MARKET REVIEW AND FORECAST

Toronto, Monday, June 8 - Dame Nature is now the centre of attention. Her capricious will be extended for days upon her good behaviour during the next few weeks, depends a bounteous harvest. Advice from the continent as to the effect that good weather conditions produce in England, where the greatest growing district of South-Western Europe have received a severe check from drought. The continent is also in an increase of 2,000,000 acres in the crop area. There was some anxiety because of continuous dry weather, but it has fallen during the past few days. United States conditions are good.

WHEAT

The reports of poor weather conditions from Europe have been counteracted by the prospects of bumper crops in Canada and United States. Ontario wheat has dropped two or three cents. Some business has been done in western wheat lots for Eastern Canada. No. 1 Northern is quoted at $1.00. No. 2, 95c. No. 3, 90c. No. 4, 85c. No. 5, 80c. No. 6, 75c. No. 7, 70c. No. 8, 65c.
