THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAY 18, 1888

Local and Provincial.

HOLIDAY.—Caldwell & Murray's store will be closed Queen's Birthday as usual.

WANTED.—All kinds of farm produce, at E. C. Bishop's.

PERSONAL.—Mrs Geo. Thomson, of Halifax, has returned to her residence in Wolfville for the summer.

MINISTERIAL.—Mr W. M. Smallman, of the College, preached in the Kentville Baptist church last Sabbath, morning and evening.

POSTPONEMENT.—In consequence of the repairs being made to the Baptist church there will be no Baptist Sunday School next Sabbath.

CHECKER.—A team of Windsor cricketers goes to Parrishboro on the 24th. Some good playing is expected.

SCORE OVER.—Master Reg. Gilmore handed us a full-blown dandelion on Wednesday. This is the first we have seen of the kind this season and we rather guess we're ahead.

ANNIVERSARY.—This year anniversary takes place on Thursday, June 7th, some days later in the season than usual. From present indications the display of millinery will be unusually fine.

NOTE.—We learn that the Presbyterians of Kent have lately purchased a most desirable residence belonging to the estate of the late Rev. Samuel Bernard, for a manse.—Halifax Journal.

THE WEATHER.—The first real rain of the season took place this week. On Tuesday it fell in torrents. Although pretty cold it did a great amount of good and brightened the appearance of fields and plants wonderfully.

BUSINESS.—Merchants and mechanics pronounce business good in Wolfville this spring. Our merchants have good stocks and are prepared to do a large share of the business of the county. We would advise outside readers to call in and see us.

FISH.—It is reported that fish are plentiful in Minas Basin and have been taken at the Five Islands in considerable quantities by trawls for two weeks past.
On account of stormy and cold weather no boats have been out from this side of the Bay as yet.

Buy your garden seed at E. C. Bishop's.
A REMINDER.—On our first page will be found an interesting sketch, entitled "The Heart on the Sleeve." The subject of the sketch will be well remembered; and the faithful pen of the author will, perhaps, also be recognized, as, if we mistake not, he was at one time a resident of Wolfville.

Buy your Fishing Tackle at Prats's.
ANNOUNCE.—The authorities of the Methodist church have placed a number of ornamental trees along Chapel St., from Main St. to the end of the church property. This is a move in the right direction and we hope are long to see others following the good example set.
All our streets would be improved by having more trees planted.

Pine Roompaper for only 3 cents per roll at Rockwell & Co's.

PROVERB JOURNALISM.—Mr F. J. Patter has handed us a copy of the second number of The Canning Advertiser, the first newspaper venture in this county.
It is dated February 25th, 1865. The Advertiser was published by the late H.
A. Borden, of Canning, and printed by M. Threlkeld, who afterwards published The Acadian, at Wolfville. It was devoted almost exclusively to advertising, showing that the business men of King's at that early day understood the value of printed ink.

B. G. Bishop sells Greenhead lime a $1.50 per sack.

RECEIVED.—No one should miss hearing the recital in College Hall this evening by Miss Jennie McGarry. Read the following poems appreciated in other places. The Montreal Windsor says:—"As an elocu-tional she has no superior in Montreal." The Montreal Gazette says:—"She captivated the hearts of her audience by her readings." The Toronto Globe says:—"She possesses a rich mellow voice, which enhances the charm of her native manner." Pays the Charlottetown Patriot:—"As an eloquentist Miss McGarry is beyond doubt the finest that has ever visited this city, not excepting Mrs. Scott Siddons."

THIS is the last time we will advertise, if you don't pronounce our Ladies' Button Boot, worked button holes, for $1.00 the best bargain you have ever seen! Agent for "GILT EDGE" Shoe Dressing, 6-oz. bottles.

C. H. BORDEN,

Wolfville, May 18th, 1888

Local and Provincial.

Y. P. S. OF C. E.—There are twenty-one branches of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in this Province. Why not one in Wolfville?

PHOTOGRAPHIC.—The Railway Photo.
Car, which has been in Wolfville since last autumn, removed to Kentville on Monday. Mr. Tuck did a good business while in Wolfville.

FARMING.—Owing to the cold and stormy weather of the past week farming operations have been considerably retarded. Yet we understand that a considerable area of dike has already been sown.

THE EXHIBITION.—The special meeting of the Municipal Council, notice of which we published last week, will not be held in consequence of the Warden having been notified by the Government that the provincial exhibition cannot be held in King's county this year.

YACHT.—Mr D. R. Munro has got his yacht, the Patrol, off and is having her newly painted and improved. She will carry a number of yards more canvas this year than formerly which will no doubt increase her speed considerably.

All kinds garden seeds at E. C. Bishop's.

OUR STREETS.—Our streets and sidewalks need considerable attention this spring. Some bad places which we have before called attention to have not been repaired yet. Let us have our streets put in a better condition before anniversary. If each property owner would look after the side-walk adjoining his own property a great improvement would be made.

B. G. Bishop sells only first-class lead, such as Brandram's Chemical Pure, and pure Oils.

POTATOES.—Large quantities of potatoes are now being shipped from this valley of ours to different points in Ontario. The farmers up there like our potatoes for seed and seem willing to pay a fair price for them. Mr. Jacob Walton loaded another schooner here last week and started her for Philadelphia. He expects another here to load in a few days. There are plenty of potatoes in the valley yet, and it is about time to get them off.

Big clearance sale of Roompaper at Rockwell's! don't miss it.

