SONOMA GIRL'S TRANSYLVANIA.

Rich Trotting Stake Landed by McHenry's Charge.

Argos Are Now Torontos—Secretary of the Argonauts Writes Stiff Letter to Inspector Stark, of the C.A.A.U.—Charlie Eastman in Front at Windsor.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12.—Sonoma Girl, the favorite, won the famous Transylvania Stake yesterday and clinched the championship for aged trotters for 1907. She had little trouble in beating her field, and at no time was the result in doubt. Margaret O., second choice in the betting, was distanced in the third heat. Sonoma Girl took the lead in the first heat and led at every quarter, holding Wilkesheart, the contender, safely. The second and third heats went like the first, with Sonoma Girl always in the lead, and coming home in a jog. In the third heat, however, the result might have been different had not Jack Leyburn been caught in a pocket at the head of the home stretch. It was impossible for Driver Geers to get Leyburn through. Sonoma Girl trotted the third heat in 2:05 1/4, equalling her record made earlier in the season.

RESIDE BEAT TODDLES.

Windsor, Oct. 12.—On a muddy track Platoon opened a good lead in the six furlongs handicap yesterday, but after half a mile he was collared by Conney K. Goes Fast and Charlie Eastman also came from behind, and Eastman won with something to spare. He was well ridden by Moreland, who cut the corner and saved ground coming into the stretch. In the first race, Goldblatt's Toddles was an odds-on choice, but was badly beaten by Reside. She has completely lost her form, even among the very poor lot she was meeting to-day. Her owner was more fortunate in the mile and a sixteenth selling race, which Moreland won all the way from Harmanis and Rebounder. Ormond's Right was on his bad behavior, and did not want to leave the post.

Comment and Chat

If the Detroit Tigers continue to go down to defeat the Hamilton Tigers will have to change their name.

The Chicago Cubs are winning the present series through superiority in the box and behind the bat. Brown is out of the game for the Cubs, but then the Cubs don't need him as they have Overall, Reulbach, Pfeister and Lundgren, all of whom are good pitchers. Detroit's chance is now to make it four straight and Chicago looks a good 1 to 10 shot.

Followers of Tongador are still hopeful of results one of these days at Belmont at good odds, which his present running warrants. As they go the reverse way at Belmont it has been suggested that Tongador turn around and give another display of fast backing up.

Nothing new in the Union embryology. Each side is resolute and unless something transpires this morning there'll be two more Rugby teams under the ban to-night. It is said that Ernie Russell almost stood muster before the C. A. A. U. committee until a letter from the representative at Montreal, Muir Edwards, who had something against the M. A. A. man, which he wrote about to Hamilton and the Argonauts. Hence all the middle-Toronto World.

'66 VETERAN'S.

Good Prospects For a Strong Local Association.

A meeting was held at the City Hall last evening by the ex-members of militia who served during the years 1865-66, and, considering the inclemency of the weather, there was a fair attendance. It was decided to reorganize the old association, and to make vigorous efforts to enroll all those who were called out during the stirring times of the years 1865-66. The election of officers resulted in Col. Stoneman, the senior surviving sergeant of the 13th Regiment, being elected President, and R. A. Hutchison Secretary-Treasurer for the ensuing year. Col. Stoneman has been connected with the regiment for over forty-three years.

A constitution and by-laws were adopted similar to those now in use by the Toronto Veterans' Association. The selecting of vice-presidents and an Executive Committee was laid over until the next meeting.

On motion, Lieut.-Col. Hon. J. M. Gibson was elected Honorary President.

It was decided to correspond with the officers of the Toronto Association for the purpose of a possible affiliation with that body.

The same badge as at present used by the Toronto Association was adopted, and the secretary was requested to ascertain the cost of same for use by the members. The annual meeting, to be held in the month of December in each year.

The greatest enthusiasm was manifested by the members and a strong association will no doubt be formed in the city.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

At the request of local workers, Mr. J. J. Kelso will conduct conferences on philanthropic subjects at Berlin on Monday afternoon and evening, and at Guelph on Tuesday. Such subjects will be taken up as truancy, playgrounds, parental responsibility, family desertion, children's courts, church co-operation, boys' clubs, housing conditions and other phases of preventive work. The discussions will be of an informal character, and are intended to diffuse information as to modern methods. A cordial invitation is extended to outside workers to attend.

