

ian harvest. A good business materialized in all positions and prices advanced 6d per qr. all around during a couple of days, then a relapse in prices and demand followed on freer offers from Canada and other countries generally, with an official intimation that Canadian yield and quality of their wheat will probably surpass highest expectations.

Yesterday there was some recovery in sympathy with America as regards prices, but a comparative absence of demand, probably in view of the bigger shipments than looked for and the enormous and increasing receipts in the Northwest. Today the tendency is easier, and on the week, prices of cargoes and parcels are quotably 3-9d per qr. dearer.

Worlds shipments this week to all destinations total 1,256,000 qrs. of which 1,163,000 is headed for Europe. The United States and Canada head the list of contri-
