

DECLARE WAR ON ALL RATS IN GALT

Expert Rodent Killer Plans To Open Campaign On Garbage Dumps.

Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Nov. 9.—War was today declared on rats in Galt. E. G. Urry of Ridgeway, the modern "Pied Piper," arrived in the city today, and with the co-operation of the board of health, has undertaken to rid the city of the rodents. On Monday he will launch a frontal attack on the city's garbage dumps.

Miss Aldred of Hamilton, a visitor to the farm of Andrew Harvie, had a couple of ribs broken on Wednesday in a runaway accident on the farm. He was thrown from a wagon when he team ran away, and dragged her short distance.

It is announced that Louis Blake of Welland, who at one time was actively identified with sports throughout the province, will be the principal speaker at the G. A. A. A. complimentary dinner to the Terriers, Ontario's baseball champions, week from tonight.

A solemn memorial street service is planned for Saturday morning next to mark Armistice Day. Mayor

Charlton, city ministers, and the S. A. Band will take part.

The five Terriers, who went to New York as the guests of J. J. Stevens, a local manufacturer, have returned well pleased with their visit to the big city.

The news came in from Puslinch Township today that John McMillan, a farmer, in returning from a threshing in the fog on Thanksgiving night, got lost, and wandered eight miles away, being found the next day by search parties.

SPECIAL ORCHESTRA MUSIC.

For lovers of real orchestra music prove the most interesting of any month this year. Not only does the Philadelphia Orchestra under Schubert's moment musical, No. 668, with the most feeling of any record made by them, but Fritz Kreisler, the world famous violinist with Hugo Kreuder, the cellist, play Jerni's Serenade, No. 577, as a duet surpassed by no other Victor instrumental selection. For the piano pupil, Paderewski plays the Chopin "Liszt" selection, "The Maiden's Wish." All or any of these selections upon request will be cheerfully played at the Home of the Victoria, Mason & Risch, Limited, 245 Dundas street, where every Victor record, new and old, is always in stock.—Adv.

If you mention yourself as a Want Ad reader to real estate advertisers, they will give you their best attention.

ROYAL NAVY CIGARETTES

Now Comes the World's Fastest Shave! 78 Seconds from Lather to Towel

We offer it to you

WE'VE processed a barber's edge—the keenest cutting edge known—on a safety razor blade!

That's the story in few words.

Now we offer you the world's fastest shave—a velvet shave in 78 seconds from lather to towel.

We talk in terms of time, because the only way to get a quick shave is with a super-keen blade.

Old-time ways won't do it. Put your watch before you and prove it to yourself.

Valet Auto-Strop Razor

Sharpens Itself

We recommend your using our famous strop for the same reason a barber strops his razor. It keeps up the keenness. It works as a part of each razor—there if you care to use it, or, if you choose, you can just insert new blades as you feel the need. Self-stropping is a patented Valet Auto-Strop feature. It helps to give you the world's fastest shave every day.

Pick up a Valet Auto-Strop Razor at your dealer's. Then give it a whirl to-morrow. Shave with your watch before you.

Note the time—78 seconds for a velvet shave!

AUTOSTROP SAFETY RAZOR CO., LIMITED - TORONTO

TURIN

Special to The Advertiser.
Turin, Nov. 9.—James Richardson, for whom Mr. Candy of Ridgeway was digging a well, struck a copious flow of water at a depth of 117 feet.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Jewitt motored from Aylmer on Tuesday, called on some of their former parishioners and returned home on Wednesday. All their friends were delighted to meet them again.

Miss Riddle of London was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Holliday on Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Smith spent the week-end and Thanksgiving Day at her home near Dutton.

Miss Viola Hogg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Peter McAlpine in Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Garner spent the week-end and Thanksgiving Day at their mother's home, Mrs. Linline, on the 12th concession of Oxford, returning to London on Monday.

Miss Helen Debus, Miss Helen Grundenburger, Lloyd Appel and Lloyd Debus motored to Toronto on Monday and spent the day there.

Orval Hostetler of London spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hostetler.

Mrs. D. M. Carson of Parry Sound, and Mrs. Carrie Mann of London, were the guests of Mrs. Carrie Becker this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wilker of Michigan are visiting the former's sister, the Misses Wilker.

Miss Henrietta Pease and Miss Helma Bouleau spent the week-end with the latter's sister, Mrs. Richardson of St. Marys.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hostetler and four children, of Cayton, Sask., arrived here this week on a visit to their relatives and friends.

Miss L. S. Rabb is on a business trip to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yoe of Little Britain are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Culbert.

