Some months ago the C.P.R., in securing their right of way through as follows: theona to the proposed high-level bridge, expropriated two lots, Nos. 16 and 17, block 6, belonging to Mr. McKinnon. The amount of compen sation to be paid him was decided upon by an critication board composed of Orland Bush and J. M. Douglas. Stratheona, and G. J. Kinnaird, Edmonton. Two members of this mission, Messrs. Bush and Kinnaird, awarded Mr. McKinnon $2,900 operation on the system, and in September two more were placed in commission, since the property. Mr. Douglas dissented, claiming that the amount was not sufficiently large. Several of the justices of the court have come to such a decision. The amount of additional compensation to be given Mr. McKinnon will be decided by the court in the course of a few days.
