

The Strength of the Empire Lies in the Homes of Her People

"New occasions teach new duties," and this war is bringing to a crisis a food famine unless we immediately get down to the business of producing more and saving more.

That the food famine may be averted, we strongly urge the women of our land and especially organized societies like the Women's Institutes, to do their "thinking caps" and do all in their power for national service.

The individual can do much by preaching and practising, and becoming so enthused in this much needed production campaign that others are bound to "catch" the enthusiastic germ and work with such a will as to bring desirable results.

The organization can lighten the task and give it a more cheerful aspect by inviting competition and awarding prizes. If the organization would award prizes for most attractive vegetable gardens or hold Autumn Fairs and give prizes for best grown vegetables; in fact consider it a duty, sooner will we be enjoying the blessings of peace.

The woman in the home has always done considerable preserving and canning, but this year it is a patriotic demand that her yield be at least double that of former. She must devise schemes whereby she can preserve the produce of her garden, whether it be by canning, preserving, drying or cold storage. And again the organization has its part to play. Any woman is sure to take a deeper interest in the preservation of food if the works of her hands are to be exhibited and there is a possibility of her carrying off the prize.

It is proposed to give the delegates at the Fifth Annual Convention of the New Brunswick Women's Institutes an opportunity to see the results of women's efforts to save the foods to be used during next winter and spring. A canning exhibit will be an attraction. Liberal prizes will be awarded to the Institutes for best quality of New Brunswick grown canned fruits and vegetables. Particulars as to this exhibit will be forthcoming in the near future.

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true" that this war needed to bring to light many dormant talents. The war has given woman her opportunity but, alas, the suffering, the misery, the sorrow involved! would she not willingly have waited until woman's part in the economic development of her country had come as a matter of course? This latest talent should be scattered abroad and the organization should make use of the woman to spread the gospel along all lines of economy and production. As never before, woman should make a study of foods, their composition, selection, combination and preparation, so as to meet the needs of the family without waste of money or material.

The Department of Agriculture is ready and willing to co-operate with any society wishing information along all lines of Thrift and Production, whether it be a canning demonstration, a lecture, or both. In response to a circular as to the nature of a public meeting to be addressed by a Departmental representative, Women's Institutes are asking for talks on Institute work, demonstrations in various lines of cookery, lectures on Women's Responsibilities of To-day, etc. If anything is desired in addition to what has been requested, they will meet the wishes of the Institutes, providing same are confined to subjects that stand for National Service and requests are to hand by June 15th. In order to comply with these requests to the Department is engaging a number of trained workers for the summer and fall months, and every effort will be made to meet the needs of these strenuous times.

Let the slogan of the individual and the organization be: "Our grand business is. Not to see what lies dimly at a distance, But to do what lies clearly at hand."

The women's Institute Division of the Agricultural Department will be glad to furnish further particulars. Communicate with Hazel E. Winter, Supervisor Women's Institutes, Fredericton.

Good Advice

Yes, credit is a good thing, in fact is vitally necessary to most people some time in their lives, especially when they begin business with little capital. But it is often abused greatly. We think it is a duty of every person to work toward a cash basis just as rapidly and surely as possible. Such a year as the present is a mighty good one in which to make a start at least in this direction, going the whole way if possible. Why should a person that has handled a lot of money this year want a month or two extra time on his bills, when he should have money enough to pay them now? If a man can't pay his bills now, not asking for extension of credit, when can he pay them? Think this over seriously, friends, and then make up your minds to go out and pay your bills. You will find the cash system by all odds the best and most satisfactory in the long run.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

From all parts of the world we receive words of praise for Gin Pills as the great remedy for kidney troubles. The following is from Jamaica where Gin Pills enjoy a very large sale.

"I was a clerk in a store in Jamaica but had to give up my position on account of kidney trouble. I purchased one box of Gin Pills from a local Druggist and before it was all finished I was entirely better and able to return to my work. I recommended them to a friend who was also in a similar condition and he tried them with the same good results. I may tell you I tried many remedies in Jamaica before I got your Gin Pills."

Yours very truly,

Thomas Price, Bog Walk, Jamaica.
