MR. CUSTOMER.—
Probably you've economised by doing without your usual suit and overcoat during Fall of 1914. Are you going to have that down-and-out look in Spring 1915? The Allies have millions of men on the firing line, each requiring thirteen pounds of wool every six or eight weeks. The British Government are keeping British Mills turning out army contracts.

Spring quotations for woollens are sky high. We have on hand a particularly fine range of Serges, Tweed Suits and Overcoatings. Order now as you will have to pay considerably higher in the Spring.

TRICKS IN WARS!
DISGUISED SOLDIERS!

Although it is a common practice, it is not considered to be playing the game for soldiers to disguise themselves in the enemy's uniform for the purpose of facilitating an approach. It is quite legiti-mate, however, for an enemy to wear captured uniforms, if their own are too mutilated or weather-worn to protect them. In such a case all distinguishing badges must be removed, and some conspicuous sign must be worn on the annexed garment to denote the nationality of the wearer.

You can hardly blame a soldier for discarding his soiled, dirty uniform for one that has just been Dry Cleaned. This is a common occurrence.
