Hardly recovered from their sand-bagging at Mount Cashel, the Cubs again attacked the Wanderers last night in the C. of E. Orphanage prelims., and made them bite the dust to the score of 10 runs to 1.

A fairly large gathering of fans attended the obsequies, and saw Claude mow down batter after batter.

The Smith crew did not come to life until the third when Britt brought across their one and only. After this they retired once more to their shells.

The Wanderers certainly missed Andy Clouston on first, as his substitute—Orley—was in poor shape; 2 of the Cubs' runs in the first inning was due to a wild throw of his to the plate.

Duggan had a nice double-play to his credit in the second.

Claude made another famous attempt to beat the pitcher's throw and get home, but we fear Bat is no Donald McColl, and he perished miserably.

Then Dillon emulated him but got trapped.

To-day's Messages.

GOT AWAY WITH THE LOOT.
WINNIPEG, Ont., July 29.
Bootleggers stole forty-eight thousand dollars worth of grain alcohol from a shipment in transit, and their identity remains mystery.

CENSURED HOSPITAL AUTHORITY.
TORONTO, July 29.
A corners jury censured the Toronto General Hospital last night, and recommended that arrangements for the care of the general public be investigated, following an inquiry into the death of Tu Wing, a Chinaman.

REFUSED TO GIVE FIGURES.
SARNIA, July 29.
Customs officials in charge of exports here, refused last night to give the figures of sugar shipments to the U.S. "That's Government property," was the only comment. Another source states that large shipments are going into U.S. from here are one days shipment is said to be five hundred and twenty tons.

MORE LEGISLATION.
LONDON, July 29.
A bill, to deal with disorders in Ireland, will be introduced next week in the House of Commons, and passed in all its stages, according to an announcement by Bonar Law, Government Leader in the House, to-day. Premier Lloyd George to-day received a large deputation of members of both Houses of Parliament on the subject of Ireland. The Premier advised the deputation to await the introduction of the new bill embodying the proposals of Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, for dealing with the disorders. He said its provisions would be found to be very drastic, and great hopes are entertained that they will succeed in coping with the situation.

RAILWAYMEN CLAIM A WIN.
DUBLIN, July 29.
Irish railwaymen, who have dislocated traffic in various parts of the country, thereby causing a serious food shortage in some places, by refusing to handle trains carrying munitions and armed guards, claim to have won at least a partial victory over the Government, as evidenced by a communication from the military authorities to the railway managers. It is announced that military guards henceforth will not be furnished for goods sent by rail, and that owing to the state of the country, it is not at

In the fourth the Cubs broke Kid Donnelly's heart, and batted him all around the lot.

The most spectacular play for the evening was Freddie Phelan's really professional running catch of Robbie's long fly to centre field.

The great Bat himself undertook the coaching of his team last night, and a general improvement was noted all round.

There's no doubt about it the Wanderers' outfield like to take them on the first hop.

In their clash with the Lions, the B.I.S. surprised everybody by their exhibition up to the fourth, having, with no score for either side, but the inevitable happened and up they went.

Before they returned to terra firma the crafty Hiltzies had pushed four tallies across the plate.

The Irish had chances to score in the second and third with men on the bags, but the batters couldn't bring them in against Walter Callahan.

Chief Chessman reversed Tim's decision last night when the latter called a runner safe on third. "Ata boy, Fred!"

Doc Power beamed his mechanical assistant with a foul ball last night. Should show more consideration for the staff, Doc.

present proposed to use railways for the transportation of munitions. This apparently ends the railway difficulty, so far as concerns freight trains, but passenger traffic is still liable to obstruction by the refusal of railwaymen to carry armed police or soldiers as passengers.

BELGIAN SOLDIERS DEMONSTRATE.
BRUSSELS, July 29.
Thousands of soldiers assembled outside the Chamber of Deputies to-day, to demonstrate dissatisfaction with the Government's treatment of former soldiers, who demand that a lump sum be paid every man who served in the war. A body of soldiers broke the police cordon, and invaded the Chamber, disregarding Burgomaster Max's appeals. Eventually they were persuaded to leave peacefully. While in the Chamber the soldiers broke doors and windows and hurled ushers aside. The men then marched through the Chamber with banners, while the astonished Deputies sat powerless to quell them.

WHIPPED THE TURKS.
SMYRNA, July 29.
Turkish Nationalists attempted a concentration east of Brussa, beyond the Greek zone of occupation, according to an official statement from army headquarters to-day. The commander of Brussa troops statement said, "Attacked and destroyed enemy, killing seventy and taking thirty prisoners, besides capturing machine guns, munitions and flag."

