

- V, c. 17,
Acts 1914
(7) providization, 61.
and treaty
- G., Hon-
on Cabinet, overnment
n. 1, 345.
- f Imperial
Mr. Lyttel-
- ial Office, 4. urisdiction
127.
Governor
ses, objec-
- land and
- st Colonial
- m subjects
- of Queens-
- G., M.E. t of Union retirement e & Co. in y of Union
- 14 by New and placed under Act
- ow Chair-
mission', ntinent as ealth High
- entation of
- certain con-sted repreague Com-
- a of Domi-
- of Indians
ment of,
- A. Bart., on ions, 506;
cil, 562.
G., 1889,
ding Japa-
Canada, 193.
- Portuguese territory, expulsion of Indians from Transvaal into, 204; employment of natives from, in Transvaal, 54.
- Portuguese treaty of commerce, advantages secured for Newfoundland, 296; necessary legislation to enable its execution carried before ratification, 283.
- Postal voting in the Commonwealth abolished by Act No. 17 of 1911; abortive proposal to restore in 1914, 106, 107.
- Powers, Hon. C., appointed in 1912
a Justice of Commonwealth High Court, 357.
- Powers of Canadian Parliaments and Provincial Legislatures inter se, 442, 443.
- Powers of Provincial Councils in South Africa, 484, 486, 487, 488.
- Precedence, in self-governing Dominions and States, 52, 6.
- Precious Minerals, ownership by Canadian Provinces of, 458.
- Preference to unionists, dispute as to in Commonwealth, 107.
- Prerogative, Newfoundland's constitution given under, 141.
- Preston, W. R. T., formerly Trade Commissioner of Canada in Holland, 297 n. 1.
- Price, Hon. T., Premier of South Australia (1905-9), views on local appointment of Governors, 30, 31.
- Prime Minister, position in regard to honours, 58, 59; access of Dominion ministers to, 322, 323, 542; consultation of, as to appointments of Governors of Dominions, 27; ex-officio President of Imperial Conference, 552.
- Prime Ministers of Dominions, ex-officio members of the Imperial Conference, 552.
- Prince Edward Island: land question, 154; divorce jurisdiction not exercised, 458; redistribution, 393, 395; fails to enter Union in 1867, 420.
- Privy Council, possible use in deciding disputes between Imperial and Dominion Governments, 165, 166; reference of question of land ownership in Rhodesia to, 498.
- Privy Councillorship, may be bestowed on Dominion statesmen, 59; Dominion Privy Councillor admitted to meeting of Imperial Cabinet, 545; Dominion judges as
- Privy Councillors and members of the Judicial Committee, 380, 381.
- Proportional voting in Tasmania, bad results of, 408.
- Proposed union of Newfoundland with Canada, 492, 493; of Australia and New Zealand, 493, 494; of Rhodesia and the Union, 494, 495.
- Protector*, placed by government of South Australia at disposal of Admiralty in 1900 for service in China, 312.
- Province of Canada, legislative powers of, 412, 413.
- Provincial Acts in Canada, no power of Governor-General or Lieutenant-Governor to pardon offences against, except in second case by statute, 71; Dominion power to disallow, 432, 6; disuse of power of reservation, 153.
- Provincial Councils, position of, in South Africa, 483, 9.
- Provincial Ordinances, no power of Governor-General to pardon in respect of offences against, in South Africa, 71.
- Prussia, no responsible government in, 86.
- Public money, position of Governor with regard to, 39.
- Public works, control by Upper Houses of proposals for, in New South Wales, 399, 400; in Commonwealth, 399 n. 1; in South Australia, 403, 407 n. 1.
- Quebec, city of, imperial expenditure on defence of, 302.
- Quebec, dispute with Privy Council, 375, 8; two Houses, lower House of 82 members by Act 1912, c. 9, franchise, c. 10, 417; language question, 490, 2; redistribution, 393; dismissal of Lieutenant-Governor, 114, 432; addition of territory (Ungava), 492; boundary question with Ontario, 379.
- Queensland: prerogative of mercy, 65; royal instructions, 118; reservation of bills, 114; aborigines, 179, 180; naval force, 312; two Houses, 11, 400, 401; proposal to annex New Guinea, 51.
- Racial questions in Dominions, 191, 192.
- Railway belt lands in British Columbia, legal position of, 455, 458.
- Railway contract in Newfoundland,