MARCH 18, 1910.

Now is the time for you to paint and fix up and make home look as if there was a little enterprise around you. Take the garden rake and collect all the old rubbish of 1909 in a pile and set fire to it—don't burn the house down in the operation—and let it be burned up and never to collect there again. Then go for that pile of ashes collected during the winter and remove it far hence so that your yard will look as if some one was living there. There is no place like home, therefore make it beautiful, delightful, enchanting and your attachments for it will be the stronger.

Examinations In Music

To the Editor The Alberta Star,
Dear Sir,—

As you are no doubt aware, the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music of London has been holding Local Examinations in Music in Canada for a number of years, and in addition to the Certificates given each successful candidate, two Gold Medals and two Silver Medals have been offered annually for competition.

In 1908 the Board offered a further inducement in granting a "Scholarship" for Canada open to all candidates taking the Examinations. The winner being entitled to two years free tuition at the Royal Academy of Music London, but the standard attained was not sufficiently good to merit its being awarded.

In 1909 it was again competitor, and this time Miss Gladys McKelvie, a pupil of Mr. Frank Wrigley, of Calgary, won the much coveted prize, which speaks well for the very efficient work of the highly accomplished teacher and Calgary is to be congratulated on its brilliant little artist and the high standard of its teaching.

Yours truly,
M. Waring Davis,
Resident Secretary for Canada.

High Cost of Living

Probably there is less heard in Central and Western Canada about the alleged "high cost of living" than anywhere else on the continent. However, there is no doubt that if the West went in more for mixed farming many commodities would be cheaper than now. There are many lines of food imported into Western Canada that might profitably be raised here. We bring in vegetables, fruits, dairy produce, poultry, eggs, etc., for which the consumer has to pay a big price generally, because it costs big money to import them. If the farmers raised more hogs, and made up for the scarcity of supply, cured meats and provisions would decline in price. The West has in the past confined itself too closely to mere grain raising instead of farming and the result is that many farm products have to be imported at heavy cost.

Mr. Francis Loose was a visitor in town last Wednesday. He is permanently settled in Glenwood the new town on the Cochrane Ranch, and is perfectly satisfied with his new home. He says the new townsite is building up fast and that there has been a ward organized and meetings and Sunday School are held regularly. He returned on Thursday.—Magrath Pioneer.
