Death of Mrs. Geo. O. Britton

Early on Tuesday morning the death occurred of Mrs. George O. Britton of Windsor. The deceased was a daughter of Ami Shaw and was in her 47th year. She was the mother of seven children, three of whom died in early young womanhood, having fallen victims of tuberculosis. The funeral will be held today from their residence, Rev. George Kincaid conducting the service. Great sympathy is extended to Mr. Britton who is the well known manager of the Farmers' Telephone Co.

Death has fearfully scourged his family, and this is not the first sad occasion on which the sympathy of the county has been outpoured for him. The sad instance touches the heart of every one of the many friends of the genial manager of the local telephone company. The recent deaths of his daughters has saddened many hearts. What seems sadder than all is that another daughter, Miss Hazel, is expected to return today from the Jordan Sanatorium, from which she has been dismissed as incurable.

YOUR KING AND COUNTRY WANT YOU

More men, more men—is Lord Kitchener's appeal to the Empire. Yes, that is it. Clean men, men of iron, firm, determined, hard as granite, filled with a patriotic desire to do something for their country. To that quality of manhood there is opportunity to do something large in a practical way. Canada stands well in the present crisis, the heroic deeds of the overseas contingents have stirred the Empire to its heart's core, and we are getting the glory of it. It is well, however, to look at the facts, the majority of those who so far have made Canada famous are English born, the spirit of loyalty came with them to Canada, and at the call of the Empire they volunteered without hesitation to face war's hardships for God and the King. Old soldiers some of them, carrying medals and scars who know what fighting is. Who had soul enough in them to offer to defend it against a militarism which would crush the world. It is true that Canada has not been found wanting, her roll of heroes grows, nobly they have stood the test. As in the South African war there has been a loyal response to the call to arms, but not in proportion to the population. We want more native blood in the heroic battalions at the front.

What have we done to show our regard for England, who has made Canada what it is, guarding our shores, preserving our peace and prosperity, ungrudgingly; all the compensation for which is, that we do not forget. And England is grateful. We must remember that to the navy we owe the fact that New Brunswick is not today suffering the fate of Belgium. It would not be pleasant for German shells to batter St. John, we must give to England the same unstinting loyalty she serves to us.

Let us not flatter ourselves that because the Empire is right, therefore we must win. We can only conquer with the vigorous manhood which leaps to defend it, thus it is the country wants you.

Here is your opportunity, Ruskin says: "Somehow I feel as if it were grander and worthier in a man, to have made his bread by sword play rather than any other play. I had rather that he had made it by thrusting than by batting, much rather than by betting, much rather that he should risk war horses than back race horses."

If that was Ruskin's thought in times of peace, what now? Face the issue, your King and country call you, you young men with no home ties, or with them stalwart, strong, full blooded, your place is in the ranks with those who are fighting for freedom country and home. The 55th wants you; New Brunswick wants you, to sustain her honor while this bugle summons the Dominion to arms.

Let deeds prove to be better than words. Enlist now. Put on the uniform, swell the number who will help to stem the tide of German aggression and prove to the world that Canada stands shoulder to shoulder with Australia, New Zealand and India in service and sacrifice.

If you are over twenty-one, years of age, be a man, wear khaki, if married ask your wife to let you go, if under twenty-one, get your parents' consent and report yourselves to Lt. Col. B. R. Armstrong, and to Capt. J. R. Miller at the armory, and let them see that you are anxious to be on the honor roll of those who want to save the Empire.

Donation at Plaster Rock

Rev. Archibald Hatfield and wife of Plaster Rock were recently remembered by their friends. One evening a number of them came flocking into his home to spend the evening, and before leaving deposited on the table money and groceries amounting to some $30. Just before good night was said a few words of scripture were read, and prayer offered by Rev. Earl H. Giberson and Bro. Cox, after which the friends joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again."

Rev. Earl Giberson of Bristol has been holding special services at Riley Brook which have been marked by success. He intends preaching there again on June 6.

May 29 was conference evening for the Primitive Baptist church at Plaster Rock. A large number of the members were present and reported progress in the Christian warfare. Sunday evening following the Lord's supper was observed, a large number willingly taking part in remembrance of their risen Lord.

Mrs. George Milbury

At Bath Wednesday morning, May 26, Mary Hacket, beloved wife of George Milbury, died in her 93rd year. She leaves to mourn an aged husband, two daughters, a son and one brother. Mrs. Milbury was the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Gideon Estabrooks and was one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Bath.

FIGHTING FAMILY AT CENTREVILLE

Mrs. Alice A. Sears of Centreville has received an interesting letter from her son, Driver Leonard Sears, who is with the Division Ammunition Column, 2nd Brigade, Canadian Field Artillery, on the firing line in Flanders.

Mrs. Sears has two sons at the front. Driver Stanley Sears being the other. They are both brothers of Corporal George Sears, who was stationed in Fredericton for three years with E. Company, R. C. R., and is now with that unit in Bermuda. The fourth son of Mrs. Sears is only 11 and he is already inquiring of his mother when he will be able to go to the front.

Extracts from the letter of Driver Leonard Sears, who is a member of a real fighting family, on May 5 follow:

"A few lines to let you know we are not among the casualties yet, though we have had some narrow escapes. Stanley had one of his horses shot, but so far we have managed to dodge the Jack Johnsons ourselves."

"I guess you have read in the papers what the Canadians have been doing, and I can assure you they do not exaggerate one bit. It was the hottest drive I ever made. The weather has been lovely for the past week or two. I will try to write again soon. Tell Dot (his sister) I will write to her as soon as possible. Love to the kiddies and all at home."

HILLCREST BOOMING

There has been a brisk movement in Hartland real estate the past few days, and several transfers of property are reported. The Hartland Cement Block Company are building a cement block residence for H. N. Dickinson on Hillcrest avenue. He recently purchased the lot adjoining the one on which he is building from F. A. Aiton. This gives him a double lot in one of the most desirable locations in this village. On lot No. 5 W. E. Thornton has started excavating and will begin the erection of a house at once. George McGoldrick has lumber on the ground and expects to build on lot No. 6.

Frank L. Dickinson is occupying the pretty cement block building recently built on lot No. 7. There is a prospect of several other buildings being erected on this street during the coming summer.

Major Melville Appreciates the Socks

One day recently Mrs. J. H. Gelding, of Peel, received the following letter from Major Melville in acknowledgement of some socks sent to him for his men:

"A few days ago I received for my men of the Carleton County contingent, a nice parcel of splendid socks, which the ladies of Stickney have so kindly sent to us. They were very much needed, and owing to their splendid quality being much better than any we have seen over here, they were very much appreciated. I wish you would convey to the ladies of Stickney the thanks of myself and of all the men from Carleton county for your thoughtfulness and kindness. Trusting that each member of the company from Carleton county will be able to thank you in person at the conclusion of the campaign. Socks are always welcome."