ALMOST A ROBBERY.—About 11 o'clock on Wednesday evening a room of one of the students in town was completely ransacked during the owner's absence by a couple of notorious sneak-thieves.
Fortunately however as they were making off with their booty, a citizen detected and gave chase to the two worthies, and although much inferior in size he caused them to throw down the articles in their frozen endeavors to escape by his plucky perseverance. They were at last taken going in the direction of Chipman-Hall, the larger and foremost running like a frightened calf, while the latter was following in a Canterbury train, a. e., Chauncey's. Of course this may not make much difference to the public at large, but it is really very annoying to the student who has to suffer. ONE DERIVATION OF A POLICEMAN.

B. G. Bishop sells West's Standard Dressing for Dugby Tops. Best thing going.

JOURNALISM.—The last number of the New Glasgow Eastern Chronicle comes to us enlarged and improved. It now contains 36 columns and claims to be the largest country weekly in the Maritime Provinces. The Chronicle first made its appearance forty-seven years ago, and only two papers in the Province, the Hx.
Acadian Recorder and Yarmouth Herald, are older than it. We congratulate Bro.
MacKenzie on the handsome appearance of his paper, and the evidence of prosperity which it evinces. A new paper called the Landersbury Times, has recently been started at Acadia Iron Mines.
The copy before us is well edited and presents a creditable appearance. The Times' predecessor, the Week's Doing, was a good paper until it got too deep into party politics, and we hope to see the Times fully fill its place.

Married.

BALCOM—KNAPP.—At North Greenwich, Conn., on the 10th inst., Irving B. Balcom, M.D., formerly of Acadia College, and Miss Annie Knapp.

ELLIS—TALBOT.—At Los Angeles, California, on the 3d inst., H. Bert Ellis, M.D., formerly of Acadia College, and Miss Lulu Talbot, M.D.

COCHRAN—HORN.—At the residence of the bride's father, Chipman Brook, between Rev. J. O. Ruggles, on Tuesday, 15th inst., Mr. James Cochran, Jr., of Church Street, and Rachel, daughter of David Horn, Esq.

BERWICK TIMES.

NEWS, NOTES, JOTTINGS, ETC.

Rev. D. O. Parker is our representative in Berwick, and is prepared to take orders for job printing and advertising. We are constantly adding to our plant, and will give prompt attention to all work. Get our prices.

Dr. Judson has put off his contemplated visit to Nova Scotia until July.

Rev. E. O. Reid was unable from indisposition to fill his appointments on the Sabbath.

Several men are at work on the railway grounds preparing for the new station house.

Mr. Caleb Ray, of Long Point, has purchased the property of George Sanford near the station.

Get your furniture and pictures framed at Parker's new furniture room, Berwick. Choice picture-moulding in stock.

A very entertaining and successful parlor concert was held at the residence of Dr. Middlemas last Monday evening.

Mrs. Skinner, who moved from Hantsport to Berwick over a year since, is very seriously ill with pneumonia. The latest symptoms are favorable.

Wm. Ogilvie, Esq., of Aylesford, died on the 14th inst., aged 73 years. Owing to the absence of his pastor and illness of Rev. E. O. Reid, the funeral was attended by D. O. Parker and the funeral sermon preached in the Baptist meetinghouse, Berwick.

The old village of Berwick has been remarkably exempt from fires, but a devastating fatality seems to hang over Berwick Station. Within a very few years not less than eight dwelling-houses, two steam engine-mills, and several barns and stores have been wiped out by fire.
In building there has not been sufficient care, and both the wood and brick work has been done in too cheap and careless a manner. We think for the benefit of all concerned that the local insurance agents should be around when new buildings are being erected and note any deficiencies. This is the custom in some parts of the United States. Since writing the above Mr. Jefferson informs us that such is his practice.

Last Saturday morning the house near Berwick station, owned by Wm. Bill, M.
P., and occupied by Mr. W. W. Boardley, with all the outbuildings and nearly all the household furniture, was consumed. The loss falls very heavily upon the family so suddenly stripped of all their home comforts. Had the alarm of fire been given, most of the furniture might have been saved. Some of the neighbors were aroused by one of the children, but the next door neighbors and others within a few rods of the fire were not aroused from their sleep, and their first intimation of it was by seeing the smoking chimney. B. J. Nichol's house narrowly escaped. Mr. Bill had on the building $1,000 insurance.

OUR DOMINION.—Cities, Towns and Business Interests, Historical, Descriptive and Biographical, Prominent Places and People, Representatives Merchants and Manufacturers, Improvements, Progress and Enterprise. Halifax and Environs is the title of a neat book of about 200 pages, embellished with many fine engravings, published by the Historical Publishing Company of Canada. It would be difficult to find so much historical nonsense in any other 200 pages.
The author ought to be put in a lunatic asylum. Here is a sample: "Berwick is a flourishing village in the township of Cornwallis, in the county of King's, and is noted for its manufacture of shoes. . . .
From Berwick a road leads across Pleasant Valley to Harborville, a ship building village on the Bay of Fundy, whence large quantities of cordwood and potatoes are shipped to the United States. . . .
Berwick is a station on the Windsor and Annapolis Railroad and the line here enters the Cornwallis Valley, which is shorter but much more picturesque than that of Annapolis. The soil in this section is rich and productive, and from its extraordinary fertility it has been styled the 'Garden of Nova Scotia.'" The italics are ours. The business directory of the book may be truthful and satisfactory to the advertisers, but the first place we turned to for information was the "Nova Scotia Printing Co.," shown by the index to be on page 150, but it is not there.

Judge Ritchie filed judgment in Queen vs. Bishop, three King's county Scott Ac-cases, allowing certiorari upon bail for $300 being filed.—Western Chronicle.