William Erb of Meaford spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Erb.

Miss Flora Haggard, Miss Grace Watt and Stuart Watt of Guelph spent Monday at the home of S. D. Peacock.

Miss Florence Bradley of Welland was a week-end visitor in town.

RUTHVEN

Special to The Advertiser.
Ruthven, Nov. 9.—Chicken thieves have made their appearance here. On Tuesday night, Arthur Wigle lost several of his best breed. The thieves cut the heads off the chickens before removing them from the coop.

William Tapping met with a serious accident at his home on Monday. He was using an emery wheel to grind a steel pipe when a splinter from the pipe pierced his eye. A doctor was called, and removed the splinter, but not until the eye was cut and badly irritated. It is believed the sight can be saved.

A few of the winter pears were being taken from the trees here on Tuesday. Some of the limbs are so heavily loaded that they touch the ground.

The large crop of tobacco is about all disposed of in this district. Fair prices were received for the whole acreage. The major portion of the crop was up to the standard.

Herbert Smith of Essex was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Pearson on Sunday.

Craven Hillam is seriously ill at his home here with dropsy and heart trouble.

W. E. Dillard of Woodstock, brother of Mrs. J. Pearson, was the guest of his relatives here on Monday.

The committee of the old boys' and girls' reunion will meet shortly to decide on the date for next year's reunion.

The water at the lake has been so low almost all fall that at many places old wrecks which have been under water for years are visible and sand bars are high and dry for miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fox are moving into their new brick bungalow which they erected this summer. The building is one of the most up-to-date in this district.

CAMLACHIE

Special to The Advertiser.
Camlachie, Nov. 9.—The three Methodist charges of this circuit were favored on Sunday last with the presence of Reginald Hudson of London, who led the singing. He also ably rendered solos at each appointment. During the service in the village church a duet also was sung by Miss Doughty and Mr. Hudson.

Rev. Brown, the pastor, gave an interesting discourse on the "Boy of the House With the Upper Room."

Mr. and Mrs. M. McNeill of Sarnia spent the holiday with Mrs. McNeill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schram.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Parker are spending a few days in London.

The Build-Better Society held a Thanksgiving service in the Anglican Church on Monday evening. Rev. Waghorne of Mandamin delivered a most inspiring and appropriate address on the subject of "Building Better."

The Scripture passage, a Thanksgiving Psalm, was read by Rev. A. W. Brown. The choir rendered two appropriate selections.

The collection amounted to about $10, which, with the $10 already subscribed, is to be forwarded to the secretary of the fund for the northern fire sufferers.

A number of the members of Acorn Lodge attended Lodge of instruction in Parkhill, and put on the third degree on Thanksgiving Day.

NEW HAMBURG

Special to The Advertiser.
New Hamburg, Nov. 9.—A large delegation attended the B. Y. P. U. rally held in the Baptist Church on Monday. Rev. Moore of Georgetown took charge of the morning session, and Rev. Albery Hughes of Toronto and Rev. Hind of Guelph spoke in the afternoon.

The death took place at his home in Blenheim on Sunday of Mr. Samuel Toman, father of Mrs. B. Krupp. The late Mr. Toman was in his 90th year, and was one of the pioneer farmers of Blenheim and South Wilmet. A family of twelve sons and daughters survive him. The funeral took place on Wednesday to the Mennonite Church and cemetery.

Miss Sarah Graham, sister of Mrs. Robert Wiles of this town, passed away at the latter's home here on Tuesday morning. The deceased had been in failing health for some time and took seriously ill while on a visit to her sister. The remains were shipped to her former home in Toronto, where interment took place.

The New Hamburg Rink Company held their annual meeting last Thursday, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, J. F. Rau; vice-president, H. Phillips; treasurer, D. Geisler; secretary, D. E. Ritz; managing committee, H. Phillips and P. L. Peine; directors, A. E. Puddicombe and R. E. Puddicombe, auditors, L. Peine and H. McCatium. The rink company has awarded the contract for erecting seating accommodation on both sides of the rink to E. Kalbfleisch. Better lighting is also to be installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ireland of Toronto visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brodrecht.

Robin Smith of Toronto spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. R. Puddicombe.

S. Holley, who has been spending the last few weeks in Tweed and Kingston, returned home on Saturday.

Miss May Bishop of Parkhill spent a few days with friends in town.

Dr. and Mrs. Winn motored to Toronto to spend Monday with the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Grundenburger left for Detroit Saturday, where they will spend some time with the latter's brother.

Miss Clara Roeder of Wainnipeg, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. of Bright were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ritz last week.

