HENRY BLAIR

Obituary.

MR. THOS. STAPLETON.

A well known citizen and a type of the old time hardy seaman passed over to the Great Beyond yesterday, at the General Hospital, in the person of Mr. Thomas Stapleton. The deceased was a seaman who was intrepid and fearless, and also followed the sealing and whaling voyages for many years, being one of the late Capt. Arthur Jackman's best hands. His death was the result of a protracted illness, and he leaves a wife and child to whom with the other relatives the Telegram extends its sympathy.

Big Freights

Now that the Christmas season is with us big freights are being received by the different steam boat firms and there is a busy time handling and delivering goods. The Morwenna and Cacouna will shortly arrive with full freights, the Stephano here to-day has a big cargo and the Florizel will also have a full freight. Besides Harvey's the Allan liners and Furness boats are also bringing much goods and these premises as well as the Reid freight sheds present a busy sight daily.

A Correction.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Mr. Editor.—In the report of the address delivered by His Grace Archbishop Howley at

Littdale, on Sunday, Dec. 8th, the reporter says:—

"The Archbishop . . . graphically described the Holy House of Loretto which he had the great privilege of visiting."

What His Grace said was "I stood in the very room in the cave of Nazareth where the Angel Gabriel appeared to Mary," etc.

Yours, etc., M.

A Reminder for Xmas.

S. H. PARSONS & SONS, Photographers, corner Water and Prescott Streets, would remind those who are sceptical of having their photographs ready for Xmas, that all sittings made up to and including Wednesday, the 18th inst., will be finished by the 24th; but would advise coming as soon as possible, as the rush is always greatest at this season. Sittings made at any time—day or night. The new Electric Lamp for portrait work is giving every satisfaction. dec10.51

That Shooting Case.

Seaman Sidney Simpson, who shot himself a few nights ago, is doing well at the General Hospital. The wound that the bullet inflicted in his foot will not be long healing. We understand that when Simpson is better he will be taken into police custody and charged with attempting to intentionally and maliciously wounding himself.

A Vision.

I dreamed last night that I had flown far from this world of grief and groan, that I had long despised, and I found that heaven was a land of ecstasy, supremely grand, as good as advertised. The angels round me played their lyres and on the Jasper walls the fires of changeless sunrise gleamed; and joyous anthems filled the air, and swaying wings and mantles fair—thus happily I dreamed. And then a statesman from below got through the gate—how, I don't know—and got his choice of crowns; and ere an hour he there had spent I noticed signs of discontent; the seraphim wore frowns. He skimmed round among the blest and told them that they were oppressed, and had them peevish soon; their crowns were bargain counter things, they all deserved much better wings, their harps were out of tune. "Your heaven once was good enough," progressive measures are the stuff, and we will have them here, with old age pensions for the sharps who've grown too old to play their harps, and always played by ear; with sorrow and dismay I note the female angels do not vote—no wonder they feel galled; St. Peter's held his job too long and all his policies are wrong, and he will be recalled." Thus spake the statesman, and the sky was ringing with the seraphs' cry, who wearied of their yoke; their gentle souls with wrath were warm and they were bound to have reform—just then your angel woke.
