TORONTO.

TORONTO. Aug. 21.—At the Western cattle yards today 68 loads of offerings were received:
There were over 1,100 lambs and sheep. 200 hogs, between 50 and 60 calves and a few cows.
The receipts for last week were 2 280 cattle, 4,686 lambs and sheep, and a few cows. The market today was in general bad shape, the demand all round was light, quality peor, and the trade altogether demoralized.

the trade altogether demoralized.

Export cattle sold at figures that usually the sellers did not care to quote. For the best stuff here te was the average price, though for a few selected lots 4½c was occasionally paid; a good quantity of stuff for shipping sold at 3½c down to 3½c per lb. Cables from London and Liverpool reported overflowing markets and weak prices.

The market for butchers' cattle was in general bad shape. A light demand existed, most of the stuff was inferior, and 3; cents was not only occasionally raid; a fair quantity a price only occasionally raid; a fair quantity of tuying was effected around 3c per pound, and 23c and 24c were very common prices.

Lambs and Sheep—The large run of 1,100 crowded the market and prices completely gave way. Export sheep sold at from 34c to 34c per 1b; a bunch of exporters, aggregating 17,340 lbs. sold at 34c per 1b. A cable from Engineering 14 and 15 certain and 1 17,340 lbs, sold at 34c per lb. A cable from England reported 5d as the best price in London for mutton. Lambs were very low, and $3, with occasionally 10c added, was the outside price for the best lambs here today; secondary and inferior sold from $2 15 down to $1 50 each. Quite half the supply will remain over. No inquiry for butchers' sheep.

Hogs—The supply and demand were both light, though more hogs would have sold had they been on hand. The top price today was $5 25 and $5 30 weighed off cars. Other quotations are unchanged. All grades will go at current prices.

A few cows found a slow sale at from $22 to

SOME OF THESE DAYS.

Some of these days all the skies will brighter;
Some of these days all the burdens be lighter;
Hearts will be happier, souls will be whiter
Some of these days,
Some of these days!

Some of these days in the deserts upspringing Fountains shall flash while the joy bells are ringing.
And the world with its sweetest of birds shall go singing
Some of these days,
Some of these days!

Some of these days! let us bear with our sor-Faith in the future, its light we may borrow; There will be joy in the golden tomorrow

An Exciting Runaway.

Dr. McCallum's mare got giddy again today and made things extremely lively as she dashed along the granite pavement on the south side of Dundas street between Wellington and Richmond streets. The mare was being taken to Stevenson's barn, next to the Congregational Church, and while in the yard broke away with several feet of shaft dangling to the harness. The animal jumped the fence as easily as it did the Richmond street gates of the G. T. R. a few months ago and headed west on Dundas street. On Wellington street the mare concluded that the billowy block pavement, for which that part is noted, was not fit for either man or beast, and she took to the sidewalk, selecting the shady side, though it proved to be fairly well occupied by pedestrians. The clatter of hoofs and the shouts of enlookers warned many to get out of the way, but several who were coming out of stores had narrow escapes. At the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets the mare endeavored to turn south, but slipped on the pavement and fell. She rose again and had started off when P. C. Chas. Tuke captured the animal, which had become quite lame. Mr. Tuke hung on pluckily, and had a finger nail ripped off one of his fingers and his coat torn.