KAUFFMAN WON.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—Al. Kauffman defeated Dave Barry in three rounds at the Industrial Club here last night. The Pacific coast fighter meted out such punishment that Barry's seconds threw up the sponge less than a minute after the third round began. Jack O'Brien entered the ring before the bout and issued a challenge to box the winner.

Little Paragraphs of Sport from Far and Near.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 12.—Lord Hawke, the famous English cricketer, and for many years captain of the victorious Yorkshire eleven, arrived on the Empress of Britain for a holiday trip in the Rocky Mountains.

Stratford, Oct. 12.—A company is being formed here for the purpose of building a gigantic skating and hockey rink. A number of local capitalists are behind the scheme, and expect to have the rink completed by New Year's. It will be up-to-date in every particular, and provision made for seating several thousand people. The rink will be located on Colborne street, in the heart of the city.

All Ready for the Kick Off This Afternoon.

Owing to the Montreal Express being delayed by connections in the east, the Montreal team did not arrive at 9 o'clock, as expected. Word was received that the train was four hours late and wouldn't arrive till 1 o'clock. That will give the players and followers time to get luncheon and dress for the game at 2:45.

The Montreal team will make their headquarters at the Royal Hotel. They are accompanied by about 75 rooters. The indications are that there will be an immense crowd at the Cricket Grounds this afternoon when the first match of the Big Four series will be played. Jack Lash, of Toronto, will referee, and the Tigers' line-up will be as follows:

Full back—Tope.
Half backs—Moore, Simpson, Cline or Smith.
Quarter—Ballard.
Scrimmage—Pfeister, Craig and Murray.

Inside wings—Barron and Wagie. Middle wings—Loftus and Isbister. Outside wings—Lyons and Marriott.

For the benefit of those persons who are new to Rugby football as played in Canada the following rules are given:

1.—(1) The game is played by two teams of 14 men each, with a ball 11 inches in length, 23 inches in circumference in width, and 13 1/2 ounces in weight (Spalding or Wilson make), and on grounds 110 yards long, by 65 yards wide, or as near those dimensions as practicable, with the boundaries distinctly marked. A goal line is placed in the middle of each goal line, composed of two upright posts exceeding 20 feet in height, placed 18 feet 6 inches apart, and with a cross-bar 10 feet from the ground. Twenty-five yards behind each goal-line, and parallel thereto, is drawn a line called the dead-ball line. If the natural boundary of the field be less than 25 yards behind the goal-line at either end, then such boundary constitutes the dead-ball line at that end.

(2) A drop kick is made by dropping the ball from the hands and kicking it with the foot the instant it rises from the ground.

(3) A place kick is made by kicking the ball after it has been placed on the ground.

(4) A punt is made by letting the ball fall from the hands and kicking it with the foot before it touches the ground.

(5) A flying kick is made by kicking the ball without touching it with the hands.

(6) The kick-off is a place kick from the centre of the grounds.

(a) The ball shall be kicked-off (1) at the commencement of the game by the side making that choice; (2) after a change of goals by the opposite side; (3) after a goal or try has been scored, by the side losing the goal, or having the try scored against them.

MONTREAL LINE UP.

Montreal, Oct. 12.—A full turnout of the Montreal seniors at the M. A. A. grounds yesterday morning provided the men with good practice, nearly thirty players participating. Hamilton showed up well in kicking, and is fancied for the place in Saturday's match against the Tigers.

"Burr" Baillie played the quarter-back position and seems to improve with every practice. He was quicker than usual, making scarcely any mistakes in the signal work. Tom Fegg, the centre scrumman against Argos last Saturday, played quarter for the intermediates, and displayed good form. McAllen going into the senior ranks in his place. Stinson was late in appearing, and Small did rather well in the full-back position, his punting being a feature, while he got away with the ball quicker than he usually does when playing at half-back.

