Small, but Mighty

There is nothing better to hold a class together, create co-operation, instil interest and enthusiasm than the little Class Pin. If it includes the class motto, it is a silent, insistent symbol of an ideal. It is a powerful agent for good.

Try It.

P.S.—Prices are very reasonable.

Through the Eye

If you would make the lessons plain and real, hold the attention, create better interest in the lesson, and make a much stronger impression, do it through the eye of the scholar. Use MAPS.

There is a variety to include every requirement. Prices range from the 22 x 28-inch size at 25c. to a series at $18.00, complete.

Write. No trouble to supply information.

These Fine Days

This is the season when the attendance is inclined to fall off. The temptation is strong for a stroll. The class member is apt to forget that he or she will be missed. They need a Booster Post Card.

Many classes use them freely to introduce their class to the young people of the neighborhood, with good results. They are great class builders.

Eighteen different designs, with bright, snappy messages.

A Connecting Link

Too often during the vacation period there is a break in the Sunday School and Church Attendance records of the school. This is regrettable. It means incomplete information when the scholar is striving for good attendance rewards. There is no reason why this should be so.

VACATION CARDS meet this need. The usual entries are made at the Sunday School or Church the scholar may attend and then entered up in his own school on his return.

Either Card, only 50c. per hundred, postpaid. Order Early.
