O'CONNOR INTERVIEWED.

He Gives an Australian His Views on the Championship.

By appointment a representative of this user called on O'Connor and interviewed him with respect to the object of his visit and rowing matters generally. O'Connor is a finely-built young man, 20 years of age, anaive of Toronto, Canada. His rowing weight is 165 lbs. He is 5 ft. 10 in. high and 42 in. round the chest, while his muscular developments elsewhere are in equal proportions. At the present moment he weighs 190 lbs. to 195 lbs., but a short course of hard training will soon reduce him to his proper weight. He makes flesh very quick.

He is only 11 years old, and knocked his opponent out in the second round. Paul fights an unknown to a finish in three weeks. He is building two boats here for a lumber company and is well satisfied with Michigan. ing Club, over the usual course, from Dixie Island down to the boat house.

A large and influential committee have the arrangements well in hand, and everything is being looked after with a zeal that seems to assure the success of this leading aquatic event of the season. This will be the eleventh annual regatta of the association, but it is four years since the contests rowed in Montreal waters. Ottawa had the meet last summer.

Several of the Torontos put in regular practice on the Rosedale grounds every in Montreal waters. Ottawa had the meet last summer.

The program of events will consist of single-scull shells, senior and junior, single scull skiffs, four-oared shells, double-scull skiffs, four-oared shells, senior and junior. The list makes a clear distinction between junior and senior, and rule 18 of bylaws of the association states that a junior is one who has never pulled in a senior race) nor been a winner in a junior race. The entrance money will be as follows: Four oars, $10; Pair oars, $5; double sculls, $5; singles, $2.50; double-scull skiffs, $5. It is expected that this will be one of the largest gatherings of amateur oarsmen practice on the Rosedale grounds every evening.

Pluck Martin, the old Ontario lacrossist, will to-day send a formal application to Secretary O'Laughlin of the C.L.A. for reinstatement to the amateur ranks.

The Capitals have not yet secured grounds for practice, but will most probably play in the Bloor-street grounds, although an effort was made to get the baseball grounds for another year.

Toronto Cricketers' Initial Match.
The Toronto Cricket Club will open the season by a match with the Osgoode Hall eleven on the Bloor-street grounds Saturday May 17. On the following Saturday, May 17. On the following Saturday the Ottawa Club will be the attraction. The members practise daily and are developing favorably under the charge of their professional, Leigh.

Mr. Kerr on Asphalt Pavements. Editor World: I have read a paragraphe in The World printed some time ago in which Assessment Commissioner Maughan says that the "Asphalt pavements of Washington do not seem to be a success." I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Maughan in Washington, and through the kindness of a prominent real estate broker we had a drive through the city and suburbs. There is said to be over 100 miles of asphalt and coal tar pavements in the city. The streets are a marvel of cleanliness, smoothness and beauty. The street repairs are made in the winter season, and as a consequence the spring weather is the best to see asphalt and coal tar at its worst. There are many broken places in the coal tar pavement on some of the streets. at its worst. There are many broken places in the coal tar pavement on some of the streets, but scarcely a blemish in the Trinidad asphalted streets, except those laid in 1876.
