ably cured.

I think that's absurd. Unless you really like to be in that state of mind in which you are sure that everything is wrong and will never come right again, that nobody loves you and that life is no longer worth living, I think there are plenty of things you can do to help you when you feel the spasm coming on. Such as: Well, in the first place, try going out for a good long walk. "Blues" are notoriously bad walkers, I find, and in the majority of cases a good, brisk walk can leave them quite winded and exhausted somewhere on the road.

If that doesn't work, try the effect of an eleven or twelve hour sleep, a cold bath and a good breakfast. A great many very stalwart blues have been known to go under that course of treatment. If neither of those things has the proper effect, suppose you take a little interest in your stomach and bowels. "Nothing makes a man feel so absolutely hopeless and all around blue as indigestion," a doctor told me once. Maybe what you think is a state of mind is really nothing but a state of stomach.

Another cure for the blues is to make yourself smile at everyone you meet. It comes pretty hard at first. You are sure the smile must look sickly enough to be on its deathbed, but if you keep on smiling, the smiles will get more healthy and the sickliness will begin to transfer itself to the blues.

Another method is to go out of your way to speak kindly to or to do something kind for someone. Sympathize with the pale little shop girl. Tell her you are sorry her work is so hard.

Give your paper boy a dime instead of a penny for the morning paper. Let the old "frutta woman" tell you some of her miseries.

Offer your maid an unexpected afternoon off.

Now, I know you think I'm just preaching, but I'm not. It's really and truly so. Exerting yourself to do a kind deed or say a kind word will often break the strength of a spasm of blues.

And please don't regard this as just a pleasant moral dissertation, but the next time you get into the power of the blue devils really try some of its suggestions.

But first, before you let yourself get into their power, please consider this suggestion:

"If you first sit and sigh

And have the blues,

Why don't you try to realize

That there are sighs and sighs,

And blues and blues,

From which to choose?

They're heavenly blues and blues of tranquil seas,

Both pleasant—if you have them pray have these;

And when you sigh, be like the turtle dove,

Who knows not grief and merely sighs for love."

Blakeney Grey.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and set it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol, or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never grip. Easy to take as candy.

Fads and Fashions.

Shantung, rajah and a new Chinese silk, which is part silk and part linen, and has a rich-looking rough surface, will be employed for the spring Russian costume.

To form a lovely frame for the picture hat, Parisian women now are carrying umbrellas that rise with the attractiveness of original shape and gorgeous materials.

Cottons have had remarkable development in the past few years. There are silk and cotton mixtures that rival the expensive chiffons with the balance of wearing quality in the cotton favor.

The wrist frill is seen again, not only on fancy blouses but on some of the spring coats, while the shirt-waist with the Dutch or gaudier cuff has this portion trimmed with an up-right frill.

Crush linen belts will be worn with the linen frocks this summer. A mother-of-pearl buckle is a favorite fastening. If the belts are worn with an embroidered gown, the belt has similar handwork.

All shades of blue are being used for hat flowers. The cornflower blue, the "bleu-de-roi," the dull tapestry blues and all the violet shades are favored for the flower wreaths on the large flat hats.

Border fabrics are again in order. Some of the light wools have printed borders ten or twelve inches in depth to be used about the skirt, the designs showing conventional figures on the Parisian order.

The immense popularity of trills and frilling has restored to favor the Run Down? Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, than as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this.

becoming neck ruche, although its proportions are modest compared to the wide ruffles which were in fashion two years or more ago.

Coats somewhat shorter and fitted a little more closely than the fall and winter models are shown, some closing with buttons and buttonholes down the front, others with frogs or buttons and braided loops.

Here and There.

FUNERAL TO-DAY.—The funeral of Mrs. Bowden, relict of the late Capt. Solomon Bowden, took place from the residence of Mr. Cyrus Warren, South Side, at 2:30 p.m. to-day and was largely attended.

UNCONSCIOUS ON STREET.—Saturday night a girl passing up Henry Street found a man lying in a dark section of that locality, and informed the policeman doing duty at the Star Theatre. The officer found the man in a stupor from an overdose of alcohol and had much difficulty in arousing him. He hired a cab and drove him to the station.

SUPPLIED FINE MUSIC.—The new cylinders supplied by Messrs. Clouston and Vey to the blind organist as the result of the entertainment Friday night, have greatly improved the organ which the man plays. It executed some fine selections Saturday night and citizens were delighted with the lively strains. All should contribute to this man, who has a large family depending on him.

