On Palm Sunday the grand old Church of St. Mary's at Bochum, the centre of the Westphalian steel industry, was once more used as a Catholic Church after having been for upwards of five years in the unhallowed hands of the so-called Old Catholics. The preliminary clearing process was a long and weary one, for so utterly forsaken had the building been during its quinquennial tenure by the sectarians, that a whole stratum of dust had collected throughout the edifice, and the colwebs had become almost impenetrable. Thousands of Catholics, who had all those years been compelled to worship in barns and sheds, crowded the building on the day named and filled it to suffocation, and it was appropriately remarked by the parish priest. Father Cumpernatz, that the ringing of the bell that was tolled at the moment when the Blessed Sacrament was once more carried into that church, might well be taken as the death knell of a sect that was started twelve years since for the purpose of superseding the Catholic Church, and which by this time has so piteously collapsed. — London Universe.

ABERNETHY REMEDY!

Swick, has been taken into the Dominion Cabinot as Minister of Inland Revenue.

Mr. Costigan has long been looked upon as booked for a Ministerial position, although Sir Leonard Tilley has seemed to keep him until further resistance of his just claims threatened to endanger his own chances of re-election. Sir Leonard has been more than content as the sole Ministerial representative of this Province at Ottawa, being evidently so jealous of his own prestige and position as to ignore Mr. Costigan and his friends ever since his own last accession to power, and it is doubtful if this tardy act of justice to a faithful and prominent member of the

The AFFLICITED'S COMFORTER.

It is doubtful if this tardy act of justice to a faithful and prominent member of the Conservative party—a man who "went down with the ship" in 1873; instead of going up into an important office—will have the desired effect in saving the political neck of either the Government or the selfish Finance Minister. It is an open secret that Sir Leonard Tilley has been, of late, to a greater extent than ever, under the influence of Senator Boyd of St. John; and there are not a few who believe it has been at the instigation of that gentleman, that Mr. Costigan was kept out of the Cabinet long after the time when almost everyone else between the stolen horses could be found.

NEW YORK. June 10.—The Brookfield Bank robbers had rented a farm where they were captured, and had made portholes in the wall to fire on attacking parties. Sixty revolvers and one hundred pounds of cartridges, masks and explosives were found in the house, which had the appearance of a small armory. One of the robbers told where the stolen money was hid; in a den eight miles away, and an officer were to get it, accompanied by Frank was kept out of the Cabinet long after the time when almost everyone else be-

Sir Leonard, Mr. Boyd's importance and influence with the Government would be lessened. It is, therefore, something to be thankful for that the exigencies of the political campaign—if not his sense of justice—has relaxed Mr. Boyd's grip upon Sir Leonard's liberty and mind in this matter. Mr. Costigan is a decided improvement on that gentleman whose vacated position he takes.—*Advancs.*
