Men DO Read Advertisements

There has been some lively discussion on this subject lately, and at a dinner of advertising men in one of the larger cities recently a prominent advertiser rose and asserted that "after all, very few $1400—North Ward, good story taining parlor, dining-room, kitchen, summer kitchen, three bedrooms, clothes closets, good cellar. $100 down and balance monthly.

$650—Good 32-foot lot, East department store. "We had a sale of shirts one day last week that uses the store of day last week the store of day las day last week that was the most successful in the history of our business. 99 per cent of those who came in and bought were men. They came in direct sponse to our newspar advertisement." Everywhere in every station of life men find interest in advertising. It may not be clothing, shoes or hats; but it may be something that relates to real estate, banking, the stock market, to automo-bles—to any of the thou-sand and one things that constantly form the sub-ject of wide-awake adver-
