WHY ITALY

Had Promised Great Britain Not to Employ Force Against the Chinese. Her Ambassador Recalled Because He Used Too Strong Language in Ultimatum.

British Bluebook on China Shows Friendly Concert With United States and Germany.

By Associated Press. Rome, March 14.—In the chamber of deputies to-day Admiral Canavero, minister of foreign affairs, made a comprehensive statement regarding Italy's action in China. He confirmed the reported recall of Signor Martino, Italian minister at Peking, and announced that Italy had obtained the approval of Great Britain and Japan before demanding San Man. Great Britain, however, had requested, he said, that force should not be employed, and had promised in return to give her diplomatic support to Italy at the court of Peking. Other friendly powers, the minister continued, were then notified and indicated their acquiescence.

Admiral Canavero then covered events already known, explaining that Signor Martino's action should be disavowed, as his ultimatum contravened the agreement with England that only in the event of Sir Claude MacDonald's resignation at Peking, being unable to British the Taung-Yamen to take back Signor Martino's first note, should Italy resume liberty of action in order to obtain reparation. He expressed confidence that Italy's duty was to refrain from force so far as possible, since she had gone to China without any previous provocative incident or violation of rights, if adopted, disturb the international equilibrium in the Far East and excite a fatal reflex action in Europe, besides injuring Great Britain, who had proved herself Italy's cordial friend, and exposing to herself the odium of having shown themselves the well-wishers of Italy.

A CHINA BLUEBOOK. London, March 14.—The eagerly anticipated China bluebook was issued this evening, but all the main points in the despatches, filling 360 pages, are already known to the public. The bluebook deals at length with all the details of the railway and mining concessions to all countries, and commencing with the cessation of Port Arthur and the opening of Nan-Ning as a treaty port. Much space is devoted to the details of the foreign concessions, and the protests of American property owners against coming under the jurisdiction of France or other single power. The readiness of British troops to support the victory in resisting the French demands is also explained, and the bluebook contains the Chinese Hankow-Canton railway signed in Washington April 14, 1898. The whole tenor of the British despatch is in accordance with the views of Germany and the United States in all matters in which they were concerned.

Schemes and methods were proposed, and many individuals and companies in so far as it would be compatible with whatever official position I might afterwards hold in the Yukon. CUBANS VERY GREEN.

Wanted Eighty Millions From United States But Gomez Set-aside the Suggestion. Havana, March 14.—Gen. Gomez says he recognizes only one power in Cuba, that of the United States. All that the Cubans can do, he declares, is by persuasion of the American authorities and therefore the military assembly can only act in his opinion the assembly in acting as it does because it wants to get more money out of the United States. In this connection he points out that the assembly first proposed to ask $80,000,000. As for himself he says that he is not a beggar. The United States government offered the $80,000,000 and he has never asked an increase in the gift. Indeed he says to ask more would be undignified and improper.