The team against Hamilton will likely be: Stinson, full back; Russell, Craig, and Hamilton, halves; Baillie, quarter; Roberts, Fegg or McAllen and Lessor, scrumman; Murphy, Kingstone and Gilmore, right wings; Kelly, Savage and Molson, left wings; Small, Gordon, Ryan and one or two others.

CHICAGO WON THE THIRD GAME.

Cubs Trimmed the Detroit Tigers Yesterday, 6-1.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—Outclassed, outplayed and outluck, Detroit went to its third straight defeat with Chicago to-day as the contenders. It was the fourth game of the world's series between the American League and the National League pennant winners, the first of the contests that has been seen in this city in years. For four innings the game was a contest and very exciting.

Then the clouds opened, and with Detroit one run ahead, Donovan was forced to handle a wet ball, and with a fumble by O'Leary, a little wildness by Donovan, a sacrifice and a hit, and a long fly to left field, the game was really decided.

There was no point of angle in the game after that fourth inning that Detroit had a look in, as never a tiger reached second base until the ninth. Chicago seemed fierce all the time, except in the second, third and fourth, when the visiting Cubs went out in order.

In Chicago's first inning, with Slagle out, Schreckard singled to left centre, Cobb, r.f., as never a tiger reached second base until the ninth. Chicago seemed fierce all the time, except in the second, third and fourth, when the visiting Cubs went out in order.

Never a Chicago player visited second base until the fifth, when the rain fell, which finally caused a postponement of the game for 15 minutes. During the down pour of rain O'Leary missed an easy one off Evers' bat, and Donovan went into the air for a minute and passed Schulte, advancing Evers to second. Tinker, w.i., sacrificed Evers to third and Schulte to second. Overall's clean drive for one sack scored Evers and put Schulte on third. Slagle's long fly to Jones put Schulte over the pan, with runs enough to win. Schreckard forced Overall at second, and it looked like a two-to-one Detroit, because Cobb had scored in the fourth on his own three-bagger to left and Rossman's single.

There was nothing previous to this on the Detroit side at bat that was moonbatically interesting, but with Chicago in the field in the second, Tinker made a grand catch of Schmidt's liner, and doubling Bill Coughlin at second, Bill having singled, and Rossman having been retired on an easy grounder to Overall.

The real feature of the game occurred in the seventh, with Chicago at bat. Schulte scratched a single that Bill Donovan and Rossman raced for, and which Bill got, but there was not man on first to receive the throw, and Schulte was safe. Tinker tried to sacrifice, and Donovan, getting the ball, attempted to throw out Schulte at second. The throw was high, and both runners were safe. Overall, with a perfect bunt, advanced Schulte to third and Tinker to second. Slagle put Schulte over the pan with a roller to Coughlin, which was too slow to allow Captain Bill to catch the runner at the plate. Schreckard's clean poke to right scored Tinker, but both other runners got out later in trying to steal.

Chicago's last run came on a long fly to when Schulte out in the ninth. Jones, Donovan walked Tinker, and Overall advanced him with a sacrifice. Slagle singled by a bounding, but to Detroit.

What Does "Place" in Betting Mean?

Toronto, Oct. 12.—Whether betting as carried on at the Woodbine race track and at other tracks throughout Ontario is or is not legal will depend apparently upon which of two interpretations of the word "place" the Court of Appeal will accept in the argument of the stated case of the King against Patrick J. Moylett and Herbert T. Bailey. The hearing came up and judgment was reserved yesterday afternoon.

The stated case is submitted by Magistrate Denison, who on June 8 last sentenced Moylett and Bailey to 30 days' hard labor with the option of a $50 fine plus costs, on a charge of keeping a common betting house.

Mother—Oh, don't you think we had better send for the doctor? Johnny says he feels so bad. Father—Oh, he's felt bad before this, and got over it. Mother (anxiously)—Yes, dear, but never on a half-holiday.

ward short, which scored Tinker and Slagle himself reached second on the throw to the plate.

In the fourth and ninth innings the Detroit bunch looked like amateurs, as they never had a man on first, and meanwhile Overall had struck out four men. In the ninth, with Cobb tucked away on a fly to Steinfeldt, Rossman dumped a bunt that became a hit. Bill Coughlin smashed one over Tinker's head for a safety. Schmidt struck out, and then O'Leary drove the ball straight to Steinfeldt, who touched third base and the game was over.

