

April 5, 1930.

Dear Mr. Odell:

The Prime Minister was very pleased with the mounted photographic reproductions made of the mural tablet erected in memory of his sister, Isabel Christina Grace King.

Mr. King would like to secure six more copies.

You will remember that there were two made, one with black lettering on a white background, and the other with white lettering on a black background. The one that the Prime Minister prefers is the one having white lettering on a black background. I enclose the two negatives, which I think are the ones you would use. You will remember that the photographs were finished on glossy paper, and were on a mount of gray coloured stock.

Yours faithfully,

H. H. Mesures,

Private Secretary.
