The Basket Social held in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening last was a great success. A large number of baskets were for sale prettily trimmed either patriotic or floral. The generosity of the westerners was proved by the high prices given for the baskets although the request had been made that none go for more than a dollar and a half. Private Baldwin of the Winnipeg Army Service Corps was the auctioneer, and certainly deserved the great applause with which he was greeted at the close. During the evening Sergt. Gunn rendered a solo. The sum of $80 was realized for the piano fund which more than completes the payments on the piano. The Christian Endeavor wish to thank all those who so kindly helped in making this social a success.

END OF SUPREME COURT

Friday afternoon the Supreme Court closed its June term and the jurymen were dismissed. No civil cases were tried at all and the case of The King vs. Clark was held over for next term. Messrs John and Fern Clarke were arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Considerable interest is evidenced in this case, and when it comes to trial there will be many witnesses to be heard.

Lefty Hilsley was sentenced to 3 years at Dorchester on the two cases in which he was found guilty.

In the King vs. Austin Lockhart the prisoner was found not guilty.

The King vs. Young and McInnes for assault on R. L. McDonald was heard and found guilty and each was fined $50.00.

Carl M. Eaton, M. A., son of Dr. Foster F. Eaton, Truro and grandson of the late D. Rupert Eaton of Camard has made a great record as a student at Montreal. He tried to enlist in Montreal but was denied that on account of defective eyesight but he has used his eyes since most thoroughly in his studies. He has passed in honors in every subject and carried off the coveted "prizeman" rank winning the highest place honors in two subjects and well to the front in honors in other subjects.

SAFE ARRIVAL OF THE 246TH HIGHLANDERS AND 122ND MUSKOKA REGIMENT

The news censorship forbids to announce the departure of any of our Battalions. Only on their safe arrival in England can the news be heralded.

There were many sad partings the last of May when the 246th Battalion under Lieut. Col. N. H. Parsons and the 122nd Battalion, Lieut. Col. Grant left Aldershot and Kentville to proceed overseas. They remained at Halifax on board ship for a while and now comes the following good news of their safe arrival.

Ottawa, June 10—It is officially announced through the chief press censor's office, that the following troops have arrived safely in England; Battalions: 122nd Galt; 207th, Ottawa; 217th and 243rd Saskatchewan; 246th Nova Scotia Highlanders; 248th Central Ontario; and 254th Eastern Ontario; 255th Toronto, Drafts; Balance of 232nd Saskatchewan battalion; British Columbia Horse; Field Artillery from Vancouver and Guelph; Seige artillery from Halifax; Infantry from Calgary; P. E. I., B. C.; draft for P. P. C. L. I from Saskatoon university; engineers, foresters, medical; Bermuda artillery; Newfoundlanders, naval ratings and details.

CAPTAIN FRED W WICKWIRE MENTIONED IN DESPATCHES

Among the list of Canadians mentioned in despatches by General Haig leading the British forces in France is the name of Capt. Fred W. Wickwire of Kentville.

Capt. Wickwire offered for overseas services early in the war and after a time spent in St. John with the Army Service Corps went to England and later to France with his battalion. He has seen much service has been constant and faithful in his duties. His work led him over many dangerous portions of the country, and he invariably succeeded where others officers were lost or ambushed in getting forward supplies to those in dire need. For this conspicuous work he has earned recognition of his General.