Miss Dora Debus, Miss Helen Grundenburger, Lloyd Appel and Lloyd Debus motored to Toronto on Monday and spent the day there.

Orval Hostetler of London spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hostetler.

Mrs. D. M. Carson of Parry Sound, and Mrs. Carrie Mann of London, were the guests of Mrs. Carrie Becker this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wilker of Michigan are visiting the former's sister, the Misses Wilker.

Miss Henrietta Pease and Miss Helma Bouleau spent the week-end with the latter's sister, Mrs. Richardson of St. Marys.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hostetler and four children, of Cayton, Sask., arrived here this week on a visit to their relatives and friends.

Miss L. S. Rabb is on a business trip to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yoe of Little Britain are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Culbert.

William Erb of Meaford spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Erb.

Miss Flora Haggard, Miss Grace Watt and Stuart Watt of Guelph spent Monday at the home of S. D. Peacock.

Miss Florence Bradley of Welland was a week-end visitor in town.

THEDFORD

Special to The Advertiser.
Thedford, Nov. 9.—Mrs. George Kernohan of Barwick, New Ontario, has purchased Mrs. Ashworth's residential property on King street and will take possession this week.

The Kernohan family left here some twenty years ago for Barwick.

Mr. J. Montgomery has moved here from Seaford, and is occupying the house on Mill street vacated by C. Borthwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Swanson, Messrs. Harvey Lalld and Malcolm Crawford of London, visited in town this week.

John Harrison, father of George Harrison, 14th concession, died at Allis Craig at the age of 93 years.

The members of Cassia Lodge, No. 119, A. F. and M. E. will give an "At Home" in Crawford's Hall on the evening of the 15th inst.

Mr. Enoch Cornell and daughter have returned from a visit to the Northwest.

Joseph Desjardine of Grand Bend, has leased the Holwell House, and is undergoing extensive repairs.

PRINCETON

Special to The Advertiser.
Princeton, Nov. 9.—The Guild and League held a social evening on Wednesday with a varied program and debate. "Resolved, that it is a greater advantage to be tall than short." Affirmative, Rev. D. A. Lane and Fred Courtney; negative, Burleigh Wilson and Murrill Neill. The affirmative won by two points. There were many visitors in the village for Thanksgiving holidays, including Digby Dickson of Huron College, who filled the position as lay reader in St. Paul's on Sunday; P. Kipp from Western University, and his friend, Mr. Copeman of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. H. Buck and little girl, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Buck and family of Woodstock.

Mrs. and Miss Yarrington were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hunter, London.

Mrs. Waile and Mrs. Howard spent the holiday at their old home in Preston.

W. H. Davis has much improved the appearance of his tire and accessory store by replacing the small windows with two large plate glass ones.

Mrs. Strode has completed improvements to her house purchased from C. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Heritaz from London have moved into the Stevenson property recently bought by them.

MORAVIANTOWN

Special to The Advertiser.
Moraviantown, Nov. 9.—Rev. Mr. Kerr of Bothwell took the Sunday services in Wesley church last Sunday morning, and administered the sacrament. Rev. Mr. Joblin took his work at Bothwell.

Monday night the Orangemen gave an oyster supper in the Orange Hall, after which a splendid program was given in the town hall.

Those taking part in the addresses were W. J. Wray and Mr. Hudson of London, Rev. Mr. Kane of Thamesville, Mr. Vance of Blenheim, and Joseph Monture of the Six Nations Reserve. Suitable music for the occasion was rendered by Mrs. Joblin, and the Misses Peters and Enoch Jacobs of this place, and Miss McRitchie and Miss Mies of Bothwell.

Miss Ellwood of Bothwell gave several recitations in a clever way. Ex-Chief Emerson Snake occupied the chair very acceptably.

A vote of thanks was given to the speakers and others on the program, who had helped so willingly and well at this splendid entertainment.

Terrible Headaches And Dizziness

Miss S. Raphael, 287 Kenilworth Ave. N. Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I used to suffer from terrible headaches and dizziness. Last summer, while I was walking up a side street, I got a dizzy spell and fell in the middle of the road. An old gentleman helped me to get to where I was going and told me to get a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. Well, I did, and they did wonders for me. I don't know how to thank you, as I don't get headaches or dizzy spells any more."

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers, and the only way to keep well is to keep the liver active and performing its proper functions by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

Price 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.—Adv.

HENSALL

Special to The Advertiser.
Hensall, Nov. 9.—Wm. Morran and wife of Goderich recently visited their relatives, Mr. William Fee, and sisters.

