The Bishop of Norfolk,

COMES TO A FINISH ON THE BUSINESS OF OPINION.

The honor of being elected Bishopric Bishop for the Diocese of Ely has been conferred upon the Very Rev. Dean of Pollington, D. D. The following short sketch of the history of one of our most well known to all and who is soon to become the guide and leader of the Diocese, will be of interest to our readers:—

Dr. Hollowath is of Jewish origin and Polish birth, and his name was Holaway prior to its radically long list of men from among such eminent people who have occupied places in both Church and State.

The Bishop was educated at Cambridge, and it was there that he received his first impressions of our country. In 1841, he made a public [illegible] which he had prepared for that purpose in [illegible] and it was there that he received his first impressions of our country.
