The Resurrection of Christ

BY THE Rev. Prof. JAMES ORR, M.A., D.D.

Author of "The Virgin Birth of Christ,"
"The Progress of Dogma," etc.

"Professor Orr of Glasgow is in our judgment the most successful apologetic writer of the present day. He has no interest in science or theology or anything else that does not minister to edification.
He is quite scornful over the seeker after truth who professes to be above considering where the truth may lead him. Professor Orr knows that the truth is in Jesus Christ.
And he is just as sure that the representation of Jesus Christ which makes Him the truth is that which has been held by the Church Protestant. So his new book is a learned, unhesitating apologetic, the only book that it is of any use to write, if we are to have apologetics at all. He has chosen his subject with unerring judgment. The Resurrection is the citadel. It is less violently attacked now than formerly, but it is still the chief object of attack."—

The Bishop of Stepney announces that he has found it quite impossible to answer all the letters of congratulation and good wishes—over 2,000 in number—which he has received on his appointment to the Archbishopric of York. He would like to assure those who have so kindly written that he has personally read each letter, and hopes they will accept in this public form his most cordial thanks.