WILD DUCKS' BREAK TELEGRAPH WIRES.—For several hours Friday last telegraphic communication was interrupted between Whiteborne and Brigus Junction and the line repairers were sent out to look for the break. On examination it was found that a big flock of wild ducks had run against the wires badly breaking and tangling them. Two of the birds were killed in the collision and were found hanging to the lines. Such an accident rarely occurs.

"Sick Man's Friend"

That's the Name Given by Thousands to the Old Family Stand-by, "Nerviline."

1,000,000 Bottles Used Annually.

No better known or more popular family remedy has ever been compounded than "Nerviline." During the past half century its success has been phenomenal—due to the fact that it always cures.

"No one could get me to go to bed at night unless I was sure we had Nerviline in the house," writes Mrs. R. R. Weightman, of Bolton, P.O. "Six years ago my husband was taken badly with rheumatism, which affected his right arm and shoulder. It was so sore and stiff as to be almost helpless for four years. I read of the cure of James E. Everett, and felt sure that when Nerviline cured a case like his, it would cure my husband. I got a dollars' worth of Nerviline, five bottles, in Buffalo, and am pleased to write you that the fourth bottle cured. We have since used Nerviline for Lumbago, Neuralgia, Colds, Chest Tightness and other minor ailments in the family and found 'Nerviline' to be the 'Sick Man's Friend.'"

No other remedy is so useful in the home, so universally employed to alleviate pain and curing the sick. Reserve anything offered you instead of Nerviline, which is sold: Large 25c. bottles or five for $1.00. By all dealers, or The Catarthozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

CHINA CUPS and Saucers, Plates, Dishes, etc., Glass Preserve Dishes, Tumblers, Wine Glasses, Decanters, Vases, etc. We are always fully stocked with the above lines. At LAR-AC'S, 345 and 347 Water Street, opposite Post Office.—Jan. 3, 11.

Heavy Undertow.

A very heavy sea ran outside Saturday night and yesterday morning and as a result there was a big undertow in the harbor. The barque Gaspe and the barque Lake Simcoe had to be hauled off in the stream from Baird's and Baine Johnston's premises, and the Florizel, which was moored at Bowring's upper South Side premises, in the racing evident up there burst her moorings and springs, swung out into the dock between Bowring's and the R. N. Co. premises, and Capt. Clarke and his crew had great difficulty in keeping the ship from badly damaging the wharves or being swept up by the tide against the parapets of the Long Bridge. The steel hawsers of the ship snapped like pack thread with the surging of the big ship, gump heads were torn up and Bowring's wharf was considerably damaged. The captains and crews of the tugs D. P. Ingraham and John Greene were called at 5 a.m., and the ship was towed down the harbor and anchored off the King's wharf. Several schooners which were surging against the piers to which they were moored had to be hauled into the stream also.

"Cheer Up!"

If you need furniture to cheer up your home; if you need clothing to cheer up yourself, and you haven't got the spot cash, we recommend you to go to B. Friedman, 301 Water St., where you can get every description of Dry Goods, Ready-Made Clothing and Furniture, on weekly or monthly payments. The credit system is confidential. B. FRIEDMAN, 301 Water St., Water Side, Phone 546. P. O. Box, 5.

PATIENTS FOR HOSPITAL.

The ambulance went to the railway station on the arrival of the train Saturday night to convey to the Hospital Miss F. Miller, of Mussel Harbor, and Miss B. Davis, of Indian Harbor, P.B. Both patients will undergo treatment for a serious internal ailment.

NOTE OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Snow take this opportunity of thanking the following who sent wreaths and flowers to adorn the casket of their late lamented son: Mr. R. F. Goodridge; Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of A. Company, C.L.B.; C. L. B. Football Team; Warrant and Non-Commissioned Officers and Lads of Avalon Battalion, C.L.B.; Proprietor and Employees of Evening Telegram Office; Mr. and Mrs. Pippy; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chancey; Miss D. Rendell; Lance-Corporal R. Dicks; Mrs. Spooner; and all other kind friends for the many services rendered, especially the Misses Rendell, Mr. Alderdice and Mrs. Wm. Godden.—adv.

HAS A CORN ANY ROUTS.

Yes, and branches and stems as well. Can it be cured? Yes, by applying Putnam's Corn Extractor; it's painless, safe and invariably satisfactory. Insist on only Putnam's.

A NEBARIOS PRACTICE.

Residents of the upper part of Adelaide Street complain that certain parties residing there are in the habit nightly of throwing night soil in the gratings under the fountain from which water for household purposes is obtained. This is a practice which the Municipal Council should suppress with a firm hand, and those who make the complaint say that if necessary they will give the names of the offenders.
