LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Jan. 1, 1877, THE LIVING AGE enters upon its 132nd volume, with the continued commendation of the best men and journals of the country, and with constantly increasing success. In 1877 it will furnish to its readers the productions of the foremost authors above named and many others; embracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the LEADING FOREIGN NOVELISTS, and an amount un-approached by any other periodical in the world, of the most valuable literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the leading Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and editors, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress. THE LIVING AGE, (in which its only competitor, EVERY SATURDAY, has been merged), is a weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, giving more than three and a quarter thousand double column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature. It is therefore invaluable to every American reader as the only fresh and thorough compilation of an indispensable current literature—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS, in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics.
