Volunteers in demand !

For information on any one of these placings, phone the Volunteer Action Centre at 482-431.

The Canadian Mental Health Association is looking for volunteers that are willing to involve themselves in Friday evening special activities. The program involves teens from Alberta Hospital and the community that are experiencing emotional difficulties. Volunteers would help plan and take part in social activities.

Meals on Wheels requires volunteers to deliver hot meals during the lunch hour to shut-ins in the north and northeast area.

Services for the Handicapped is looking for a volunteer to establish a friendly relationship with a middle-age lady in the Westmount area. A car would be a definite asset in this situation enabling the volunteer to take the lady out into the community.

The Southside Mothers' Day Out Program requires a volunteer child care worker to assist the co-ordinator of the nursery. The volunteer would play and talk with the children, assist in craft activities and help the children with eating and using the washroom. This program takes place in the basement of the old Ritchie school.

A volunteer with a good command of the English language could assist a lady in the Millwoods area who would like to improve her English skills. In exchange this lady would be happy to share her mathematic skills or teach the volunteer how to speak Russian.

Be a different kind of company manager.

The kind of company we're talking about could be a Combat Group. You could be leading Infantry, Armoured and Artillery units. Co-ordinating the actions of ground support jet fighters.

It takes intelligence, guts and a cool head to lead this kind of company.

How about you?

With us you can put your knowledge to good use.

An Officer's job is a far superior alternative to most office jobs.
