DO WHAT'S RIGHT WHILE YOUNG!

Herbert Booth Says Those Who Give Their Hearts to Christ Do So Before They're 25.

All That Should Be Written is Not Written on the Death Certificates by the Doctors.

Mr. Herbert Booth, son of the great case, the case that will not yield Salvation Army leader, spoke to a fair congregation in the First Methodist Church last night. A speaker of Mr. Booth's calibre deserves a better audience, but this will probably come before the week's services are over.

Mr. Booth possesses a commanding presence, a pleasing voice and an earnestness, which carries his message with special force to his hearers.
