MAIL ORDERS.

We solicit out of town orders which receive our personal attention. The length of time taken to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods,

it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the rotation in which they are received, and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt despatch.

Our Office is connected with the N. B. Telephone by two separate lines insuring prompt attention.

BATHURST WINS IN NORTH SHORE BONSPIEL

Close Games Mark Sixth Annual Bonspiel for North Shore Trophy—Campbellton and Bathurst Have Each Two Wins.

The sixth annual North Shore Bonspiel held at Chatham on Thursday and Friday was easily the most successful yet held, both from the point of interest shown and the number of spectators in attendance.

On Thursday evening the usual supper and smoker was held in the large dining hall of the Exhibition Building, the sixty-four visiting curlers and their friends being the guests of the local club. Over one hundred enjoyed the ample repast prepared by the Red Cross ladies, and at the close of the supper, the large cake donated to the local club by Le Bert Pallen and won by Skip Danville, was cut and each one in attendance received a piece.

A most enjoyable two hour programme of toasts, speeches and music was then rendered, which was greatly enjoyed.

The four splendid sheets of ice were provided in the main building, on which thirty-two curlers were almost continuously at play from 9 a.m. until 10:30 p.m., the artistic decorations, and the large number of interested spectators that thronged both upstairs and ground floor promenades, presented a pleasing appearance.

The bonspiel opened at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning and continued all day Thursday and Friday—40 games being played each day. Each club had four rinks competing which played four games against each of the other clubs, the aggregate number of points to decide the winner. All the games were played in the exhibition building except two which had to be played at the local curling rink Friday afternoon on account of the sun affecting the two ice sheets on the southern side of the building.

The standing of the different clubs at the end of the first day's play was as follows:

Bathurst	106 points
Campbellton	102 "
Chatham	94 "
Newcastle	92 "
Dalhousie	80 "

At the conclusion of the bonspiel Friday night Chatham had changed places with Campbellton, the others remaining the same. During the evening there was much excitement among the spectators watching the contests, as at one time the totals showed the three leaders within five points of each.

The final figures were as follows:

Totals:
Bathurst—202.
Chatham—191.
Campbellton—188.
Newcastle—170.
Dalhousie—153.

As a result of the sixth bonspiel Bathurst again takes possession of the North Shore trophy. Both Campbellton and Bathurst have now won the cup twice and unless some other club lifts the trophy next year it becomes the permanent property of either of the successful leaders.

The score (the number of points made by each skip) was as follows:

MONEY PACKAGE LOST IN WRECK

Four Thousand Two Hundred Dollars Missing—Reward for Recovery Offered.

A money package containing $4200, which was being forwarded from Rimouski to Luceville, Quebec, by registered mail was lost in the wreck at Flatlands. The money belonged to the Bank National.

In the wreck much of the mail matter was badly broken up and was handled by a number of people. Some of it was placed in the Flatlands station office, but it is not known whether this valuable package was among the lot or not.

A reward of $250.00 is offered for its return or information which will lead to its discovery.

The bank has the serial number of the large bills so it will be exceedingly hard to pass these without detection. Persons are suspected of knowing something about this money and a close watch is being kept on all such.

YOUNG LAD SENT TO REFORMATORY

Given Two Years at St. John Institution for Trying to Wreck Ocean Limited.

On Monday Walter Babin, a twenty year old Athol youth was before the Setting Magistrate charged with tampering with the switches on the main line of the C.N.E., and attempting to derail the Ocean Limited.

Saturday morning, Feb. 16th inst., young Babin broke the lock of a main line switch at a siding facing a steep embankment at Athol. He stole the signal lamp off the switch board, and going further down the track, tried to open another switch which he was prevented from doing on account of the lock being frozen. A man passing by some time later, discovered the open switch, and closed it just in time to save the oncoming train, with its precious load of human lives, from destruction. The train was two and a half hours late, which was the only thing that saved it from complete destruction. Young Babin is incorrigible. He has been in various scrapes and has got beyond the control of his parents. He admitted his guilt and said he wanted to see what kind of a wreck would result. He was sentenced to two years at the Reformatory, St. John.

$250 Reward!

The above reward will be paid for information leading to the recovery of a Registered mail packet containing $4200.00 lost or stolen from the mail car on train No. 4, wrecked in collision at Flatlands, N. B., early on the morning of January 17th, 1919.

The money was contained in a white cotton bag, 9 1/2 x 13 inches in size, similar to those used by the Government for mailing seed, it was fastened at the top with a lead seal and bearing a linen tag with the senders name printed thereon, "La Banque Nationale."

Replies will be treated confidentially.

CITIZENS HONOR PASSING OF CAPT. OLIVER MOWAT

Presbyterian Church Crowded Sunday Evening for Memorial Service to Brave Campbellton Boy Killed in Russia.

The Presbyterian church was crowded late Capt. O. A. Mowat, and I was ed at the service Sunday evening, to mention the impressions made on when the pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, mo. There was first his solemn and conducted a memorial service to anities, an address, agony, detour, other of Campbellton's brave boys ation to which he undoubtedly ex- who has made the supreme sacrifice, much of his military success. The one again his social and then, an other, Capt. Oliver Mowat.

The memorial service commenced nature, a friendly approach, and to with hymn 261. "For all the saints who from the land of the living have been called home, who from their labors rest," which was sung with a fine solo by the choir. It was a favorite of the deceased officer, and also one of the most beautiful hymns in the hymn book. Rev. Mr. Miller in his discourse said to the church, "I am sure that you will all agree that this is a very sad day for us, and that we are all mourning the loss of a brave and noble young man."

With the signing of the armistice contract by the turning of the key, we expected the speedy ending of the rules of his training and his country list, and in due time we arms who our noble young man thought we had received the last case his sole means of who, we thought, But we forgot that some of our men were fighting on another. When asked if he had been front, or if we were conscious of the death his answer was, "I was fact, we thought it was a men's skins, it was too often to have a little risk, and that it would, it in a short time entirely cease. Our men were also sustained by the hopes proved false. Recently one of our military heroes, both in person and in spirit, was a favorite of the deceased officer, and also one of the most beautiful hymns in the hymn book. Rev. Mr. Miller in his discourse said to the church, "I am sure that you will all agree that this is a very sad day for us, and that we are all mourning the loss of a brave and noble young man."

It was my privilege to have been a part of the service, and I am acquainted for a short time with the

Thrift is the Maker of Character

Thrift is patriotic at this time. It is more—it is evidence of practical common sense, sound judgment and prudence, because it shows you are willing to make present sacrifice for future competence.
