Womans Institute Items

Do You Know — That the first Women's Institute was organized at Stoney Creek, only twenty five years ago, with forty members enrolled? That today in Ontario alone there are over nine hundred and twenty-five local Women's Institutes? That today nearly thirty-thousand women are members of Women's Institutes in Ontario? That the motto of the Women's Institute is "For Home and Country,"? That a large convention of the "Federated Women's Institute of Ontario" is in session this week in Ottawa. That our Honorary President, Mrs. Chas. Yates and our President Mrs. D. L. Johnston are attending the sessions of the Convention and will bring home a very interesting report which you should hear at the November meeting of the local Branch? That the Women's Institute is non-partisan and non-sectarian in every phase of its work? That the Provincial and Dominion Federations of Women's Institutes have Government sanction and co-operation in educational and social lines for the improvement of national life? That every loyal Canadian woman should be a member of the Women's Institute? That the Athens Branch of the Women's Institute convenes the last Saturday afternoon of each month in the Town Hall and that every woman in Athens who is conscious of local and national responsibility should be there, and will find a warm welcome?

OBITUARY

GEORGE W. BROWN

At his residence on Church Street Athens, Monday October 17, 1921 at one o'clock the death took place suddenly of a well known resident of our village in the person of George Washington Brown, aged 77.

The deceased was born in Wiltsetown and in early life followed the occupation of a farmer. Forty years ago, however, he retired and spent the remainder of his life in Athens. He was predeceased by his wife and is survived by one son, Dr. D. C. Brown, Crooke, Col. and by one daughter, Miss Lillian Brown, Winnipeg. Mrs. James Ross, Athens, is a sister.

In religion the late Mr. Brown was a Methodist and in politics a Liberal. The funeral was held on Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock from the residence of his brother-in-law, James Ross, Athens. Rev. S. F. Newton preached the funeral sermon after which the body was laid to rest in the Athens Cemetery.

World's Temperance Sunday

World's Temperance Sunday will be observed in the Methodist Church at 2.30 p. m., Sunday October 30th, by a union of the Sunday Schools.

Mrs. H. E. Corneil will present the lesson. An appropriate program will be given, consisting of an address by Jas. E. Burchell B. A. and other numbers. The Public are cordially invited.

On Monday evening last the Epworth League was favoured with a visit from Rev. V. O. Boyle who very pleasantly entertained the leaguers with many laugh producing stories. A duet by Mrs. W. H. Morris and Mr. Wesley Towriss was also much enjoyed.

Miss Nellie Scott spent the week end in Brockville with Mrs. J. Daek.

Mrs. Jas. Alguire is visiting her brother, Mr. T. Howarth this week.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
