The flames spread rapidly among such inflammable material as the hay and straw they contained, and soon extended to the warehouse which formed the other compartment of the building. The "Silaby" arrived on the ground in surprisingly quick time, and after streamous exertion succeeded in getting the fire under, not, however, before the building was destroyed, and considerable damage done. The "Silaby" was alone in the struggle—the "Rollo" being under repair—and were it not for the exertions of Messrs. Large and Hickey, and the firemen generally, who worked like Trejans, the flames would have spread and great damage have been done. As it is, the loss to Mr. Campbell is estimated at $1,500; $1,000 on the building and $500 on goods destroyed. There is an insurance of $600 only.

Joun Macrimson was arrested on Sunday morning for quite an extensive robbery from the Fish Market of Mr. J. H. Myrick, in whose employ the prisoner formerly was. It appears that Mr. Peter Reilly, guardian of the "Rollo" Sire Engine, observed Macpherson passing on Sunday morning carrying a bag and a basket, in what he deemed a suspicious manner. He reported what he had seen at the Police Station, and very soon after officer Bradley inspected the Fish Market. and discovered that one of the windows in the rear had been broken open.
