In the morning we found the streets coated with ice, the Saint John and were told that for 80 miles from the Grand Falls downwards, the ice on the river was entirely broken up. I strolled about the Town until the opening of the Session, which took place in the usual manner on Wednesday hast. The Council Chamber is finished off as fine as a new fiddle. The broad table on each side of which the members formerly sat has been thrown out, and two rows of beautiful desks set down in place of it. The room, however, is too large for the voice of any Speaker, and although Sir John Harvey is a very distinct and loud reader, I could not, where I stood in the crowd, hear what he asid 'On returning to the gallery of the Honse of Assembly, I heard the Clerk read Sir John's Speech to the House. It mentioned the health of the Queen—the birth of the Princess Royal, Commerce, Agriculture, Roads, Mails, Fisheries, Education, Geology, Militia, Re-venue, and the Boundary Line. Saturday next was appointed to take it into full (consi deration in the House, and three of the members were at once named to write an answer to it. A number of communittees were then raised for the consideration of Roads, Expi-piring Laws, Accounts, Privileges, Trade, Finance, &c. Of our Charlotte men Owen was put on Light Houses, Hill, on Privileges Brown, on Roads and Finance, and Boyd, on Accounts.