POLES AGREE TO ARMISTICE.
WARSAW, July 29.
The Polish Committee of National Defence sent a wireless message to the Soviet supreme command on July 27, stating that it would send delegates on July 30, with full power to negotiate an armistice. The message informed the Soviet command that the delegates would appear at eight o'clock on the road between Brast-Litovsk and Baranovitch, and the time and place was requested where they would meet an advance post of the Soviet.

Obituary.

ADAM O'DRISCOLL.

We learn with regret of the sudden passing of Mr. Adam O'Driscoll, at Witless Bay, this morning. Deceased was a brother of the Rev. S. O'Driscoll, P.P., St. Mary's, and the late P. C. O'Driscoll, of this city. Mr. O'Driscoll's death was quite unexpected as he had been in perfect health and only a week ago was in St. John's. He leaves a wife, (nee Miss McNamara), four nephews, Messrs. John and Joseph O'Driscoll, of P. C. O'Driscoll, Ltd., Stephen, with the A.N.D. Co., at Grand Falls, all sons of the late P. C. O'Driscoll; Patrick, son of the late Thomas O'Driscoll, of the Imperial Life Insurance Co.'s staff, and many other relatives to mourn their loss. The late Adam O'Driscoll possessed many of the characteristics which made for that sturdy type of Newfoundlander, so rapidly passing away, and those who knew him recognized his sterling worth and true manliness. To the relatives the Telegram extends sincere sympathy.

Bandmaster Bulley's Protest.

LETTER TO CIVIC SECRETARY.
July 30th, 1920.
Mr. J. L. Slattery, Secty-Treas., St. John's Municipal Council.
Dear Sir,—At the request of the Acting Secretary Treasurer, Mr. Mahoney, we were ordered to send a Representative to the Council Office on Tuesday, June 22nd, at 3 o'clock to discuss the matter of nights to hold Band Concerts in the Parks, as owing to the fact that the C.L.B. Band were asking for the same night (Tuesday) for which night we were the first to apply, and I may now state here, for the information of the Public that this whole idea of Band Concerts originated from us, and we naturally thought that we should get the preference of nights at the least. However, to make a long story short, we sent a Representative, and the matter was thrashed out, we holding as stated before, we were entitled to the nights asked for, Tuesday and Thursday in Bannerman Park, and Friday in Victoria. However, as the C.L.B. Bandmaster stated he wanted but ONE Concert Night per week in Bannerman Park only, as he was expecting to hold Concerts in Bowring Park, and one night was sufficient, and should that one night (Tuesday) be unfavorable they would not hold another Concert until the following Tuesday, and of course we agreed to forego Tuesday night and take Monday, as we were not anxious to be arbitrary on the matter, when they only wanted the one night.

To our surprise on reading this Morning's News we find the C.L.B. Band advertised for Bannerman Park to-night, in spite of the fact that the C.C.C. Band are holding theirs to-night also at the Lake Side, and this fact was advertised in yesterday's papers.

We therefore protest against the C.L.B. holding a Band Concert in either of the Parks to-night, and would request you to write the C.L.B. Bandmaster to be kind enough to carry out his agreement made in the Council Office on June 22nd, last, with our Representative. He appears to be quite unfamiliar with the ordinary rules of musical etiquette.

Yours very truly,
A. R. BULLEY,
Bandmaster, Band C.C.C.

Strange Marriage Customs.

A very odd marriage ceremony takes place in Afghanistan just after one of Afghanistan's brown daughters weds. Then a number of men in weird masks surround the bridegroom's house, and after that a dozen or so men clad in black, with skeletons outlined on their skin-tight garb, dance frantically round the figure of a woman stretched on the ground.

This is to teach the bride what will happen to her if she seeks amities or does not conduct herself with proper decorum towards her husband's mother; what will happen to her if she does not conduct herself with proper decorum towards her husband they indicate will be far worse. This is the naive Afghan manner of teaching women their proper places and making them properly humble.

Too Honest.

Strenuous police duties have not killed General Horwood's sense of humour. The new commissioner of Police is fond of this story:
A tourist in Ireland indignantly approached the landlord of an inn one morning.
"Look here; what does this mean?" he said. "I left my boots out last night, and they haven't been touched."
"True for you, sir," replied the landlord, proudly; "an' begorra, if you'd left your gold watch and chain out, divl a soul would have touched it."
