Death of Hon. Justice Rose.

Toronto, Jan. 21.-Sunday morn-ag at 4.30 o'clock His Honor John Ing at 4.30 o'clock His Honor John Edward kose, LL.D., Justice of the High Court of Ontario, passed away after an illness of nine days from pneumonia. Death took place at his home. Justice Rose was looked upon as one of the most capable and important indees in the province, being partial judges in the province, being noted for his precision and accuracy in everything he undertook. He was known as one of the most eloquent of the High Court Justices, yet never spoke without careful preparation.

Hon. Justice John E. Rose, LL.D., one of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas, was born at Willowdale, County of York, on Oct. 4, 1844. His father, Rev. Samuel Rose, D.D., who came from the vicinity of Kingston, was born in 1806. He was appointed to the Bench in 1883.

No Trifling With the Nerves.

When you can't sleep at nights and toss in misery longing for daybreak to come, do not yield to the temptation to use morphine, cocaine or other opiates. They only hasten decay.

Let reason rule. Get right down to the foundation of the trouble and build up the system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great restorative is in pill form and contains the very elements of nature, which go to form new red corpuscies in the blood and create new nerve cells.

It is worth while to remember that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is not a patent medicine, but the greatest prescription of Dr. A. W. Chase, author of the lamour receipt book.

of Dr. A. W. Chase, author of the lamous receipt book.
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an up-todate, scientific preparation which has proven itself to be specific for all neryous diseases. It cannot fail, if used persistently, because it actually rebuilds and revitalizes the wasted herves. It is especially recommended for fils peculiar to women, because they almost invariably arise from exhausted herves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50

Your Foot

A Friend or Enemy?

The service your feet will give you depends mainly on the amount of intelligence you use when buying shoes.

An ill-fitting shoe causes misery from morning till night and is the source of incurable foot-ills.

In "Slater Shoes" you have a combination of comfort, durability and comliness.

A tag on each pair tells what leather is in the shoe - how to care for it - the wear it is adapted to.

Every pair of Genuine Slater Shoes is Goodyear Welted which means a maximum of ease. The sole of every "Slater Shoe" bears the slate frame trade mark, makers' name and price $5.00 or $3.50.

Britain's Stricken Queen First in the Heart of the Nations.

People and Press Give Expression to an Affectionate Regard and Solicitation For the Aged Monarch-Some Attribute Her Collapse to the South African War-At Washington the Sympathy Manifested Is Not Perfunctory.

London, Jan. 22.—The despatches received here from nearly every capital in Europe, from India, Australia, Jamaica, and all the British colonies, show the press and people to be sympathetic in their comments on sympathetic in their comments on the Queen's illness. The one excep-tion seems to be Belgium. A ma-jority of the Brussels comment is in good taste, but one pro-Boer paper takes the occasion to make a political attack on Great Britain's South African policy.

ONE BULWARK OF PEACE

With the Queen's Departure Goes Britannia's Good Genius.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 21.—In omment of all cricles on Queen Victoria's illness, the personal note dominates the political. The Czar's subjects freely admit that Her Ma-jesty has been one of the principal ulwarks of peace.

The Rossia and Novosti alone touch the political chord. The Rossia says: "England's prestige is sia says: "England's prestige is largely due to the Queen. To spare

The Novosti says: "England is discontented with the situation, and the dissatisfaction possibly will be the dissatisfaction possibly will be expressed more plainly if Queen Vic-toria shall die. Her successor will entertain different views on many questions. He is credited with strong French sympathies. The pow-er of an English sovereign is greater han commonly stated, therefore the change may produce a revolution international politics."

PARISIANS SYMPATHIZE.

Despatches From Osborne Were Eagerly Followed—Chamberlain Responsible.

Paris, Jan. 21.—The despatches from Osborne are eagerly followed here. The evening newspapers pub-lish frequent editions which are quickly sold. The articles in the papers are sympathetic, though they give evidence of the anti-British feel ing by the South African war. Many of the writers ascribe Queen Vic-toria's collapse to the cloud of meluncholy enshrouding her on account of the situation in South Africa and the unseasoning death roll.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain is spoken us the evil spirit, responsible for the ainful circumstances of her end. An ophobe writers like Mm. nd Millervoye, however, publish in the Libre Parole and The Patrie, espectively, ruthless depreciation of he dying Queen.

The Temps says: Queen Victoria had become the symbol of the nation and Empire's glories and prosperi-ties of her long reign, and the century of progress and well-being. In the maturity she was the ideal constitutional sovereign. The Primof Wales has had his tastes, friend and court. Even if he desired to de-ace himself and to follow the example of his mother, his sex would render the step more difficult. The leath of the Queen probably will be in more than one domain the signal for grave changes. It is the end

What Will Happen When the Change Has Taken Place.

Taken Place.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The greatest interest and sympathy is manifested in official circles here in the condition of the Queen. Every builderin coming by cable is waited with anxiety. Moreover, the character of the enquiries indicates clearly that the interest is not confined to the official class, nor is it perfunctory.

There is little to be done officially here when the end comes, and that little is perfectly well defined by precedent. The President will communicate directly from the White House an expression of his regret to the Prince of Wales, or rather to King Edward VII., as he will be by the time the message is indicted. Secretary Hay will communicate to Ambassador Choate an official expression of the sentiments of the United States Government. This will be by cable also. Later on, more formal exchanges will take place by mail.