The crowd, twice drenched by the rain, hung on manfully, expecting one of the Tigers' famous rallies, but that rally never came, and the floral pieces and decorations which adorned the town this morning and were presented to the Tigers on the baseball field, seemed to be a hoodoo, as the home team did not display anything like its wonted ginger and peppery activity, either at bat or on the fielding lines. The Boston Americans defeated the Boston Nationals by a score of 6 to 3.

Detroit, Oct. 12.—The total receipts for yesterday's game were $17,285.50. Capt. Brown would probably pitch for Chicago to-day, or Pfeister if Brown was not fit. It is expected that Mullin, or possibly Killion, who will go in the box for Detroit.

Of all the youngsters tried out by the major leagues this fall, Nick Maddox, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, must be voted the star performer.

Red Darr, of Zanesville, O., has played in every game in which his team has engaged for three consecutive seasons.

Pfeister Walsh, of Danville, Va., who has been signed by the Chicago National, is an inch taller and 5 pounds heavier than his brother, Big Ed Walsh, of the White Sox.

The St. Louis Nationals won from the St. Louis Americans yesterday by a score of 7 to 2.

DUNDAS DOINGS.

H. & D. Passengers Had a Disagreeable Experience.

Dundas, Oct. 12.—Passengers to Hamilton on the 5.15 p. m. trolley on Thursday last, are not well pleased with their experience. Starting from up the creek the trolley was jammed all right, but here they were subjected to much delay by the T. & H. B. road making up its freight train. Finally a start was made, the freight going first; the trolley following. Going up the incline after crossing the bridge over the creek the freight got stuck and the trolley was unable to gain the ascent it was wanted, and the H. & D. passengers were obliged to wait while the engine took the forward part down to the junction and returned for the rest of the train. The trolley passengers expressed the opinion that if the town has any rights in the matter the Council should wake up and see that the people are given some little consideration.

A meeting of the Methodist Sunday School officials was held on Wednesday evening. The principal business was to begin preparations for the diamond jubilee anniversary of the school to be held a year hence. A large amount of the school's history and that of many persons connected with it is being collected to be used for the occasion. It is proposed, if possible, to hold the jubilee during the proposed Old Boys' reunion. Thirty dollars was voted for preliminary expenses in connection with the project.

FAREWELL EVENING.

In Honor of R. McGilvery, Who is Going West

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. McIntosh, John street north, on Thursday, when her daughter, Miss Grace, entertained the workers of Knox Church Chinese class in honor of Mr. R. McGilvery, who is about to leave for British Columbia. The evening was spent in music and singing by the Misses McIntosh and Mr. F. Miller, and Miss Jennie gave a few readings, which were very much enjoyed. Rev. Dr. Nelson was present, and gave a short address. Mr. Coult's, Superintendent of the class, extended a vote of thanks on behalf of the workers to Mrs. McIntosh, and her family, for their kindness and hospitality. All present joined in wishing Mr. McGilvery a safe journey.

A handsome statue of her late Majesty Queen Victoria, which is to be erected on the Royal Dublin Society's grounds, Kildare street, Dublin, has just arrived in the Irish capital. The statue is in bronze, and represents the late Queen in a sitting position.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

In spite of the storm there was a good turnout at the meeting of International Lodge, held in the C. O. F. Hall last evening. After the transaction of business an excellent programme was presented by the following members: Mrs. R. Morrison, Mrs. D. B. Smith, Miss Lily Boniface, Miss Lizzie Smith, Miss Nellie Morrison, J. Gervin and G. C. Porteous. R. A. Curry, of Mountjoy Lodge, Londonderry, Ireland, was present, and delivered an admirable address. Next Friday evening the lodge will hold a box social, and the arrangements will be in the hands of Miss Maggie Sen and Miss Daisy Madden.

Not many people realize the heavy death-roll for which, in the course of a year, the various ships which are posted at Lloyd's as "missing" are responsible. Last year 34 vessels were lost at sea from some unknown cause, and it was computed that these losses had entailed the drowning of about 400 seamen.
