Firemen in Danger

Electrician Shoemaker has requested us to mention, for the benefit of firemen and others, that the power distribution wires are not to be played with by any one climbing trees or directing a stream of water from the fire hose. He says he was dumbfounded to see the indifference with which firemen directed the stream in the vicinity of the court house square the other evening at practice. Mr. Shoemaker states that the insulation on this wire is not sufficient to prevent the high voltage current from breaking through and into the water stream. This will be another interested.

Mr. Wm. C. Miller.

The principal speaker of the evening, Mr. Miller, in opening a comprehensive address, stated that the work of the provincial body had not been as satisfactory in the past as had been desired, largely through the insulation on this wire is not sufficient to prevent the high voltage current from breaking through and into the water stream. To Remove Dandruff

Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp tohing and falling hair.
