SEVEN BEAVERS TO GER

Try Out Seven Canadian League

The Toronto International League club will try out seven members of the Toronto Canadian League team next spring. They are Trout, Graham, Kirley, Hune, Auld, Sullivan and Palmero. Bobby Auld, Tront and Hunt look like the pick of this bunch, and it will not 00 be surprising if they land a steady club. However, there are many more are just as good as any of these players, and the Toronto club could pick out seven other men in the league who would stand a better chance of making good than this septette. However, the fact that it will cost the Leaf management nothing to take these players from the Beavers no doubt has something to do with it.

He suffered terribly from the aliment, and that summer he was worse than ever when he went East to sell a ball player to John I. Taylor, who is extremely soft hearted and knew nothing of Tom's ailment.

They talked a time; then Taylor offered Tom $2,500 for the player. As he made the offer he glanced at Tom's face and saw signs of woe. Tears were rolling down his cheeks.

"If you feel that way, Tom." said John I. "I'll make it $3,500" "If you feel that way, Tom," said John J., "I'll make it $3,500." Not a word did Loftus reply. The tears gathered and rolled and his face was distorted as if
