a stone was thrown violently through the window, and would have hit him in the face, had it not been for a sewing machine intervening. Witness said that once ran out and discovered Reid, the accused, who ran off, witness following until the accused disappeared across a vacant lot. Witness said he was within four or five feet of Reid and had no difficulty in identifying him. The witness said he had not been on friendly terms with Reid for some time and had felt called upon on more than one occasion to put him out of his house. Reid had threatened that he would put the witness out of business.

John Daley, owner of the shop, also gave evidence today in his testimony in the main points corroborating that of McNulty's.

Court will resume at 10 o'clock tomorrow. Amos A. Wilson, K. C., is conducting the prosecution. G. W. Fowler is defending the accused.

The grand jury returned no bill yesterday in the case of McNulty charged with perjury by Reid and McNulty was discharged.

MAY HAVE POULTRY SOLD BY WEIGHT

Wednesday, Oct. 26.

The sub-committee of the safety board appointed to look into the matter of revising the by-laws of the department, held a meeting in city hall yesterday afternoon. It was in the nature of an informal conference with the heads of the departments to ascertain their views with regard to changes which they think would be beneficial. Several more meetings are to be held before anything definite is decided upon. In connection with the movement to introduce desirable changes into the civic by-laws, strong representations are being made regarding the city produce market. Forfeiting, which is being continually carried on much to the detriment of householders. The present by-law requiring that produce should be exposed three hours before being sold wholesale, it is charged, is to all intents and purposes non-existent now, and it is claimed something ought to be done to enforce it. Another matter which may receive attention is the manner in which poultry is sold to the consumer. This, it is said, would be more honestly done if all birds were sold by weight.

OF NEW BRUNSWICK

FRUIT IS EXPECTED

Sixth Annual Convention of Fruit Growers' Association to Be Opened in St. Andrew's Rink Next Monday.

On October 31, November 1, 2 and 3, the public will have the opportunity of viewing an exhibition of a nature and extent never before seen in this city. On those dates there will be on view in the St. Andrew's Rink over 150 barrels, 500 boxes, and 1,000 plates of New Brunswick grown apples, representative collections of all the small fruits and plums and cherries, bottled in pressing solutions, together with a splendid exhibit of fruit jellies and table preserves, all the produce of our own soil. This exhibition, which represents the united efforts of the Provincial Fruit Growers' Association and the Provincial Department of agriculture, constitutes the first step of a definite policy outlined for the development of New Brunswick fruit lands.

For many years too long have the people of New Brunswick not only singularly failed to recognize the importance of, and climate so favorable to the production of, excellent fruit in their own province; not only have they laughed at the very idea when it has been presented to them; but their readiness which speaks but little for their pride in their native land or for their economy they have awarded the palm in fruit-growing to other provinces and have accepted from them carload after carload of inferior fruit, fruit that could not be sold elsewhere at any price.

The time for such a state of affairs has passed and it is to be hoped that a very large number of people who have hitherto not believed in the fruit-growing possibilities of the province will go to this exhibition next week, will realize its true significance and will come away less willing to believe that no good can come out of the soil of New Brunswick, less willing to award the palm in fruit-growing to other countries and less willing to accept their refuse fruit.

Other provinces have made their fruit lands an attractive drawing card for the newcomer with capital, and have found in the development of their fruit lands, an incentive to better citizenship and a source of great prosperity. Why not so with New Brunswick? A Nova Scotian will not tell you to go to Ontario or British Columbia to grow fruit, neither will the Ontario man tell you to go to British Columbia or Nova Scotia, and there is no reason whatever why the fruit grower of New Brunswick should not do the same. The prospective fruit-grower outside of his own province, for we have right here the favorable conditions for the production of apples and small fruits as are to be found on the continent. If you do not believe this, visit the exhibition and see for yourself.

For all these and the other troubles known in general as Women's Disorders, Orange Lily Tablets are the only scientific, never-failing cure. It is a trial actually proves its merit. I hereby offer to send absolutely free a box worth $1.00, sufficient for ten days' treatment, to every suffering woman who will fill in the enclosed 2 stamps, MRS. FRANCES E. CURRAH, Windsor, Ont.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT POULTRY

By J. R. COTE

At this time of the year the interest in poultry is not as strong as during the early spring, when the beginners in the poultry business have enough enthusiasm to give the hen fever to anybody who will listen to the amount of chickens they will hatch and raise and the money they will make. Of course, some do realize their expectations, but a large portion of the beginners will build castles in the air.