Our businessmen report trade quite good in the village, and are displaying large stocks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nicholson of Sarnia, also Mr. and Mrs. G. Nicholson of Crediton, visited Mr. Andrew Johnston and daughters.

Rev. Mr. McConnell and Rev. Mr. Foot of Exeter exchanged duties on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Laughton of Toronto spent a few days during the past week with C. A. McConnell and family, Mrs. Laughton's father.

Mrs. T. Murdoch, her sisters, Mrs. Wm. Lammie and Miss Hunter and Miss Ethel Murdoch, were in Tona-wanda, N.Y., during the past week, attending the funeral of Mrs. Foster of that place, a sister of the three first mentioned, who died very suddenly.

W. E. Brown, jeweler, spent the holidays at his home in St. Catharines.

Miss Salina Beaver spent the week-end in London.

Miss Helen Fisher of Toronto, accompanied by a friend, was here recently, spending a day or so with her parents.

G. Chelov of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. C. Cook and family.

Wilson Berry of Windsor spent Thanksgiving Day with his parents, Miss Edna McDonald of London spent the week-end at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Munn have moved off their fine farm on the third concession, Hwy. and are now occupying their new residence on Richmond street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dignan of Exeter spent a couple of days recently with their relatives, Mrs. W. Dignan, and Mr. and Mrs. David Dignan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McIlarg of London spent Thanksgiving holidays at her home.

Mrs. Frank Marshall and two youngest sons recently returned from a visit with relatives in Sault Ste. Marie.

Peter Stewart, who was confined to his room through illness for a week or so, is now able to be around again.

Miss Grace Harvie and friends of Toronto spent Thanksgiving holidays in the village.

Harry Dent of Sudbury, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Charles McCrea, of Sudbury, have been spending the week-end with their relatives, Mrs. J. Sutherland and family.

Dr. W. Graham and Mrs. Graham of Toronto spent the past week with relatives and friends in Hensall and vicinity.

Monday last, Thanksgiving Day, was observed as a holiday here, and a large number of visitors spent the day in the village.

The church services were largely attended in the church last Sunday.

Special Thanksgiving sermons and music, appropriate to the occasion, marked the day.

Large quantities of grain, fowl, etc., have been marketed during the past week.

Miss Dora Sherritt spent the week-end with her mother and brother.

Why not try a Want Ad? It's the first question your experienced friend will ask you.

Dominion Rubbers

—Protect your health
—Save your shoes
—Keep your feet dry

It's sound economy to wear DOMINION RUBBERS for Fall and Winter.

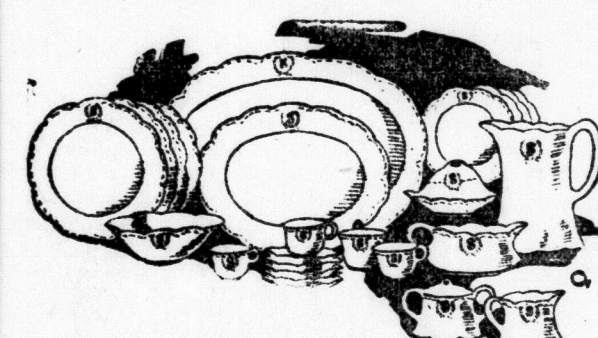

They are made in such a variety of styles and sizes that you can get the exact shape to perfectly fit every shoe.

You might not get these good DOMINION RUBBERS if you ask merely for "a pair of rubbers".

Always ask for them by name—DOMINION Rubbers.

Forced-To-Move Sale

We are much gratified at the start of our Sacrifice Sale. It has exceeded all our expectations. Sale opening on Saturday last was the largest day's business in our history. We had a multitude of customers and we believe every customer a satisfied one.

We would like to correct an impression conveyed by some customers that goods shown in store are all the stock on sale. Goods displayed are only samples. We have reserves of nearly every line—some lines dozens of them, many lines hundreds of them.

Sale Will Be Continued at Same Big Reduction On Every Article In the Store

20% Discount On Every Item China, Crockery, Glassware and Fancy Articles of Every Description

Don't forget the famous Indian Tree and other Coalport patterns—the famous Aynsley Crown Derby and other Chinas.

Every Article at the Big Discount in Price—No Reserve

Special for Saturday—Pudding Bowls, sets of three—500 of them. Would be special value at 90c. On sale 3 Bowls for 53c

152 DUNDAS STREET The London Crockery Co. 151 CARLING STREET

Anticipate your wants for Christmas and future months. You save a lot of money.