

We Doubt not but Coll^d good will be very ready to pay us the Charges we shall be at in this ~~affair~~ we have severall Accounts That the Six Nations have sent to the said Indians in Covenant with them to be at home and ready to assist them in case of Need, the French also are continually using all Arts and means to foment and widen the differences of that Sort so that should this matter not be made up in an amicable manner but hostilities arise or continued the consequences might be very Terrible However we submit all to your Honors Judgment

II
245A

We have sent the Interpreter to the Mohawks to send from thence an Indian to the Six Nations to desire the Sachins to stay at home and to renew to them the repeated promises they have made to keep home their people and not to suffer them to go a fighting and to inform them that the Interpreter will be with them in about twenty Days — in which time we hope to have further orders from your Honor We remain &c