Paint & Varnish

If it's worth anything --- it's worth painting

If you value your home or if you take any pride at all in its appearance, you certainly owe it a coat of paint once in a while. And something more important still—if you continue to put off painting you run all the risk of decay and deterioration, because lack of paint means lack of surface protection. If your house is well painted, it not only looks nice and is worth more, but it is protected against the wear and tear of the elements.

GOOD PAINT IS ALWAYS A GOOD INVESTMENT

"B-H ENGLISH" PAINT IN ALL COLORS.

We honestly recommend this as the best paint of its kind made anywhere. The formula, which is found on every can, tells you that it contains 70 Per Cent Pure White Lead and 30 Per Cent Pure Zinc—100 Per Cent Pure Paint, suitable for outside and inside surfaces—it goes further, yields a better finish, and works smoothly under the brush.

"B-H" FLOOR PAINT IN A DOZEN DIFFERENT SHADES.

This paint is made to walk on—for hard wear. It has a quick drying, smooth, glossy finish, which will not easily scratch or scuff up. A very economical floor covering, because even a small quantity goes a very long way. That kitchen floor would look all the better for a nice coat of paint.

"B-H" FRESCONETTE

A flat oil wall finish in about twenty different shades. This is the modern washable finish for walls or ceilings, and even rough plaster surfaces. It is also satisfactory for window shades. Suitable for every room in the house, and may be washed off as easily as a tiled floor.

FRESCONETTE combines all the advantages of an up-to-date decoration, with a finish that is perfectly clean and sanitary.

"B-H" PORCH FLOOR PAINT IN SIX DIFFERENT SHADES.

Your porch or veranda has to withstand the tramping of many feet and the scraping of chairs—it is also exposed to the extremes of temperature, rain and frost. So for this purpose we have a product which is made up to a special formula. It dries quickly, even before the dust of the street can touch it; it dries hard, and is very durable. A good-looking veranda floor is a compliment to your home.
