RETURNS HOME

W. N. Morley, merchant tailor, returned yesterday afternoon from Philadelphia, where he has been attending the convention of the Custom Cutters Association of America. There were about 250 present at the convention, which lasted from Tuesday until Friday of last week, about 30 of these being from Canada. Tailors were present from Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Tennessee, Duluth, St. Paul, New York and many other places. The next convention will be held in Nashville, Tenn. Some very fine work was exhibited in ladies' and gentlemen's clothing. Mr. Morley visited some of the deading tailoring establishments in New York before returning home. New York before returning home. When he left New York the weather was very cold and stormy. The snow was piled five feet high on the streets of New York and the loss to property holders has been over $500,000 already. The people up-town were unable to get home as all of the trolley lines were blocked.

Mr. Morley was on board the ecean liner Baltic at New York, He says it is a magnificent boat.

Mr. Morley says that the people of Philadelphia certainly know how to entertain their guests. In New York on Sunday he heard some of the finest music he has ever listened to.

Trouble is apt to blind one to many pleasures which can be had for the taking.

NEW SOLOIST

Miss Lucy McKellar, one of the Maple City's most popular and tal-ented sopranos, has been engaged to succeed Mrs. John Cooper, soprano soloist of the First Presbyterian church. The position was left vacant through the resignation of Mrs.

Miss McKellar is a former pupil of Mrs. Cooper's, but she is now studying with Samuel I. Slade. She studying with Samuel I. Slade. She has had considerable experience in church singing, having been soprano soloist of Christ Church, where she was exceedingly popular. Miss McKellar's voice is peculiarly adapted for church singing and she is very popular wherever she appears, either in church or concert singing.

ANDREW CARNEGIE

Albert Sheldrick, who is one of Andrew Carnegie's Maple City admirers, and who was so largely instrumental in securing the Carnegie grant for the Chatham Public Library, has received a fetter from his son, Fred, who is attending college in Columbus, Ohio, who tells of an incident that came to his notice, which protrays Andrew Carnegie in a very favorable light.

light.

In the failure of the Oberlain Bank, which was caused through Mrs. Chadwick, many of the students and residents of that place lost all of the residents of that place lost all of the money they possessed, and someone in the town wrote to Andrew Carnegie asking for his assistance.

In spite of the fact that Mr. Carnegie denies all relations with Mrs. Chadwick, he looked with pity upon the sad state of the losers in Oberlan and her sines said to record lain and has since paid to every de-positor all of the money they lost through the bank failure.

Mr. Sheldrick tells the incident as another evidence of Carnegie's good hearted benevolence.

HOCKEY

The Chatham and Thamesville inthe Coatham and Thamesville intermediate hockey teams played a game at the rink last evening, which resulted in a victory for Chatham by a score of 5-6. The game was a good one and well contested. All of the boys played well. The game was clean and free from all roughness. The Chatham boys will go to Thamesville next Friday. Following were the teams:—

Thamesville. Goal-Doherty.

There is much conjecture but no light upon how he came to his death, and Coroner Aikin has been adjourned till Thursday evening. At yesterday's session, Dr. Cullen, who made the vost-mortem, read his report. It stated death was caused by a fracture of the skull and hemorrhage of the brain, and that there were no marks of violence on the body. Dr. Riordan corroborated the report.

Bigamist Gets a Year.

Toronto, Jan. 31.-Pierre Lacroix alias Brown, who lured Lilly Valley from her Vankleek Hill home and from her Vankleek Hill home and married her, though he already had a wife and children, was yesterday sent to the Central Prison for one year. His first wife was in court and identified him, but was inclined to blame the Valley girl for the trouble and not him. Lacroix pleaded that he did not "remember marrying her at all," but remembered "living with her or rather boarding with her 11 years."
