 furniture has not arrived from the west.
 I very much enjoyed the Commission congratulating him on his appointment, I had a very nice letter in reply, saying that "the Prime Minister had been his friend through everything" he is venting his place in God's hand taking a furnished house in Coburg for the winter.
 We noticed in last night's Star that D. A.
 Commission did not get the job he was after, though I can quite understand the way you will be a splendid choice.

letter from her yesterday, telling me I was very difficult to get to go out of town, making for particular. I was really getting desperate, but the aids are now returning from the farms summer resorts there seem to be plenty of them. I have always very well with Mrs. Butler but am getting tired for I have been nine weeks alone. The children helped a lot but now that they are back at school I miss them. I hope this girl will be some help.
 Mrs. Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Short, preached his first sermon today.
 They were here for tea on Thursday.
