

SHE LOOKS LIKE ANOTHER WOMAN

Edward Young Praises Tanlac For Restoring His Wife's Health.

"I have never seen anybody in as miserable condition from indigestion as my wife was, but now since she has taken Tanlac she has gained ten pounds and is in better health than for years," said Edward Young, a well-known employee of the Robin, Jones & Whitman Co., living at 199 Grafton street, Halifax, N. S., while telling of the experience of his wife Mrs. Anna Young with the medicine.

"My wife has suffered so much for the past eight years that she was almost a physical wreck and had fallen off in weight until she was a mere shadow of her former self," he continued. "Her appetite had about left her and she suffered for hours after every meal. Gas bloated her up and caused her heart to palpitate so bad that she could hardly get her breath and her nerves were in such a wretched condition the least little excitement would upset her. She was subject to severe headaches nearly every day. She would give completely out and would be in bed for three or four days, then would get up and drag around the house for a day or so and then back to bed. Her strength and energy left her and she lost thirty five pounds and was so weak and miserable that she was on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. Not so long ago I took her down to our old home at St. Margaret's Bay and had her rest up for six weeks, thinking the change would do her good, but as soon as we came back she was as bad as ever. "So many people were talking about Tanlac that I made up my mind to get her a bottle. She began to improve right away and now that she has taken five bottles she looks and acts like a different woman. She has a fine appetite and eats anything she wants without suffering any bad after effects. Headaches and nervousness have both left her and she has not been in bed a single day since she started taking Tanlac. Her strength and energy have returned and she is gaining back her lost weight as fast as she can. She says Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world, and I certainly have every reason for believing it."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

70 YEARS

Seventy years ago when our grandparents were young, they treated their colds and coughs, etc. with what was considered the reliable cough medicine—

SHARP'S BALSAM

of Horsehound and Anise Seed

Since then it has been the family remedy for coughs, colds, croup, sore throat, asthma. It was good for your grandparents and their children—it will do you and your children good.

IN MARCH 1883

Mr. M. Smith of Stouffville, N.B., writes: "For sixteen years I suffered from asthma, often being obliged to sit in bed to prevent suffocating. I tried all the usual medicines, but without effect, until I obtained some Sharp's Balsam (which was recommended to me) and after using two bottles, I found the relief so long sought for."

When you need a cough medicine ask for this famous old remedy. Sold at drug and general stores everywhere—25c.

delightful two weeks visit with her brothers, Rainsford and Hubert, of Lowell, Mass., returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. C. R. Hatfield, Simonds, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Roy Rigby, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dickinson were over-night visitors this week at Mr. Dickinson's old home at Newburg.

The many friends of Mrs. Robert Kidney are glad to know she has recovered from a severe attack of flu contracted while nursing her sisters at Victoria who were suffering from that dread disease. Mrs. Kidney was able to return to her home Thursday.

Roy Rigby and son, Carl, were week-end visitors to St. John. Mr. Rigby was representing the Hartland Branch of the G. W. V. A. at the Provincial Annual Convention of that society.

Mrs. Ernest Seely and Mrs. Roy Rigby were very pleasantly entertained at tea on Thursday by Mrs. Wm. Dickinson.

A large number of the friends of Ernest Seely gathered at his home Tuesday evening. The party broke up at a late hour after a very enjoyable time of games, entertainment and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Seely are about to move to their new home at Jacksonville.

Mrs. Bert Day, who has been receiving treatment at the hospital, Woodstock, returned home Saturday.

Bristol Brevities

A representative gathering of our progressive people enjoyed a great treat on March 17 at the play given by our amateur dramatic club. The play was Fergusson of Troy and was a farce comedy in three acts by Bernard Francis Moore. The characters were taken as follows:

Walter Hawley, an elder of the Reformed Church—E. R. Marich.
Tom Ferguson, M. D., a sport from Troy—L. A. Noble.
Charley Marshall, Susette's fiancé—J. Banks.
Lionel Fairfield, a crank that lives next door—H. McDougall.
Mike Murphy, Policeman—Jack Hood.

Ellen Hawley, the elder's wife—Mrs. A. O. Phillips.
Belinda Ferguson, Tom's wife—Mrs. E. R. Marich.
Susette Hawley, the elder's niece—Mrs. D. W. Rogers.
Johanna Mulrooney, maid—Mrs. M. Colter.

These were all well taken as great talent was displayed, but Mrs. D. W. Rogers and Miss Colter deserve special mention while E. R. Marich as an irate husband brought down the house. The duel scene was very fine and here Susette won honors.

The pianist of the evening was Miss Crystal Davis whose talent in that art is so well recognized that it needs no mention here. The soloist was Mrs. A. O. Phillips. Upon request she sang the ballad "Mother Machree" in a sweetly pathetic voice that never fails to move her audience.

The song, "When You Dance With Your Soldier Boy" was gracefully rendered by the Misses Doris Phillips and Zaida Rogers.

Under the efficient management of E. R. Marich, L. A. Noble and D. W. Rogers everything went well and the hall was literally packed. There is no doubt but that the attendance would have been larger had space been available. We understand that the young people hope to improve the hall so as to make it a suitable place for holding high class entertainments. We are sure that their efforts are praiseworthy and deserve the support of a progressive public.

A town that has three electric light plants, seven stores and three fine churches surely needs an opera house.

Primitive Baptist Quarterly Meeting

The Primitive Baptists met in quarterly session at Wakefield with a good representation of ministers, delegates and laity. Weather and road conditions were exceptionally good for the time of year. First meeting was held Saturday morning with a "Good Old Times Religion" element. The spiritual tide continually rose until the close of the session on Monday evening. Many souls during the session expressed their desire to get right with God.

Monday morning was devoted to business when considerable denominational business was transacted. Hymn Book committee reported progress and expect to have the book completed and before the public in three or four months. A predominant feature of the session was the presence of some seven or eight individuals, who were converted under the preaching and baptized by the late Rev. G. W. Orser, at this place, Wakefield, 46 years ago this month. It was gratifying to hear them express in this day of religious decline that the meetings were characteristic of the same element and spirit they possessed near half a century ago. Among those present from a distance were Brother F. T. Giberson, sister F. Walters and daughter, Ruth, of Caribou, Brother and sister Cogswell and Brother W. Orser, of Fort Fairfield, R. A. Nixon and W. Sewell, of Ludlow, Daniel Brooks, Ashland, and many others that space would not permit us to mention. All join in the sincere belief that Primitive Baptists stand for principles and church polity that must continue to increase.

Annual conference is announced to be at Carlisle first Saturday in July.—Clerk.
