ERNEST PIKE IS ON TRIAL

Charged With Perjury Arising Out of Police Court Case.

Ernest George Pike faced a charge of perjury at this morning's session of the general sessions of the peace now in progress before His Honor Judge Hardy. Pike was charged in the Police Court last August with the theft of a revolver from Peter Porter, a brother of Frank Porter, with whom the accused worked and who resided on the next farm. He was acquitted on the charge. He was giving his evidence, however, he swore that he bought the revolver from a second-hand dealer in Kingston, and that a guard at Kingston Penitentiary was with him when he made the purchase. The guard and the second-hand dealer were in court this morning and swore that the statement of the accused was not so. About 15 witnesses were examined.

The following were the jury: Arthur Berry, foreman, 65 Brock street, city; Henry Baltzer, tailor, 86 Northumberland street, city; Samuel H. Wilson, machinist, 49 Murray street, city; Fred Webber, farmer, South Dumfries; Arthur A. Uptegrove, inspector, 41 Brighton Row, city; C. Mayled, stockkeeper, Brantford; Percy Wilson, machinist, 52 Church street, city; Arthur Woodlam, farmer, S. Dumfries; Geo. F. Sterne, Sr., manufacturer, 133 Bruce street, city; Charles Miller, farmer, Brantford; James Scott, farmer, South Dumfries; Earl Messecar, farmer, Oakland.

The case has been given to the jury for disposal. At the session this afternoon civil cases will likely be dealt with. No settlement reached in Granton vs. the Town of Paris. His Honor reserved decision in order to allow the corporation and the plaintiff to arrive at a settlement.

Was Taken To Asylum

And a Writ of Habeas Corpus is Issued for Him.

TORONTO, Dec. 10.—Norman S. Dack early this morning was taken to the Brockville asylum. Messrs. Holmes & Holmes, his solicitors, have instituted a suit for $50,000 damages and made application at Osgoode Hall for a writ of habeas corpus demanding that Robert Dack, R. G. Dack, E. W. Peterson and Stewart Peterson produce his person in Toronto. The application for a writ of habeas corpus was refused by the court that Dack was taken by two Brockville officers and three Toronto men when he left his home at 53 Cowan avenue this morning. It is claimed that Dack was discharged from the institution after 12 days, the officials finding that he was of sound mind.

Murderer Is Arrested

WINNIPEG, Dec. 10.—John Kratchenko, for whom a warrant is out in connection with the murder of H. A. Arnold, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Plum Coulee last week, was arrested this morning in a house on College avenue, in the north end and taken to the police station. Kratchenko was captured without blood shed in connection with the tip that he was within the place and forty armed officers surrounded the house early this forenoon and effected the arrest without difficulty. Kratchenko was taken to the police station in an automobile, which also contained the chief and deputy chief.

Cainsville News

Breezy Items of the Week For the Courier Readers.

The Sunday services were of an especially interesting nature, missionary sermons being preached both morning and evening. Appropriate music was furnished by the choir.

Mr. E. Sweet of Brantford gave a very practical and inspiring missionary address in the morning, while Mr. Hackett of Northfield Centre delivered a very eloquent and earnest sermon in the evening, his text being taken from the words found in John 13:34. Unusually large congregations attended both services.

The League service held on Monday evening was in charge of the social and literary committee. Rev. Mr.
 Morrow presided, and a very interesting sketch of the life of the late Pauline Johnson was read by Misses Hawley and Smith, the former giving an account of her earlier days and the latter describing her later years. At the conclusion of this life history Miss Mary Edmundson read one of Pauline Johnson's extracts from her poems and responded to an encore by reading "Canada," by Pauline Johnson, in a most pleasing manner.
 Miss Ada Robinson read "In Memoriam," by Pauline Johnson. "O Canada" was then sung in chorus by the Leaguers. Miss Gladys Woltz then read a paper on the life of Archibald Lampman, interspersing her sketch with suitable extracts from his Canadian poetry. A quartet by Mrs. Wilson and Misses Smith, Norrie and Woltz, and a solo, "Sing Me to Sleep," by Miss Norrie, were of the usual high standard. When the program was concluded home-made candies were passed, and a very enjoyable evening came to a close by the singing of the national anthem.

Mr. Ray Foulger is spending this week at the home of his sister, Mrs.
 Shirke, Smithville.

We regret to report the serious illness of little Eileen Munro.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Dutton at her home on Saturday afternoon, when a number of relatives and friends assembled to celebrate the anniversary of her birthday. Mrs. Dutton is a very genial hostess, and a very enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent. Among those present were: Mrs. Hunter, Mrs.
 Miller, Mrs. Hazard and Mrs. Cal-beck, all of Brantford, and Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Edith Wheeler of Burtch.

Mrs. George Fox spent Monday in Toronto.

Mrs. Caban and little Miss Olive Caban of Inverkip are guests at the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Leod.

Miss McLeod gave an excellent address on "Temperance" at a young people's meeting held in Brant Ave.
 Church on Monday evening.

Miss C. B. Ferguson was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blather, Brantford, last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Will McArthur of Princeton spent a few days last week visiting at the home of his relatives, Mr.
 Frank Tottle and Mr. W. Tottle.

Mr. Wilson visited his parents at Jerseyville last Friday.

Mrs. Will Hartwell is visiting friends in Galt.

The following were among those who attended the missionary banquet held at Colborne St. Church last Friday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Summer, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Leod, Misses Smith, Neelds, Hawley, McLeod and Norrie, and Rev.
 Mr. Morrow.

Mrs. Shirke of Smithville was the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. Foulger, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sumler spent the week-end in Toronto.

Mrs. Brewer of Brantford spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Robinson.

The Rockefeller Institute and many humane societies were attacked at the anti-vivisection congress in Washington.
