Will be Thankful.

Dear Miss Grey—I see where "Mother of Four" has pattern of man's overalls for me. You will find enclosed addressed envelope, and I will be very thankful to get pattern.

Here is a cucumber pickle I have not noticed in print. Sweet Cucumber Pickles.—Pick cucumbers often, 3 as full as possible; put tablespoon salt on top; boil sufficient vinegar (about three cups), add sugar to taste and spices, and white boiling pour on cucumbers and seal.

Did you have any Comfort soap coupons for me? With many thanks to "Mother of Four," I am,

COUNTRY TWIG.

She Makes Bread.

Dear Miss Grey—Here I am back again, but hope I will be of some use this time. Someone was asking how to make bread, least potatoes and as I make the bread, probably can help her. To make it with buttermilk, you always set it at night, put one yeast cake to soak in a scant half-cup of tepid water and place it where it will keep warm; next put buttermilk on to boil—one quart to four loaves—next prepare your flour for setting; put about two and a half sifters of flour into your mixer and make a towel in the centre when the buttermilk boils, pour into the flour and stir up just what it will wet, not too stiff. Then pour in cold water enough to blend the rest of the flour and make

ENSEMBLE PRACTICE.

It is very important that every student wishing to accomplish great things in music should have opportunities of practice in ensemble work. This the Conservatory makes possible by means of orchestral practices, the study of concerted works, and frequent opportunities for singing and playing with other instruments and with other students. This work is absolutely necessary to a well-developed musical education.

Granny Visits Her Grandchildren

"Mother, mother! Here comes Granny, and Grandad, too."

"Hello, Granny! Hello, Grandpa!" shouted all.

"Dear, dear," said the mother to herself, I have no home-made bread in the house, and Granny has not brought a loaf as usual. "What shall I do?"

"I want some of Granny's cakes," pouted wee Jack.

"Granny hasn't any," said she with a twinkle in her eye.

All faces fell in disappointment.

"Listen, dearies," said Granny. "Grandpa and I are going to stay a month with you, and I will bake some bread and cakes every day with Hunt's Diamond Flour. They will make you all strong and healthy, as well as save Daddy's purse!"

You must tell Mother to be sure and get me at once some HUNT'S DIAMOND FLOUR."

It is hard to break the chains of habit. It took one man six months to stop saying "Gee Whizz."

It is astonishing how habit will keep a person asking for "the same as usual" tea long after she has intended to try Red Rose Tea. Why let habit prevent you enjoying this richly flavoured Ladan-Ceylon blend? Order a sealed package to-day.

It proper temperature, for yeast, it bakes seems too thin, add more flour; it is best to be as stiff as can be beaten well, then add yeast cake and beat well about five minutes; cover up well, set to rise, and mix it down stiff in the morning.

Nobody's Darling.

Dangerous Sentiments.

Dear Miss Grey—I do you think it right for girls of 15 to go driving with boys older than they?

2. Do you not think it is better for girls of this age to go to school, instead of entertaining soldiers?

3. Do you agree with "J. H. P." when he says that all girls should dirt? I do not.

1. If my letter is not too long, will you please give some suggestions for a soldier's box—one who doesn't smoke?

Well, Miss Grey, you may think me a prince, but I am not. Will sign,

OLD DAFODIL.

Ans.—I. Not unless their mamma's know and approve?

2. Yes, "Daffy," I do.

3. Much as I love "J. H. P." afraid I also have to disagree with him here. Such sentiments are very dangerous indeed!

4. This is what went in one box for a soldier boy and, judging by recent dispatches from the trenches, he was very appreciative. Pair grey home-knit socks, two turkish towels, small fruit cake, box home-made fudge, packages of gum, tiny volume of J. W. Riley's poems, small tin box packed with home-made shortbread, tube of shaving cream, one of toothpaste, a toothbrush, two cakes of toilet soap, and a box of Zam-Buk.

Next time you write, please define the term "brunet"; until then, I'm in suspense as to what you're not.

A Fragrant Blossom.

Dear Miss Grey—I notice in the Mail-Box where "Middle-Aged Lass" has some white aster seeds; may I have them, also a couple of crocheted yokes patterns when some come in? I am indulging in Sweetheart coupons. If anybody would send me a pattern, I will send them a wrapper. I am sending a stamped, addressed envelope, which you may keep until my wants are satisfied if I'm not too greedy.

I have one brother in England, went with the 15th M. G. S., and one brother-in-law in the trenches, so my sympathy is all for the soldiers' wives. I think they don't get half enough money to live on, considering the sacrifice their husbands made when they went to the front.

May I call again? With best wishes for Miss Grey and the Mail-Box, I remain,

AN ENGLISH VIOLET.

Daughters of the Empire

On the date of September 20, Mrs. McLaren Brown, secretary of the Daughters of the Empire, C. W. C. A., England, acknowledged the receipt of forty bales of hospital supplies and soldiers' comforts from the I. O. D. E. of London, Ont.

In reference to the latter, she says: You know how exceedingly grateful we are to you and to those who contributed to this generous gift. Acknowledgment is also made of a consignment of boxes containing surgical dressings from the Princess Patricia Chapter.

Word has been received from England that the autograph books donated by the Mary Armstrong Chapter, Strathroy, are being distributed to the soldiers.

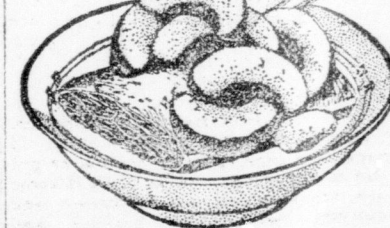

The Klucki Girls of Wilton Grove, captained by Miss Marian Currie, had a garden party a short time ago, the proceeds of which amounted to $83, and were handed to the treasurer of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., to be expended for the comfort of the soldiers overseas. That previous efforts of these young ladies are appreciated in England is shown by the following letter from the secretary of the ladies' committee, C. W. C. A., in old London, lately received by Miss Currie:

Dear Madam,—I am directed to convey to you the very grateful thanks of this association for your generous contribution of tobacco and sweets to the soldiers. The committee are exceedingly obliged to you for this most valuable and useful contribution, and you may rest assured that your birthday party will be enjoyed by Canadian soldiers, made happy through your kindness. Sincerely yours,

ELIZABETH MCLEAREN BROWN.

In a trip to the Southern States, Mrs. Campbell, the treasurer of the Municipal Chapter, had the pleasure of visiting a chapter of the British Daughters of the Empire in Chattanooga, Tenn., and exchanging fraternal greetings. This is one of the many branches of the order

Dear Miss Grey—My! How terribly busy you are kept these days with the giving and receiving of coupons. I am sure you, like a great many of your readers, will be thankful when your correspondence is over. I can fancy hearing you say, "Well, you are just as bad. You are always wanting help, too." Quite true, my dear Miss Grey, but I hope like them, I have a surprise in store for you. I shall be able to help those who are now helping me.
